English Version of the Syro-Malabar Liturgy of Hours

There has been a constant request from the Syro-Malabar Eparchies outside Kerala for an English version of the Liturgy of Hours of the Syro-Malabar Church, especially in the context of the increase of vocations to the Syro-Malabar Religious Congregations from other states of India. Since the non-Malayalee candidates and religious members cannot join the celebration of the Liturgy of Hours in Malayalam, an English version of the same is an urgent need.

The Synod of the Bishops of the Syro-Malabar Church made a decision to publish the English version of the Syro-Malabar Liturgy of Hours which had been published by the S.M.B.C. Committee for Divine Office. Here we quote the decision of the Synod: “To entrust the task of bringing out an English version of the Liturgy of the Hours for use in the formation houses of the religious outside the territorium proprium to the Committee of Bishop Sebastian Vadakel and Bishop Mathew Vaniakizhakkal following the normal procedure of publication by getting the approval from the Commission for Liturgy.” (XV Synod, Session I, January 2007).

As per the decision of the Synod of Bishops, we the Committee constituted for the purpose, in due consultation with the experts in the field, have prepared the English text and the same was approved by the Commission for Liturgy with necessary modifications. Since the songs are composed according to new tunes, CDs of the sample songs are distributed along with the book of the Liturgy of Hours.

We are happy that the rich prayers of the Syro-Malabar Liturgy of Hours are now made available in English, contributing to the spiritual growth of our faithful from other states and countries. We place on record our most sincere gratitude to all those who worked hard to prepare this text and contributed their share for the promotion of the liturgical life of the Church. Let this new version of the Liturgy of Hours be a blessing for the Syro-Malabar Church in India and abroad.

D : (Ps 140) I cry to you,
 Lord hasten to help me!
(Qanona) Lord, hear my prayer
when I cry to you.
 I cry to you, Lord; hasten to help me!
 Let my prayer arise
 Before you as incense.
 As the raising of my hands
 Like the evening oblation.

Set a guard, O Lord, over my mouth;
 Set a watch, O Lord,
 At the door of my lips!
 Do not turn my heart to anything wrong,
 Or to deeds evil with men wicked.

Never allow me to eat of their delicacies.
 If a righteous man strikes or Reproves me, it is kindness;
 But let the oil of the wicked
 Not anoint my head.
 Let my prayer be ever
 Against their malice.
 Their princes were thrown down by
 The side of the rock.

Then they understood that my words were kind.

(Ps 141)

With all my voice I cry to the Lord;
With all my voice I entreat the Lord.

I pour out my troubles before him;
I tell him all my distress.

While my spirit faints within me,
But you, O Lord, know my path.

On the way where I shall walk
They have hidden a snare for me.

Look on my right and see:
There is not one who knows me.

I have no means of escape,
Not one cares for my soul.

I cry to you, O Lord.
I have said: 'You are my refuge'.
(Ps 118)

Your word is a lamp for my feet,
And a light for my path.

I have sworn, and have made up
My mind to obey your decrees.
Lord, I am deeply afflicted:
By your word give me life.

Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips
And teach me your decrees.

Though I carry my life in my hands,
I do not forget your law.

Though the wicked try to ensnare me
I do not stray from your precepts.

Your will is my heritage forever,
The rejoicing of my heart.

I set myself to carry out your statutes
in fullness, forever.

(Ps 116)

O praise the Lord, all you nations,
Acclaim him all you peoples!

Strong is his mercy and love for us;
He is faithful for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever. Amen.

Night Hymn

Full of mercy, Lord our God,
Look with favour on us,
We who are Your own people.

You know us, Lord our God,
The oppression of our foes;
Pour forth your grace upon us.

Sea of mercy, You, Lord,
Protect us Your children well
From all those who exploit us.

Let the truth be our weapon
And it shall be our fortress
That we may sing Your glory.

Lord Jesus, sow Your peace
In this world of disorder
Through the prayers of Mary.

Remove from this world, Lord,
Armament and enmity
That we bless her with one voice.

Lord Jesus, may Your prophets,
Apostles and Fathers of Church,
Doctors and martyrs for faith.

Pray for us, with one voice
We may sing with all of them,
Praising Your great Majesty.

Our Sliha Mar Thoma
Intercede now for us
With our Lord and God Jesus.

That your children may enjoy
Bliss of your promise
In the Kingdom at your side.

He (She) who gained rich reward
Working with joy and love
In the vineyard of Lord.

May his (her) supplications bring
To this parish (household)
God's blessing and his mercy.

*(Qanona) Praise the Lord, the giver of light.
Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.*

Serve the Lord with gladness:
Come before him, singing for joy.
Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him,
We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Enter into his gates, giving thanks,
And into his courts with songs of praise.

Give thanks to him and bless his name.

He is faithful from age to age.

D : (Ps 91) Blessed is he who abides in the shelter of the most High.
And abides in the shade of the Almighty.

(Qanona) Our hope in you is worthy of praise, Christ our Redeemer.

Blessed is he who abides in the Shelter of the most High.
And abides in the shade of the Almighty.

Say to the Lord: 'My refuge,
My stronghold, my God in whom I trust!'

It is he who will free you from the snare of the fowler
Who seeks to destroy you.

He will conceal you with his pinions
And under his wings you will find refuge.

You will not fear the terror of the night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day.

Nor the plague that prowls
in the darkness;
Nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand shall fall at your side,
Ten thousand at your right.

But you, it will never approach;
His faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look
To see how the wicked are repaid.

Because you who have said:
‘Lord, my refuge!’
And have made the most High
Your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall be fall,
No any plague come near
Where you dwell.

For you, has he commanded his angels,
To keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon in their hands
Lest you strike your foot
Against a stone.

On the lion and viper you will tread
The young lion and the dragon
You will trample.

Since he clings to me in love,
I will free him.
I will protect him, for he has Known my name.

When he calls I shall answer. 'I am with you.'
I will save him in distress and give him glory.

With long life I will content him;
I shall let him see my saving power.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Blessed is he who abides in the shelter of the most High
and abides in the shade of the Almighty.

C : Lord, Creator and Protector of humankind, you are our refuge and strength. Those who flee to you, calling upon your name, will never be confounded. For, you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
forever.

R : Amen.

D : (Ps 104:1-14)

Bless the Lord, my soul!

(Qanona) Glory to the Lord, forever.

Bless the Lord, my soul!

Lord God, how great you are;
Clothed in majesty and glory,
Wrapped in light as in a robe!

You stretch out the heavens like a tent:
Above the rains you build
Your dwelling.

You make the clouds your chariot:
You walk on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers:
And flashing fire your servants.

You founded the earth on its base,
To stand firm from age to age.

You wrapped it with the ocean
like a cloak:
The waters stood above the mountains.

At your threat they took to flight;
At the voice of your thunder they fled.

They rose over the mountains
And flowed down
Unto the place which you had appointed.

You set limits that they might not pass over;
Lest they return to cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys,
And they flow among the hills.

They give drink to all the beasts of the field:
The wild asses quench their thirst.

On the banks dwell the birds of heaven,
From the branches they sing their song.

From your dwelling
You water the hills:
The earth drinks its fill of your gift.

You make the grass grow for the cattle,
And the plants to serve man's needs.

Glory be to the Father,
And to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

*(Qanona) Glory to the Lord, forever.
Bless the Lord, my soul!*

D: Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord, you delight every creature with Your heavenly splendour. In your mercy, you created light to contain darkness. We praise and adore you. For, you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

A : Amen.

(Ps 93) The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;

(Qanona) We praise you, Christ the Light.

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
The Lord has robed himself with might,
He has girded himself with power.

The world you made firm,
Not to be moved.

Your throne has stood firm from of old:

From all eternity, O Lord, you are.
The waters have lifted up, O Lord,
The waters have lifted up their voice.

The waters have lifted up their thunder.
Greater than the roar of mighty waves.

More glorious than the surgings of the sea,
The Lord is glorious on high.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house,
O Lord, until the end of time.

(Ps 150) Alleluia!

Praise God in his holy place:
Praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds;
Praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet;
Praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with tumbrel and dance;
Praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals;
Praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes
Give praise to the Lord. Alleluia!

(Ps 116) O praise the Lord, all you nations,
Acclaim him all you people.

Strong is his love for us:
He is faithful for ever.

Glory be to the Father, And to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever. Amen.

D : *Let us praise the Lord in our breath.
We praise you, Christ the Light!*

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal light and splendour of the Father, we render you glory, honour, thanksgiving and worship. For, radiating the rays of hope for eternal life, you have risen in the world to renew and save it. Lord of all, forever.

A : Amen.

Morning Hymn

In the bright and dawning light
We are singing with delight
Our hymns and praises to You Lord,
Saviour of all creation.

Grant a day of peace and hope
In Your mercy, Lord of all,
Grant us remission of our sins;
lead us on the path of goodness.

May Your children never lose
The strong hope that we place in You.
Lord of all, close not the door
In Your weak, frail children's face.

You know, Father, our follies
And the weakness of our race.
Reward us with Your mercy;
Look not on our little worthiness.

Sow on earth Your unity,
Peace and charity, O Lord.
May all those who tend Your sheep
See much good fruit in that field.

Heal the sick; lift those who fall,
Bestow health to one and all;
Cleanse the sins from every one;
Increase holiness in all.

(Praise of Three Children: Dan 3:35 ff.)

All creation, bless the Lord, and sing His praises with joy;
vault of sky with all it holds,
bless Lord, the God of all.

We give praise with hosts of angels
For that glorious morning when
Christ will come to raise the dead
And bestow deserved reward.

Angels and the heavenly hosts,
Army of the Mighty God,
Rain and snow and heat and cold,
Bless Lord, the God of all.

Sun and moon and stars and light,
Day and night and wind and breeze,
Lightning, thunder, clouds and storm,
Bless Lord, the God of all.

Mountains, hills and seas and springs,
And the beasts that live in them,
And the grass and shrubs and trees,
Bless Lord, the God of all.

Birds and flies and worms and fish,
And the priests and sons of men,
Just and martyrs and the saints,
Bless Lord, the God of all.

Three young men, so shining bright,
Walking safe in fire that burns.
Chosen ones, with Israel,
Bless Lord, the God of all.

We give praise with angel hosts
For that glorious morning when-
Christ will come to raise the dead
And bestow deserved reward.

Glory to the Father be only Son and Spirit blest;
as from all eternity
now and ever, may it be.

Keep us safe and sound, O Lord,
In this world that fades away.
Keep us in Your mercy, Lord,
On that day You come to judge.

When that splendid morning dawns
And You grant us, Lord, Your grace,
Give us gifts of peace and joy,
Worthy of the life that lasts.

As we know, You are the light,
Light from Light and God from God,
With the angels we await
With the hope to see You come.

Common Order

(Ordinary Days)

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.
(If there is no prayer proper of the day, the following is said)

Slotha

C : Lord, with joy, the entire creation praise and adore you as their Creator. With infinite and ineffable mercy, you miraculously sustain them. Lord, as you called the creatures into existence, preserve our souls. For, you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

A : Amen.

Deacon chants the first verse of the Psalm with its Qanona. The community takes up the psalm in two sides but without the antiphon and concludes it with the doxology. Every one gets up at the doxology. Deacon then says: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Let us pray. Peace be with us.

(The same procedure is to be followed in the chanting of other psalms).

D : (Ps 100) Cry out with joy to the Lord,
All the earth.

*(Qanona) Lord, the giver of light,
We render you praise.*

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Serve the Lord with gladness:
Come before him, singing for joy.

Know that he, the Lord, is God:
He made us, we belong to him:
We are his people,
And the sheep of his flock.
Enter into his gates, giving thanks,
And into his courts with songs of praise:
Give thanks to him, and bless his name.

Indeed, how good is the Lord,
Eternal his merciful love;
He is faithful from age to age.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Lord, the giver of light, we render you praise.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord, we adore and praise your holy name, for, you are the Lord and Creator of everything. For, you are the Lord of all,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
forever.

A : Amen.

D : (Ps 91) Blessed is he who abides
In the shelter of the most High
And abides in the shade of the Almighty.

*(Qanona) Our hope in you is worthy
of praise, Christ our Redeemer.*

Blessed is he who abides
In the shelter of the most High
And abides in the shade of the Almighty.

Say to the Lord: 'My refuge,
My stronghold, my God in whom I trust!'

It is he who will free you from the snare
of the fowler who seeks to destroy you.

He will conceal you with his pinions
And under his wings
You will find refuge.
You will not fear the terror of the night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day.

Nor the plague that prowls
In the darkness;
Nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand shall fall at your side,
Ten thousand at your right.

But you, it will never approach;
His faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look
To see how the wicked are repaid.

Because you who have said:

‘Lord, my refuge!’

And have made the most High
Your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall befall,
No any plague come near
Where you dwell.

For you, has he commanded his Angels,
To keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon in their hands
Lest you strike your foot against a stone.

On the lion and viper you will tread
The young lion and the dragon
You will trample.

Since he clings to me in love,
I will free him.

I will protect him,
For he has known my name.

When he calls I shall answer:
'I am with you.'

I will save him in distress
And give him glory.

With long life I will content him;
I shall let him see my saving power.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels:

Praise him, all his hosts.

Praise him, sun and moon:

Praise him, all you shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens,
and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord:

For he commanded: and they were made.

He also fixed them forever:

He gave a law which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth,

(Ps 51) Have mercy on me, God

In your kindness:

In your compassion blot out my offences.

(Qanona) Lord, have mercy upon me!

Christ, have mercy upon me!

Lord, have mercy upon me!

Have mercy on me, God

In your kindness.

In your compassion

Blot out my offence.

O wash me more and more

From my guilt,

And cleanse me from my sin.

My offences truly I know them:

And my sin is always before me.

Against you, you alone, have I sinned,

What is evil in your sight I have done.

(Only in the Season of Great Lent)

That you may be justified
When you give sentence,
And be without reproach when you judge.

O see, in guilt I was born;
A sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart:
Then in the secret of my heart
Teach me wisdom.

O purify me, then I shall be clean:
Wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness;
That the bones you have crushed may thrill.

From my sins turn away your face,
And blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God;
Put a steadfast spirit within me.

Do not cast me away
From your presence;
Nor deprive me of your Holy Spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervour sustain me.

That I may teach transgressors
Your ways;
And sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper,
And my tongue shall ring out
Your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips:
And my mouth shall declare
Your praise.

For, in sacrifice you take no delight;
Burnt offerings from me
You would refuse.

My sacrifice, a contrite spirit.
A humbled, contrite heart O God,
you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favour to Zion:
Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice.

Then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offences.
Lord, have mercy upon me. Christ, have mercy upon me! Lord, have mercy upon me.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

of peace, bestow your peace and tranquillity on us that we may sing your praises all our life, Lord of all, forever.

A : Amen.

D : Brothers and Sisters, Raise your voices and glorify the living God.

A : Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal
One, have mercy on us.

C : Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy spirit.

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy
Immortal One, have mercy on us.

A : From the eternity and forever. Amen.

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal
One, have mercy on us.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

C : Lord, your name is holy. Abode of Goodness, your mercy is infinite. Bestow your grace upon us sinners, who call on your name. For you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

Morning Hymn

In the bright and dawning light
We are singing with delight
Our hymns and praises to You Lord,
Saviour of all creation.

Grant a day of peace and hope
In Your mercy, Lord of all,
Grant us remission of our sins;
Lead us on path of goodness.

May Your children never lose
The strong hope that we place in You.
Lord of all, close not the door
In Your weak, frail children's face.

You know, Father, our follies
And the weakness of our race.
Reward us with Your mercy;
Look not on our little worthiness.

Sow on earth Your unity,
Peace and charity, O Lord.
May all those who tend Your sheep
See much good fruit in that field.

Heal the sick; lift those who fall,
Bestow health to one and all;
Cleanse the sins from every one;
Increase holiness in all.

May Your hand save us, O Lord
In all paths and ways we go
As You once kept safe from Saul David in his lowliness.

May each step, O Lord, we take
Be according to Your will,
That we reach our goal in peace
Under Your protecting care.

Through the Red Sea, You once led Moses and Your chosen ones,
Daniel in the lion's den
Was preserved, by Your grace.

Ananias and his friends
Were saved from the furnace fire.
Guard us also by Your power,
Lord, from all the evil ones.

Rising with the morning sun
We adore our Father's Name
And sing glory to His Son,
As we thank the Spirit blest.
May Our loving Father's grace
And the mercy of His Son
And the Spirit's compassion
Be upon us all our days.

Lord, we place our hope in You,
You the Healer of our lives.
May Your mercy's medicine
Save us from the wounds of sin.

You alone can give us strength
That we need and keep Your word.
Help, guide and protect, O Christ,
Those who worship You, O Lord.

Let us request forgiveness
From the Lord compassionate
Who waits at His open door
For the sinners who repent.

Day by day we turn to You,
Yet our sins are multiplied,
Grant us mercy, Christ our Lord
That we enter Your Kingdom.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Onitha daqdam

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen God)

O shepherd of Israel, hear us (Ps 80:1)

God the word our Lord Jesus Christ
Assumed His body from on high
To save us from sin and disgrace
God the Lord was born as man
In the tribe of Abraham
Let us now praise His holy name.

He came to his own people (Jn 1:11)

God the Word proceeds from the Father
In time took birth from Blessed Mary

On earth as the angel had declared
This was not in the human way
We know all this by strong faith in Him
Let us now praise His holy name.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

When Son of God came to earth
He assumed our weak human nature
So that He may protect us all
He became one and same like us
Except in sin and all wickedness
Let us all now praise His holy name.

(Slotha, Psalms, etc. follow Common Order, p. 8).

Onitha d' Wasar

(Tune 2, In order that)

He appeared in bodily form (1 Tim 3:16)

In order that God might grant us
The grace of vision to human race,
God has done now a wondrous deed
Was never grasped by senses alone
From His throne the Word comes down
Becomes the one in human form
He in His weak human flesh
Dwelt with us on this earth below.

Forever, I will sing the mercy of the Lord
(Ps 89:1)

Lord, we sense your mercy for us
Always that is certain in our faith
In your mercy became true man
Born for us on this earth below
Grant us strength to praise you Lord
And sing of your great glory
We now sing with holy ones
Depth of your love for us all.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Father loved this world so much
To send His only Son for us
To save us from this world of sin
Let us entrust ourselves to Him
Who came to give us life divine
Never to condemn the world
Let us therefore worship Him
Who is the source of life and grace.

(Slotha, etc. from the Common Order, p. 12).

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Onitha d'Wasalique*(Tune 7, We render homage)He had to become like others in everything (Heb 2:17)

Not clinging to your divine status
You emptied yourself to slavish nature
You humbled yourself to human form
That of a servant obedient to death.

I gave birth to you this day (Ps 2:7)

In fullness of time Eternal Son
Came to this world as David's son
We who find our solace in you
Praise your births divine and human.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Came from heaven to bring peace on earth
To intercede for Humankind
To reconcile us with the Father
To turn His mercy to all creation.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord our God, you wrought about the work of our redemption in Jesus Christ the first fruits of humankind.¹ In your mercy and grace, you transformed and saved our frail human nature in such a wonderful manner, beyond all telling.² You deserve our praise, honour, thanks giving and adoration. For you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

R : Amen.

Suraya (Ps 8:4-7)

What is man that you should keep him in mind,
Mortal man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a God;
With glory and honour you crowned him.

Gave him power over the works of your hand,
Put all things under his feet.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen Lord)

Our God is with us (Mt 1:24)

True light came to give us his light
 Through Him was created all that exist
 The Word became flesh and lived with us
 But His own people did not recognize Him
 To those who received Him in true faith
 He gave the power as God's own children.

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us (Jn 1:14)

To the helpless flock who longs for God
 God's Son came from heaven in love
 What was not His we thought as His
 What was not ours we thought ours

Who on earth can gaze on Him?
Let us praise now His marvellous birth.

Taste and see that the Lord is sweet
(Ps 34:8)

First parents' mortal frame was from earth
God wiped out our death by parting life
Life eternal comes from the Most High
And shares the wealth with everyone
We treat Him not as mere human
His divinity pours grace on us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

We praise you Lord who shed your mercy
Answer our prayers and bestow your grace
Lord you assumed our human form
To subject it to your brilliance
You pour your infinite grace on us
We now sing and praise your holy name.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Jn 1:1-4,15)

In the beginning was the Word:
the Word was with God and the Word was God.

He was with God in the beginning.
Through him all things came into being, not one thing came into being except through him.

What has come into being in him was life,
life that was the light of men.

The Word became flesh,

As only Son of the Father,
full of grace and truth.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,

Tesbohta

(Tune 5, We praise you)

We praise you Lord for all your saints
Lead us all to eternal life
A Virgin's Babe prophet foresaw
And praised the Lord God Almighty.

By the power of Spirit of God
Virgin becomes God's mother
Holy Spirit abides in her
So says the Holy writ aright.

Holy Spirit overshadowed her Infused the human with divine
 God dwelt in human mother
 Blending the human with divine.

To this world God sent His Son
 To save it all as he had planned
 One in heart and mind we praise
 Father, Son and Spirit Divine.

(Tune 2, In order that)

You were our refuge, O Lord! (Ps 90:1)

At the temple came Zachariah
To offer incense to Lord aright
The people waited out in prayer
Angel of God at the altar said.

“Fear not you, God heard your prayer
Your aged wife will bear a son,
John is his name as God has willed
He will be great in the sight of God.”

The Lord look down from above on the humans (Ps 14:2)

The angel said to him again
In humble way to call him John

And at his birth will all rejoice
At mother's womb he's filled with power.

He will be great, taste no wine
He will turn many hearts to God
Father-son bond he transforms
Will prepare the way of Lord.

Our heart rejoiced in him (Ps 33:21)

Zachariah was filled with spirit
Prophesied from the depth of his heart
God had kindly come to His folk
And deigned to grant them salvation.

As foretold long time ago.
To free us from the hands of foe,
To keep promise made to Abraham
To raise saviour from David's line.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

It was declared about the child
On you shall fall God's loving gaze
You shall be known prophet of High

Leading people to lasting peace.

The Word was the real light that gives light to everyone;

He was coming into the world
He was in the world.

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

The Lord has done good by sending you (Jdt 11:20)

God deigned to take man into heaven
Herald he sent came to world below
To forgive humans from all sins
God extended his hand to all.
A virgin represents human race
Set off hope and holy covenant.

Hear this, all nations (Ps 49:1)

Joseph protected virgin Mary Mother of God in God's garden.
There is no tree of knowledge though
With no serpent to fight humans
With no Eve to bring death on earth
A tree of life grows well in garden.

Joseph, the husband of Mary, was an upright man (Mt 1: 19)

Husband is always head of his wife
Knowing this Mary served her husband
But as a priest who serves at the ark.
That is full of sacred objects
So did Joseph serve blessed Mary
Who bore the son of God in her womb.

Glory to the Father and to the Son

Two mothers in the world became great
By what they did when living on earth
Eve broke law of God in Eden Forced all to fall in disgrace.

and dominion has been laid on his shoulders;
This is the name he has been given.

‘Wonder-Counsellor, Mighty-God,
Eternal-Father, Prince-of-Peace’

Creator comes to live among us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Moses bore tablets in reverence
Joseph cares Mother of God's Son
God gave tablets enclosed in ark
Rays of glory radiates from earth
Though Mary hid in humility
By her the Lord spread Gospel on earth.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Lk 1:46-55)

My soul glorifies the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour.

He looks on his servant in her lowliness;
henceforth all ages will call me blessed.

The Almighty works marvels for me.
Holy his name!

His mercy is from age to age,
on those who fear him.

He puts forth his arm in strength
And scatters the proud-hearted.

He casts the mighty from their thrones and raises the lowly.

He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty.

He protects Israel his servant,
remembering his mercy.

The mercy promised to our fathers,
to Abram and his sons forever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Tesbohta

(Tune 6, The Lord assumed)

Mother of God the mighty Lord
O maiden, great marvel on earth
Praise to you Mother, full of grace.

The Almighty protects one and all
Born of you in your love and care
Praise to you Mother, full of grace.

You are the harbour on earth
On which fall all prophetic words
Praise to you Mother, full of grace.

One in mind, and one in heart
Let us now praise the creator God
The Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

He who has been enthroned from the beginning (Ps 55:19)

 Just like everyone, but not in sin

(Tune 2, In order that)

Life to me is Christ (Phil 1:21)

We inherit from Father divine
 Fatherhood in heaven and on earth
 And by the grace of Spirit of God
 From the abundance of riches great.

May God now grant strength to all
 May His Son dwell in us all
 His love be root of tree of life
 Instill in us His breath of love.

I have come so that they may have life
(Jn 10:10)

Father revealed His love for us
By sending His Son into the world
Promised to us eternal life
Not that our hearts now burned with His love.

But showed His love sending Son
By granting pardon to all men
Let humans love each and everyone
From the Lord take great example.

God loved us first (1 Jn 4:19)
Who on earth Lord can delve into depth?
Your glory is beyond our reach
You gave your Son, the Word to world
Out of your love the Word became flesh.

Taking the flesh from Virgin Mary
Hail O Mary, full of grace
You bring forth God into the world
Said the messenger from God our Lord.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit
We adore you God manifested
In fullness of time to this world

This is the revelation of God's love for us, that God sent his only Son into the world that we might have life through him.

Subaha (Eph 1:3-10)

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Who has blessed us with all
The spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.
Thus he chose us in Christ,
Before the world was made
To be holy and faultless before him in love.

Marking us out for himself beforehand,
to be adopted sons, through Jesus Christ.

Such was his purpose and good pleasure, to the praise of the glory of his grace.

His free gift to us in the Beloved,
in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom,
the forgiveness of our sins.

Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight.

He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, according to his good pleasure.

Which he determined beforehand in Christ, for him to act upon when the times had run their course:

That he would bring everything together

Tesbohta

(Tune, Lord of all we bow and praise)

Light to righteous did shine on earth
Those of pure heart wore its splendour

Light that leaves from the Father's own side Freed the world with his divinely light.

As the light shone darkness vanished
Divine light came to shed on men
From the beginning hell's door did shake
As you spread light on those in darkness.

As you shed golden light on dead
That the dead raise, praise the true light
Praise and honour to God Almighty
To the Son most loved and the Spirit.

you sent your breath and they were put together.

And no one can resist your voice.
Should mountains be tossed from their foundations.

To mingle with the waves, should rocks melt like wax before your face.

To those who fear you,
you would still be merciful.

A little thing indeed is a sweetly smelling sacrifice.

Still less the fat burned for you in burnt offering;
but whoever fears the Lord is great for ever.

People found grace in the Lord.

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

Never let the sun set on your anger
(Eph 4:26)

When you bring offering to the altar
 If you remember that your brother
 Is against you and feel offended
 Leave the offering before the altar
 Foremost you go and reconcile
 Then come and present offering to God.

You have words of eternal life (Jn 6:68)

You see the splinter in brother's eyes
 Not noticing great log in your eyes
 How dare you say to him to pause
 "Let me take splinter out of your eye,"

While there is great log in your own eye
By these words Lord transforms our hearts.

I have given you an example (Jn 13:15)

Love your enemies, pray for who hurt
That you may become children of God
He causes sun to rise on all Sends rain on the wicked and just
If you only love those who love you
What reward can claim out of this.

Glory to the Father and to the Son

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Sir 51:23-29)

Come close to me, you ignorant, take your place in my school.

Why complain about lacking these things
when your souls are so thirsty for them?
I have opened my mouth, I have said:

‘Buy her without money,
put your necks under her yoke,
let your souls receive instruction,
she is near, within your reach.’

See for yourselves:
how slight my efforts have been to win so much peace.

Buy instruction with a large sum of silver,
thanks to her you will gain much gold.

May your souls rejoice in the mercy of the Lord,
may you never be ashamed of praising him.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,

Tesbohta

(Tune 14, When we walked)

If we keep way to the eternal life
We shall be worthy for the last feast.

On Calvary Lord won us a road
Treading in that road we shall see him.

As Moses led the people who strayed
Christ leads us along the path of gospel.

Leaving road of world leads to doom
We should tread in the path of love.

To God the Father and to His Son
And to the Spirit, glory and praise.

(Tune, Lord of all we bow)

My knees are weak from fasting (Ps 109:24)

Moses on Sinai got commands

Fasting and praying for forty days

Joshua fasted and changed course of sun

Elijah went up in the chariot.

They proclaimed a fast (Jon 3:5)

Penance with prayers cure illness
This is wonder for the worldly
Fasting frees us from sinful passions
Of forty days fast Lord showed the path.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Grace me to walk in fasting's path
By fasting and prayer in flowing tears
To render help to those in need
Lord give me grace and strength that I need.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord our God, We give you praise, honour, thanksgiving, and adoration, for your wonderful and incomprehensible redemptive work¹ that you brought to completion in Christ the first fruits of the human race.² In your mercy and grace you transformed and redeemed our weak human nature. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Lord of all forever.

R : Amen.

¹2 Cor 9:15, ²1 Cor 15:23

Suraya (Is 59:2-8)

Your guilty deeds have made a gulf
Between you and your God.

Your sins have made him hide his face
From you so as not to hear you.

Since your hands are stained with blood
And your fingers with guilt; your lips utter lies,
Your tongues murmur wickedness.

No one makes upright accusations
Or pleads sincerely.

All rely on empty words, utter falsehood,
Conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

They are hatching adders' eggs
And weaving a spider's web.

Eat one of their eggs and you die,
Crush one and a viper emerges.

Their webs are useless for clothing,
Their deeds are useless for wearing;
Their deeds are deeds of guilt, violence fills their hands.
Their feet run to do evil; they are quick
To shed innocent blood.

Their thoughts are thoughts of guilt,
Wherever they go there is havoc and ruin.

They do not know the way of peace,
There is no fair judgement in their course.

They have made their own crooked paths,
And no one treading them knows any peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

Encourage me to walk in your truth (Ps 25:5)

Time for turning to Lord has drawn near Let's heed call of heaven with sigh

Cleanse me from sin, let my heart shine
 Have mercy on me, make me pure
 You are my refuge sinner I am
 You are my refuge now and ever.

Lord, take pity on me (Ps 25:16)

From vortex of sin I seek mercy
 I am worn out by burden of sins
 Unable to toss it off, Lord
 I am powerless before you Lord
 You are my refuge sinner I am
 You are my refuge now and ever.

I mortified myself with fasting (Ps 35:13)

When we fast God showers in hearts
 Nectar of mercy-love in plenty
 When land and sea quake of our sins
 I trip down the path aimlessly
 Grace and fill me with radiance of faith
 You are my refuge now and ever.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
 and to the Holy Spirit

Let my fast cleanse and sharpen my mind
 By fast upright received Lord's mercy
 And grace to enjoy the heaven
 Bless me Lord to do abstinence

You are my refuge sinner I am
You are my refuge now and ever.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Is. 58,6-11)

Is not this the sort of fast that pleases me:
To break unjust fetters,

To undo the thongs of the yoke,
To let the oppressed go free,
And to break all yokes?

Is it not sharing your food with the hungry,
And sheltering the homeless poor;

If you see someone lacking clothes, to clothe him,
And not to turn away from your own kin?

Then your light will blaze out like the dawn
And your wound be quickly healed over.

Saving justice will go ahead of you
And the Lord's glory come behind you.

Then you will cry for help
And the Lord will answer.

You will call and he will say, 'I am here.'
If you do away with the yoke.

The clenched fist and malicious words,
If you deprive yourself for the hungry.

And satisfy the needs of the afflicted,
Your light will rise in the darkness,
And your darkest hour will be like noon.

The Lord will always guide you,
Will satisfy your needs in the scorched land;
He will give strength to your bones
And you will be like a watered garden,
Like a flowing spring whose waters never run dry.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Tesbohta

(Tune 14, When we walked)

Brethren if we are vigilant always
We gain fruits like very good hope.

By true fast the upright were crowned
Golden crown of the glory divine.

Lord God did appear on Mount Sinai
To give mission to prophet Moses.

Most of the sages of ancient time
Had worn the crown of fasting worthy.

By His fast Christ delivered us all
Who are enslaved to clutches of death.

Let us praise the Lord who gave us life
And salvation to sinful humans.

Let's sing hymns of praise to the Father
And to the Son and Spirit ever.

Prayer from within will rise to God
For the forgiveness of sins and debts
Let's knock at merciful door

Onitha d'Wasar

(Tune 7, We render homage)

Against You, You alone, have I sinned
(Ps 51:4)

O Lord I see my sinful wishes
Like an image drawn on a board
My soul is burned with shame of sins
Cleanse me Lord from the stains of sins.

Wipe away my offences (Ps 51:1)

The earthly body is tormented
By sins and pain of so many plagues
When I meet with an unforeseen death
Lord have mercy and cleanse my soul.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Lord who forgives a penitent's sins
You are eternal friend of sinners

Save those fall into pit of death
 Lord, remove stains from depth of my heart.

Onitha d'Ramsa

(Tune 6, The Lord assumed)

Narrow is the road that leads to life (Mt 7:13)

Narrow the road and door to heaven
 Careless traveler will not reach there Weak-minded roams by broad lane to hell.

Against you, you alone have I sinned

(Ps 51:4)

Despite my failure in keeping Law
 Lord in mercy you showed me true path
 From pit of sin delivered and led me.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
 and to the Holy Spirit

I'm defeated for passion of world
 Grant me contrition to merge with you
 Before the thief steals my soul from body.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C.: God of mercy and compassion, incline towards us. Take not your protective gaze from us. Help us to advance on the path of your commandments, without letting the evil desires drag us down. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Lord of all, forever!

R : Amen.

Aswasa (Ps 118:65-72)

Lord, you have been good to your servant
According to your word.

Teach me discernment and knowledge
For I trust in your commands.

Before I was afflicted I strayed
But now I keep your word.

You are good and your deeds are good;
Teach me your statutes.

Though proud men smear me with lies
Yet I keep your precepts.

Their minds are closed to good
But your law is my delight.

It was good for me to be afflicted,
To learn your statutes.

The law from your mouth means
 More to me than silver and gold.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
 and to the Holy Spirit,
 from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

I do not do the good I want (Rom 7:18)

Though I want to melt in repentance
 By evil desires my soul faints
 Unable to do the good I desire
 I do evil which I hate in me

Being tossed around in sin's ocean
You alone are my Rock of refuge.

My desires are always before me (Ps 51:3)

Desires to abyss I cherish
I'm weary of bearing sin's yoke
I drift aimlessly my senses
So the enemy enter my soul
I am sheep strayed off from you Lord
Stretch out your loving hand on sinner.

I have come to call sinners (Lk 5:32)

Allured by the charms of both the worlds
Mundane vanishes, heaven endures
I fail to heed call to the right path
Mind and body are afflicted
I strive to seek you Lord with pure heart
A heart with contrition that you love.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Lord you shed incomparable love
Sinners approach you, door of mercy;
As who drew nectar of your love
I too come to find peace of life
With tears, because I struggle in sin
You alone are my Rock of refuge.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 25)

Suraya (Mic 3:9-12)

Kindly listen to this, you leaders
Of the House of Jacob.

You princes of the House of Israel,
Who detest justice.

Wresting it from its honest course,
Who build Zion with blood,
And Jerusalem with iniquity!

Her leaders give verdicts for presents,
Her priests take a fee for their rulings,
Her prophets divine for money.

And yet they rely on Yahweh!
‘Isn’t the Lord among us?’ They say,
‘No disaster is going to overtake us.’

That is why, thanks to you,
Zion will become ploughland.

Jerusalem a heap of rubble
And the Temple Mount a wooded height.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Tesbohta*(Tune 14, When we walked)*

We are drifting away from you Lord
Carried off with the worldly pleasures.

We stray like sheep without shepherd
Entangled in snares laid by satan.

Lord you search innermost of human
Have mercy on me in my weakness.

O Lord of mercy defeat evil
Who fights against the human creature.

We who are tossed about mercilessly
In the ocean of evil of world.

Come seeking harbour of your mercy
With the widow we too come weeping.

Purify our minds enslaved by sin
Grant us new life to sing your praises.

Glory to Father and to the Son
And to the Holy Spirit ever.

Slotha (from Common Order, p. 26)

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 2, In Order that)

I placed my trust in you (Ps 142:8)

The adulterous woman sought repentance
 Attaining peace after self-refining
 Her eyes were once engrossed in the world
 Now they are filled with perpetual joy.

Deep love helped her to repent
 Touched His feet who showed mercy
 Lord you alone are my hope.
 Lord you alone are my hope.

I will heal your wounds (Gen 30:17)

You are the doctor who cured the sick
 I take refuge in you, cast off my sins

You created me out of nothing
In mercy cast off sins' emptiness.

To sustain a humble heart
Lord be merciful to me
That I may taste heavenly bliss
Lord you alone are my hope.

Do not desert me, my God (Ps 38:21)

Merciful Lord, by breaking commands
I drifted away, lost in my sin
Let me wash your feet with my tears
Just as the woman who did repentance.

I fall at you feet with sighs
From depth of my repent heart
Lord God grant me forgiveness
Lord you alone are my hope.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

You the physician who healed my soul
None but you can classify sinner
Sinners attain wholeness by penance
They find new life in you divine healer.

As the workers in vineyard
At late hours of sunset

I came to work in your field
Lord you alone are my hope.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Lam 3:31-42.48)

For the Lord will not reject anyone for ever.
If he brings grief, he will have pity out of the fullness of his faithful love.

For it is not for his own pleasure that he torments and grieves the human race.

When all the prisoners in a country
Are crushed underfoot, when human rights
Are overridden in defiance of the Most High.

When someone is cheated of justice,
Does not the Lord see it?

Who has only to speak and it is so done?
Who commands, if not the Lord?

From where, if not
From the mouth of the Most High,
Do evil and good come?

Why then should anyone complain?
Better to be bold against one's sins.

Let us examine our path,
Let us ponder it and return to the Lord.

Let us raise our hearts
And hands to God in heaven.

We are the ones who have sinned,
Who have rebelled, and you have not forgiven.

My eyes dissolve in torrents of tears
At the ruin of my beloved people.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Tesbohta

(Tune 14, When we walked)

O good shepherd feed sheep in your fold
You suffered persecution for us.

I cry to you Lord with tears in eyes
Grave its illness and pain hard to bear.

Be merciful to me my healer
As evil spreads, my sin multiplies.

I am afraid of the Judgment day
Lord bless me with your redeeming grace.

Let your mercy bear victory always Grant me grace to do your will always.

Let me sing praise of the Trinity Glory to Father, Son and Spirit.

Suraya (Wis 1:1-8)

Love uprightness you who are rulers on earth,
Be properly disposed towards the Lord
And seek him in simplicity of heart.

For he will be found by those Who do not put him to the test,
Revealing himself to those who do not mistrust him.

Perverse thoughts, however, separate
People from God,
And power, when put to the test,
Confounds the stupid.

Wisdom will never enter the soul
Of a wrong-doer,
Nor dwell in a body enslaved to sin.
Recoils from unintelligent thoughts,
Is thwarted by the onset of vice.

Wisdom is spirit friendly to humanity,
Though she shed.

Since God observes the very soul
And accurately surveys the heart,
Listening to every word.

For the spirit of the Lord fills the world,
And that which holds everything together
Knows every word said.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Subaha (Tob 13:6-14)

If you return to the Lord
With all your heart and all your soul,
Behaving honestly towards him.

Then he will return to you
And hide his face from you no longer.

Consider how well he has treated you;
Loudly give him thanks.

Bless the Lord of justice
And extol the King of the ages.

I for my part sing his praise
In the country of my exile.

I make his power and greatness known
To a nation that has sinned.

Sinners, return to him;
Let your conduct be upright before him.
 Perhaps he will be gracious to you
 And take pity on you.
Thank the Lord as he deserves
And bless the King of the ages.
 A bright light will shine over
 All the regions of the earth.
Many nations will come from far away,
To dwell close to the holy name
Of the Lord God.
 With gifts in their hands
 For the King of heaven.
Then you will exult, and rejoice
Over the children of the upright.
 Blessed are those who love you,
 Blessed those who rejoice over your peace.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son,

Jesus, priest and sacrificial lamb
Fear grips me at your judgment seat
Give shelter to sinners approaching you
For you know how frail and weak we are.

My sin is always before me (Ps 51:3)

Burden am I as I harbour sin
By its sorrows at its punishment
I cherish desolation in my mind
Be merciful to me blinded by sin.

Glory to the Father and to the Son

When the angels sound trumpet
Before you I stand eternal judge

Judge not me Lord as my deeds deserve
Purify me with repentance tears.

My sin is always before me (Ps 51:3)

I pray for lasting peace in the world
Lord of compassion have mercy on me.

Like a prodigal I killed my own soul
Give me new life, by change of heart
Lord of compassion have mercy on me.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

If called to stand trial at this moment
With no defence, sure I'm to hell
Lord of compassion have mercy on me.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Onitha d'Mawtwa*(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)God take pity on me (Ps 57:1)

You became expiation for us
And reconciled the world towards you
As you made Peter walk on sea
Draw me to shore from the sins sea
As you were to Canaanite woman
Shower your mercy on us too Lord.

God you are my refuge (Ps 61:3)

Other than you who else can heal me?
Who else can save me from tragic hell?
You alone are sinners' refuge
Like the woman who touched your cloak
Lord, I come to you for forgiveness
Lord, I come to you for forgiveness.

Lord help me (Mt 15:25)

Let me draw healing from God's mercy
Let me draw healing from God's mercy.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Saviour of mankind you are my hope

Answer me merciful Lord O God
Answer me merciful Lord O God.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Tob 4:5-10)

‘My child, be faithful to the Lord all your days.
Never entertain the will to sin
Or to transgress his laws.

Do good works all the days of your life,
Never follow the ways
That are not upright.

For if you act in truthfulness,
You will be successful in all your actions,
As everyone is who practises what is upright.

‘Set aside part of your goods for almsgiving.
Never turn your face from the poor
And God will never turn his from you.

Measure your alms by what you have;
If you have much, give more; if you have little,
Do not be afraid to give less in alms.

So doing, you will lay up for yourself
A great treasure for the day of necessity.

For almsgiving delivers from death
And saves people from passing down to darkness.

Almsgiving is a most effective offering
For all those who do it

In the presence of the Most High.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,
From eternity and forever, Amen.

Onitha d'Mawtwa*(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)*

I no longer deserve to be called your son
(Lk 15:21)

Baptism made me the child of God
But that wealth I squandered in the world
As a prodigal I wasted
No one calls me son anymore
I have sinned against heaven and you
Father of mercy pity on me.

Lord remember me in your kingdom

You are gracious on broken hearted
On Calvary to repented thief
And to that woman washed your feet
You revealed the depth of mercy
Let me wash your feet with all my tears
Tears of true repentance O Lord.

Subaha (Ps 141)

With all my voice I cry to the Lord,
With all my voice I entreat the Lord.

I pour out my troubles before him;
I tell him all my distress.

While my spirit faints within me.
But you, O Lord, know my path.

On the way where I shall walk
They have hidden a snare to entrap me.

Look on my right and see:
There is not one who takes my part.

I have no means of escape,
Not one cares for my soul.
I cry to you, O Lord.

I have said: 'You are my refuge,
All I have left in the land of the living.'

Listen, then, to my cry
For I am in the depths of distress.

Rescue me from those who pursue me
For they are stronger than I.

Bring my soul out of this prison

Because of your goodness to me.

Subaha (Jdt 9:2.11-14)

Judith threw herself face to the ground,
Scattered ashes on her head.

Undressed as far as the sackcloth she was wearing
And cried loudly to the Lord.

Your strength does not lie in numbers.

Nor your might in strong men;
Since you are the God of the humble.

The help of the oppressed,
The support of the weak.

The refuge of the forsaken,
The Saviour of the despairing.

God of my father, God of the heritage of Israel,
Master of heaven and earth, Creator of waters,
King of your whole creation, hear my prayer.

Give me a beguiling tongue to wound
And kill those who have formed
Such cruel designs, against your covenant.
Against your holy dwelling-place.
Against Mount Zion,
Against the house belonging to your sons.

He has risen from the dead (Mt 28:6)

The tomb was sealed as firmly one could
Yet Lord rose from the dead forever
Let's praise and adore his glorious rise
Meditating in mind saving mystery.

All authority in heaven and earth has been given to me (Mt 28:18)

You opened to humans the paradise
You came to the presence of Almighty
Reign as ruler of heaven and earth
We come to your presence and adore you.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Blessed be God the Father of Christ

And a heritage never spoiled
Salvation to be revealed at the end.

Onitha d'Ramsa

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

Your sorrows will turn to glory (Jn 16:20)

With heavy hearts women came to tomb
They were filled with joy and owe
The good news of your victory
Over death by resurrection
Brought peace to world and hope to mankind
Brought peace to world and hope to mankind.

His splendour transcends earth and heaven
(Ps 148:13)

Retrieving new life Lord gave new light
Your victory gave new life to the world
Power of darkness was destroyed
Once and forever from this earth

Grace of new life is flowing on us
Gave the humans hope life after death.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Lord, in your flesh you are Adam's son
Yet you are Son of God Almighty
By death on cross you saved sinners
God saved Adam from death lasting
Through the sacrifice of your own Son
You are the refuge of humankind.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord our God, we give you praise,
honour, thanksgiving, and adoration, for
your wonderful and incomprehensible
redemptive work¹ that you brought to

He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.

Slotha (from Common Order. p. 26)

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

He brings some down, raising others (Ps 75:7)

Between two thieves Lord on the cross
 One of them stole even in death
 He stole paradise from Christ the Lord
 In agony he prayed from the cross
 "Lord, remember me in your kingdom"
 Your mercy alone give us heaven.

To you O Lord, I lift up my soul (Ps 25:1)

When Magdalene in tears reached the tomb
 Tomb was open, Lord's corpse was missing
 She was trembled seeing stranger
 Asked him "Where they took Lord's body"

As she was pondering you appeared
And gave her gladness of your rising.

He brought us to life with Christ (Eph 2:5)

You freely assumed human body
Leaving comfort warding off grief
By your rising you raised humans
You would return to the Father
In glory with the angels above
Lord, source of grace is our way and life.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Lord, you raised Son with glory
Gave high position in the heaven
Power in heaven and on earth
Enthroned Him as Head of your church
We praise you ever, Lord of mercy
Raised your Son from dead forever.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Col 3:1-4)

Since you have been raised up to be with Christ, you must look for the things that are above,
where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand.

Let your thoughts be on things above, not on the things that are on the earth.

Because you have died,
and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God.

But when Christ is revealed and he is your lifeyou, too, will be revealed with him in glory.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

You are the true mediator.

Glory to him who came for sinners
We were unable to seek you Lord.

Lord you revealed and restored man
By the parable of the lost sheep.

Though dead to sin, you gave us life
Sonship made us heirs of paradise.

Son of God raises the repentant
Great rejoicing occurred all heaven.

I adore you through powerless tongue
Sing your praise for infinite love.

Glory to the omniscient Godhead
Father, Son and the Spirit Divine.

Found bread and fish cooking on the coal
Praise who made fire without fuel
Fish without water, bread without toil.

Do not worry about tomorrow (Mt 6:34)

(Tune 2, In order that)

Do not let your hearts be troubled (Jn 4:1)

Though doors were shut Jesus entered
 The disciples hid inside in fear
 Lord stood in their midst to strengthen them
 He showered on them the rays of peace.

He did confirm Resurrection
 With the pierced marks of the nail
 Authorized to forgive sins
 With the power of Spirit Divine.

I shall not leave you orphans (Jn 14:18)

There is no other door except you
To get forgiveness of sins from heaven.

You are the Way, Truth and Life
We offer our tears as gifts
Accept them for salvation
You offer this to Father.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Lovingly you said to disciples
I give you what all from the Father
Hereafter you all are my friends
I no longer call you servants but friends.

What all you ask in my name
God the Father will grant you

I give you new command of love
By love you prove you're my own.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (1 Cor 15:20-28)

In fact Christ has been raised from the dead,
as the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

As it was by one man that death came,
so through one man has come the resurrection of the dead.

Just as all die in Adam,
so in Christ all will be brought to life.

But all of them in their proper order:
Christ the first-fruit, and next, at his coming,
those who belong to him.

After that will come the end, when he will hand over the kingdom
to God the Father.

Having abolished every principality,
every ruling force and power.

For he is to be king until he has made his enemies his footstool.

And the last of the enemies to be done away is death

For he has put all things under his feet.

But when it is said everything is subjected,
This obviously cannot include the One who subjected everything to him.

When everything has been subjected to him,
Then the Son himself will be subjected to the One who has subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 3, The image of the unseen)

Remain in my love (Jn 15:9)

O Mother, Jesus treasured your love
From the cross he gave John as your son

At his death rested in your breast
On last supper John leaned on Lord
From cross Lord revealed mystery of love
Price of love he got from you alone.

You have won God's favour (Lk 1:30)

Almighty grew up breast-fed from you
So he adorned you with lasting bliss
As John leaned his head on Lord's breast
Infused endless mysteries to him
He revealed path of love to mankind
Mother help us to find life through love.

The Lord is with you (Lk 1:28)

John saw his master in you always
Your maternity gave him great joy
John did lean on breast of your Son
In his fortunes Mary felt proud
O Mother lead us who reflect these,
Along right path by mercy of Lord.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

As your Son parted from you by death
He gave abiding presence in John
He offered himself from heaven
Showing mercy on all mankind

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Tob 13:14-17)

Blessed are those who love you,
 Blessed those who rejoice over your peace,
 Blessed those who have mourned over
 All your punishment!

For they will soon rejoice within you,
 Witness all your blessedness in days to come.
 My soul blesses the Lord, the great King
 Because Jerusalem will be built anew
 And his house for ever and ever.

What bliss, if one of my family
 Be left to see your glory
 And praise the King of heaven!

The gates of Jerusalem will be built
 Of sapphire and of emerald,
 And all your walls of precious stone.

The towers of Jerusalem will be built
 Of gold and their battlements of pure gold.

The streets of Jerusalem will be paved
 With ruby and with stones from Ophir.

The gates of Jerusalem will resound with Songs of exultation; and all her houses will say.

‘Alleluia! Blessed be the God of Israel.’
Within you they will bless the holy.

Lord you prepared way to lasting life
Rising emits fragrance of newness

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Rom 6:4-10)

By our baptism into Christ's death
We were buried with him,
So that as Christ was raised from the dead.

By the Father's glorious power,
We too should begin living a new life.

If we have been joined to him
By dying a death like his.

So we shall be by a resurrection like his;
Realising that our former self
Was crucified with him.

So that the self which belonged to sin
Should be destroyed and we should be Freed from the slavery of sin.

Someone who has died,
of course, no longer has to answer for sin.

But we believe that, if we died with Christ,
then we shall live with him too.

We know that Christ has been raised from the dead and will never die again.

Death has no power over him any more.

For by dying, he is dead to sin once and for all,
and now the life that he lives is life with God.

Subaha (1 Cor 15:4 ff)

Christ died for our sins;
He was buried and on the third day,

Next He appeared to more than Five hundred of the brethren.

Then He appeared to James,
And then to all the apostles.

In fact, Christ has been raised from the dead,
As the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

 Away for man to escape the hell
 For humans to reach the heaven
 If a tree has cast men to hell
 Another tree of cross restored life
 Let's praise cross which is path to full life.

O death, where is your victory (1 Cor 15:55)

Cross, source of life, has slain death ever
 When the side of the Lord was pierced Death was destroyed on Calvary

Once and for all he paid ransom
Those expelled from garden re-entered
They leaped with joy for Lord's victory.

In your constancy answer me, in your saving justice (Ps 143:2)

Subaha (Prov 8:22-31)

The Lord created me, first-fruits of his fashioning,
before the oldest of his works.

From everlasting, I was firmly set, from the beginning, before the earth came into being.

The deep was not, when I was born,
nor were the springs with their abounding waters.

Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth.

Before he had made the earth, the countryside,
and the first elements of the world.

When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the surface of the deep,

When he thickened the clouds above,
when the sources of the deep began to swell,

When he assigned the sea its boundaries,
when he traced the foundations of the earth,

I was beside the master craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence,

At play everywhere on his earth,
delighting to be with the children of men.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,

(At the end of Psalm, Slotha, Hymn of Incense, etc. follow from the Common Order, p. 4).

Onitha daqdam

(Tune 14, When we walked)

We have left everything and followed you (Mt 19:27)

Though you face persecutions on earth
Face them boldly I've won victory.

The world has been crucified to me (Gal 6:14)
Apostles, moved by the love of Christ
Crucified their desires to cross.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit
Apostles driven by sacrifice
Offered their lives, fulfilled promise.

(Slotha, Psalms, etc, follow Common Order, p. 8).

Onitha d'Wasar

(Tune 2, In order that)

The Lord is trustworthy in all his words (Ps 145:13)

“One who gives his life for sake of me
Will find it in me,” continued Lord.
“Come to me burdened, I will give rest.”
Lord’s promise raises hope in the humans.

Anyone who stands firm to the end will be saved (Mt 10:22)

For those who take no offence at me
Are the ones who be eternally rich
Enter by narrow gates of heaven
Many prefer spacious road to the death.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

The road to ruin is wide and smooth
Selfish travelers seek that road
But Apostles took way of the pain
Endurance gifted them with God’s abode.

(Slotha, etc. from the Common Order, p. 12).

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

[Gospel (of Qurbana of the day), Karozutha, from the Common Order until Onitha d'Ramsa].

Onitha d'Ramsa

(Tune 14, When we walked)

For your sake we are massacred all day long
(Ps 44:22)

Disciples bore Lord's death upon them
 Revealing to world Lord's life in them.

We are never distressed (2 Cor 4:9)
 They lived in Lord, dying to the world
 Awful tortures did not frighten them.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit
 They did day's heavy work in hot sun
 Offering their lives to Lord with gladness.
 D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord our God, you sent the Holy Spirit to bring about the inner transformation of the apostles so as to enable them to find joy in suffering for Christ's sake.¹ Strengthen us to endure patiently whatever suffering we encounter for the sake of your name.
 For you are the Lord of all, the Father,
 the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

R : Amen.

¹Acts 5:41

Aswasa (Ps. 118,145-152)

I call with all my heart; Lord, hear me,
I will keep your statutes.

I call upon you, save me
and I will do your will.

I rise before dawn and cry for help,
I hope in your word.

My eyes watch through the night
to ponder your promise.

In your love hear my voice, O Lord;
Give me life by your decrees.

Those who harm me unjustly draw near:
They are far from your law.

But you, O Lord, are close:
Your commands are truth.

Long have I known that your will is established forever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha (from Common Order p. 26)

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 6, The Lord assumed)

I count everything else a loss (Phil 3:8)

The group of believers dwelt in faith
Took world as fantasy in the truth
Gift of solace imparting them strength.

Enter the narrow gate (Mt 7:13)

Lord grace us to meditate gospel
Walk in it as the Apostles did
May we persist till the end in their steps.

The love of Christ overwhelms us (2 Cor 5:14)

The burning love within Apostles
Made them all to taste heroic death
Great in triumph the Church honours them.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

Boldly Tomas said, "Let's die with him,"
So he did die through sharp spear's pierce
Let that father's prayer shade to us all.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, P. 26)

Subaha (Lam 3:1-7)

I am the man familiar with misery under the rod of his fury.

He has led and guided me into darkness, not light.

Against none but me does he turn his hand,
again and again, all day.

He has wasted my flesh and skin away,
has broken my bones.

He has besieged me and made hardship a circlet round my head.

He has forced me to dwell where all is dark, like those long-dead in their everlasting home.

He has walled me in so that I cannot escape;
He has weighed me down with chains;

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Tesbohta

(Tune 14, When we walked)

Lord is seated at Father's right hand
Sending Spirit he fulfilled promise.

Lord strengthened them by Holy Spirit
Empowered apostles preached gospel.

They were like lamps shedding gospel's
Went off spreading the light around world.

Wisdom of this world is unstable
Wisdom of God they shone all over.

Apostles lived with eternal peace
Pray that peace may dawn on earth.

Praise and honour to God the Father
To Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Onitha d'Sapra

Sowed the word by pulling out weeds
They nurtured word by pouring their blood

Onitha daqdam

(Tune 6, The Lord assumed)

Our God is with us (Mt 1:23)

Hail Mother, you brought Jesus the Lord
Son of God, saviour to the world
I've no words to describe your glory.

Of all women you are the most beloved (Lk 1:28)

Most High humbled to lift us above
By taking flesh in your sacred womb
Mother, humans magnifies your greatness.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

At foot of cross your heart did burn once.
Jesus said, "Woman, behold your son!"

Son of Most High dwells in you Mother
As he reigns forever with Father.

(Tune 2, In order that)

I have come so that they may have life
(Jn 10:10)

Eden's fruit gave not eternal life
First fruit took flesh in womb of Mary
And became true food for the nomads
Gave perpetual life to them all.

Nothing is impossible to God (Lk 1:37)
God became man in womb of Virgin
Creator suspended divinity
Taking human form sprang up on earth
Just as he rose up from sealed tomb at night.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit
Like image shining in horizon
From you O Mother true light is born
With his birth God shone light on earth
Bestowed knowledge of eternal wisdom.
D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord Jesus Christ, by the intercession of your Mother Blessed Virgin Mary, grant us the spiritual and material assistance and protection. Enable us to participate in your eternal banquet along with her. Lord of all, forever.

R : Amen.

Suraya (Wis 6:12-19)

Wisdom is brilliant, she never fades.
By those who love her, she is readily seen,
By those who seek her, she is readily found.

She anticipates those who desire her by making herself known first.

Whoever gets up early to seek her will have no trouble but will find her sitting at the door.

Meditating on her is understanding in its perfect form, and anyone keeping awake for her will soon be free from care.

For she herself searches everywhere for those who are worthy of her, benevolently appearing to them on their ways, anticipating their every thought.

Wisdom begins with the sincere desire for instruction,
care for instruction means loving her.

Loving her means keeping her laws,
 Attention to her laws guarantees incorruptibility,
 And incorruptibility brings us near to God;

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
 and to the Holy Spirit,
 from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

and for eternity I shall remain.

Lord we praise you for these gifts for us.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord God, be merciful to the faithful departed by raising them up to stand with the just on your right. Adorn them with the radiance of your kingdom; and delight them with the righteous in heaven who accomplished your holy will on earth. For you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

R : Amen.

Suraya (Ps 102:15-19)

As for man, his days are like grass;
He flowers like the flower of the field;
The wind blows and he is gone
and his place never sees him again.

But the love of the Lord is everlasting upon those who hold him in fear;

His justice reaches out to his children's children.

When they keep his covenant in truth,
When they keep his will in their mind.

The Lord has set his sway in heaven
and his kingdom is ruling over all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Each day, with one heart, they regularly went to temple (Acts 2:46)

Peter and John disciples of Lord
Were on the way to temple to pray.

You have the poor with you always (Mt 26:11)

A man lame from birth used to sit there
On the steps of great temple to beg.

Simon spoke words of comfort to him.

Subaha (Ps 144:3-11)

The Lord is great, highly to be praised,
his greatness cannot be measured.

Age to age shall proclaim your works,

Shall speak of your splendour and glory,
tell the tale of your wonderful works.

They will speak of your terrible deeds,
recount your greatness and might.

They will recall your abundant goodness;
age to age shall ring out your justice.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.

How good is the Lord to all,
Compassionate to all his creatures.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,

Not built by man but God's power.

Crowned they were with lasting glory
They praised Almighty in love and joy
Home of our refuge and lasting bliss

Offering bouquet of flowers
Glory to Father and to the Son

Your word is a light on my path (Ps 119:105)

Lamp of knowledge dies for sinners
 Born of earth we are earthly always
 More you lift us off dirt Lord
 Deeper we sink in sin again
 Nobler thoughts are cast into depths
 Make us harp Lord to sing your praise.

Turn away from evil and do good (Ps 34:14)

Your words proclaim vanity of world

 Boldly resist all illusions
 Seek and invite poor, lame and blind

If Abraham will not own us,
if Israel will not acknowledge us, you, the Lord,

Are our Father, 'Our Redeemer' is

(Tune 7, We render homage)

In Christ all will be brought to life
(1 Cor 15:22)

When the earth lays in shadow of death
Brought by sin of the first parents
Death of God's Son made us heirs of life
By light of his knowledge to life's fullness.

His experience of death should benefit humanity (Heb 2:9)

First man disgrace by falling to sin
In paradise of fortunes of all

Sinless Lamb did sacrifice himself
By his condemnation and death on cross.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Glory to the Almighty God
Who gave his son as saviour to all
To Christ, redeemer of first Adam
And to the Spirit who sanctifies.

(Slotha, Psalms, etc, follow Common Order, p. 8).

Onitha d'Wasar

(Tune 2, In order that)

His faithful love endures forever (Ps 135:1)

Lord in your mercy and in your love
You fashioned man in your likeness
What the Satan disfigured by lie
Your Son restored it to pristine beauty.

I will bless the Lord at all times (Ps 34:1)

God cursed earth cause of man's own sin
Weeds of the earth made life toilsome
While by his sweat Adam earned bread
By His blood, Son of God saved the world.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

God expelled Adam from paradise

No one reached there as door was closed.
 Christ, second Adam, opened that door
 God gave more grace to man than he had lost.

Hear this all nations (Ps 49:1)

God forbids man the fruit of knowledge
 Adam incurred God's wrath by sinning
 By making atonement Son did God's will.

Turn away from evil and do good (Ps 34:14)

The devil enslaved Adam by death
 Tempting and making the fruit to eat
 By fasting Lord destroyed man's enemy.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

Adam's sin fused death, decay to man
 Light announced rise of new dawn
 Lord becomes man to give lasting life all.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord our God, you willed to redeem the fallen humankind from the sin of Adam by the humble obedience of Christ the second Adam.¹ Strengthen us to observe your commandments as Jesus did. Slotha (from Common Order, p. 26)

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 2, In order that)

God opposes the proud (Js 4:6)

Full of pride Adam rose against God
And fell into the trap of devil
God in love gave life of his son
To save man from eternal death.

Poor and needy as I am (Ps 40:17)

Man lost Eden by sin of Adam Whole mankind was imprisoned
By gift of His Son out of mercy
We gained access to his Kingdom above.

Your sins have been forgiven through his name (1 Jn 2:12)

Adam sinned by breaking command
Jesus on cross washed stains of sin
Destroying death with his own death
Let us praise Him for the self-sacrifice.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

With great joy Adam rose from tomb
As Christ went down and stood beside

With the key to paradise
Shedding the light making things clear.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Job 30:20-31)

I cry to you, Lord, and you give me no answer;
I stand before you, but you take no notice.

You have grown cruel to me,
and your strong hand torments me unmercifully.

You carry me away by the wind and blow me to pieces in a tempest.

Yes, I know that you are taking me towards death,
to the common meeting-place of all the living.

Yet have I ever laid a hand on the poor
when they cried out for justice in calamity?

Have I not wept for those whose life is hard,
felt pity for the penniless?

I hoped for happiness, but sorrow came;
I looked for light, but there was darkness.

My stomach seethes, is never still,
days of suffering have struck me.

Sombre I go, yet no one comforts me,
and if I rise in the council, I rise to weep.

I have become brother to the jackal and companion to the ostrich.

My skin has turned back on me, my bones are burnt with fever.

My harp is tuned to dirges,
my pipe to the voice of mourners.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Tesbohta

(Tune 14, When we walked)

God cursed earth due to sin of Adam
To bring forth thorns and thistles on time.

Eden has set thorns for the humans
Satan laid snares to trap human race.

On himself Adam put yoke of death
Instead of crown in the paradise.

Chasing Adam angel shut the gate
Christ, second Adam reopened it.

Let us praise Jesus with our whole heart
Who defeated death by death on cross.

C : Lord Jesus Christ, the hope of our ancestors, you chose Blessed Virgin Mary to be your Mother, adorning her with virtues lest she be contaminated by stains of sin. We rejoice with her and thank you for this. With her as the Mother of the Church, we humbly offer ourselves to you. Make us instruments of salvation of the world as you did with her. Lord of all, forever.

R : Amen.

Suraya (Wis 7:9-12)

I reckoned no precious stone to be wisdom's equal, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her, silver ranks as mud.

I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light,
since her radiance never sleeps.

In her company all good things came to me,
and at her hands incalculable wealth.

All these delighted me,
since wisdom brings them, though I did not then realise that she was their mother.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

Slotha (from Common Order, p. 26)

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 2, In order that)

You will be like a watered garden (Is 58:11)

Mary, the garden is gift of God

Life-giving water flowed from herself

Dead Adam revived with praiseworthy life

Full of joy and radiance to reign.

Hear this, all nations, listen (Ps 49:1)

Eve listened to words of deceit

Mary asked humbly, though wonder-struck

“How God’s word come about true in me?”

She is the pride of humankind.

Nothing is impossible to God (Lk 1:37)

With no trace of unbelief

Mary believed God to be good

Eve welcomes subtle words of serpent

Which never were fulfilled in life of race.

Glory to the Father and to the Son

Adorable is fruit of your womb

Adorable too heavenly Father

Who gave the Son as our saviour

Blessed is Spirit who reveals mysteries.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (1 Sam 2:1-5)

My heart exults in the Lord,

In my God is my strength lifted up.

My mouth derides my foes,

For I rejoice in your deliverance.

There is no Holy One like the Lord,

Indeed, there is none but you

No rock like our God.

Do not keep talking so proudly,

Let no arrogance come from your mouth.

For the Lord is a wise God,

His to weigh up deeds.

The bow of the mighty has been broken but those who were tottering are now braced with strength.

The full fed are hiring themselves out for bread
but the hungry need labour no more.

The barren woman bears sevenfold

Subaha (Tob 13:1-6)

Blessed be God who lives for ever,
For his reign endures throughout all ages!
For he both punishes and pardons.

Declare his praise before the nations,
You who are the children of Israel!

For if he has scattered you among them,
There too he has shown you his greatness.

Extol him before all the living; he is our Lord and he is our God; he is our Father, and he is God for ever and ever.

Though he punishes you for your iniquities,
He will take pity on you all;

He will gather you from every nation
wherever you have been scattered.

If you return to him with all your heart and all your soul, behaving honestly towards him, then he will return to you and hide his face from you no longer.

Sinners, return to him;
Let your conduct be upright before him.

Perhaps he will be gracious to you

From the plotting of men:

You keep them safe within your tent
From disputing tongues.

Blessed be the Lord who has shown me
The wonders of his love in a fortified city.

I am far removed from your sight
I said in my alarm.

Yet you heard the voice of my plea

Because Mount Zion is desolate; jackals roam to and fro on it.

Yet you, the Lord, rule from eternity;
your throne endures from age to age.

Why do you never remember us?
Why do you abandon us so long?

Make us come back to you, the Lord,

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, P. 26)

Subaha (Is 59:9-14)

Fair judgement is remote from us nor can uprightness overtake us.

We looked for light and all is darkness,
For brightness and we walk in gloom.

Like the blind we feel our way along walls,
We grope our way like people without eyes.

We stumble as though noon were twilight,
among the robust we are like the dead.

We growl, all of us, like bears,
like doves we make no sound

But moaning, waiting for the fair judgement that never comes, for salvation,
but that is far away.

How often we have rebelled against you and our sins bear witness against us.

Our rebellious acts are indeed with us,
we are well aware of our guilt:

Rebellion and denial of the Lord,
turning our back on our God, talking violence and revolt, murmuring lies in our heart.

and to the Holy Spirit,

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 3 The image of the unseen Lord God)

Listen all who dwell on earth

Newborn sheds tears at light of the world,
Herein lies paradox of life death,
Confined in the darkness of womb,
He felt comfort didn't want leave,
Time of death man eternally born,
Weeps unwilling to leave sensual world.

Do not set your heart on wealth

Riches and honours vanish on earth,
All desires break as we look on,

Like dream wealth vanish in moments,
One who knows weep as if lost all,
Lord protect us from love of this world,
What does one gain by forfeiting life?

Your heart will be full of joy

Peaceful paradise raises the hope,
Happiness thrive with unrestrained peace,
No room for any anxiety,
We not gain kingdom by ourselves,
Lord you are only way to there,
Lord you are only way to there.

Glory to the Father and to the Son

I'm unworthy to reach paradise,
Though full of sin, in your mercy Lord,
Give safe heaven beside garden,
Like dog fed on crumbs from table,
I'll taste fruit of paradise ever,
I'll taste fruit of paradise ever.

Victorious cross defeated Satan,

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (1 Jn 2:15-17.24-25)

Do not love the world or what is in the world.
If anyone does love the world.

The love of the Father finds no place in him,
Because everything there is in the world.

Disordered bodily desires, disordered desires of the eyes,
Pride in possession
Is not from the Father but is from the world.

And the world, with all its disordered desires,
Is passing away.

But whoever does the will of God
Remains for ever.

Let what you heard in the beginning
Remain in you; as long as what you.

Heard in the beginning remains in you,
You will remain in the Son and in the Father.

Onitha daqdam*(Tune 6 The Lord assumed)When he dies he will take nothing with him

When I am immersed in gaining wealth,
Death grabs me and the wealth leaves from me,
Blessed is who conquers greed by his prayer.

Their good deeds go with them

We won't win anything in this world,
It's hard [to] evade punishment of sins,
Riches vanish [but] evil deeds follow death.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Earth bears body [and] our good works to bliss,
All that gained stay in heaven and earth,
Eternal ruin won't fall on righteous.

[At your arrival for last judgement,
Your sign of cross will shine in heaven,
Faithful stand crowned with victory beside cross.]

(Slotha, Psalms, etc, follow Common Order, p. 8).

Onitha d'Wasar

(Tune 7 We render homage)

Our life on earth passes like a shadow

Today we live on the earth in great joy,
Where we will be by tomorrow no one knows,
Blessed one who lives days of his life,
By the thought of death that sure to come once.

Small and great alike

Like a blade of grass that withers,
We all will sink one day in death for sure,
We all are equal in grave as dust,
So foster unity before reach grave.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

Merciful Lord grant us grace to give up,
The frenzy of life at the bidding of death,
The Son of God dies hanging on cross,
Lord God Almighty raised Him from the dead.

(Tune 7 We render homage)

They will vanish in smoke

Life on earth is like a flower that fades,
The approach of death it falls to the ground,
Since the whole life on earth is short lived,
Let us expend the glory of the God.

The Lord is death and life

Righteous welcome death as a sound sleep,
The evil-doer is dead before God,
Lord is master of life and death as well,
Let us sing His glory now and ever.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

God dwelt on earth and died on the cross,
By death he conquered death and saved us,
Let us sing to Father who gave His Son,
And to the Son and the Spirit Divine.

[I boast of cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Through whom the world has been crucified to me,
I'm glad to be crucified to world,
I bless and glorify cross forever.]

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

Slotha

C : Lord, even though the inevitable end of our life bothers us, it does not lead us to repentance. The gain we make in this world is nothing. Enable us to defeat death by treading the path of your commandments. For you are the Lord of all, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, forever.

R : Amen.

Aswasa (Ps 118:25-32)

My soul lies in the dust;
By your word revive me.

I declared my ways and you answered:
Teach me your statutes.

My soul pines away with grief;
By your word raise me up.

Keep me from the way of error
And teach me your law.

I have chosen the way of truth
with your decrees before me.

I bind myself to do your will;
Lord, do not disappoint me.

I will run the way of your commands;
You give freedom to my heart.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,

Slotha (from Common Order, p. 26)

Onitha d'Mawtwa*(Tune 6 The Lord assumed)He became the mediator of a new covenant

Like ladder Jacob saw in his dream,
Christ reigns in heaven beside Father,
Reconciler, brings mercy to mankind.

The grave diggers are gathering for me

The journey of life gets near the grave
All our gains go down to dust indeed,
Threatened by death we don't repent at all.

Costly in the Lord's sight is the death of his faithful

Righteous live in the presence of God,
Preparing new life after their death,
For God sinners are dead even alive.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Adam's sin made all humans debtors,
By His death Jesus remitted debts,
Snatching the bond of debt he destroyed it.

[Thief prayed by seeing your death on cross,
"Lord remember me in your Kingdom,"
We too make same plea to you on the cross.]

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Sir 40:1-6)

A hard lot has been created for human beings,
A heavy yoke lies on the children of Adam.

From the day they come out of their mother's womb, Till the day they return to the mother of them all.

What fills them with foreboding
And their hearts with fear is dread of the day of death.

From the one who sits on a glorious throne to the wretch in dust and ashes.

From the one who wears purple and a crown to the one dressed in sackcloth.

All is fury and jealousy, turmoil and unrest, fear of death, rivalry, strife.

And even at night while he rests on his bed his sleep only gives a new twist to his worries.

Scarcely has he lain down to rest, when in his sleep.

As if in broad daylight, he is troubled with nightmares,
like one who has escaped from a battle.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit,

And when the righteous get their rewards,
Look with pity without counting merit.

Open for me the gates of saving justice

Wretched soul me without burning lamp,
When shouts go up no one give oil,
Take oil with you as wise virgins did.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

No forgiveness with no repentance,
Abraham won't cool you in the hell,

God showed Moses a wood in the mount,
It sweetened water, prefiguring the cross.]

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 7 We render homage)

Stay wake with me (Mt 26:38)

Lord your servants are awaiting sleepless,
Before your coming I'm overcome by sleep,
Wake me up and lead me on ahead,
Into your bridal chamber in heaven.

Have a clear conscience (1 Pet 3:16)

Lord's Judgement reflects on human conscience,
Man it will weigh your words, deeds and life,
You be crowned in heaven by your life,
So respond to conscience grow in virtue.

The Lord is coming, coming to judge the earth (Ps 96:13)

On frightful moments of day of judgement,
Lord will appear with angels on clouds,
Apostles judge tribes of Israel,
Have mercy on Church the new Israel.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

Lord I have strayed away from your right path,
When you appear on the day of judgement,
In radiant glory with angels and saints,
Have mercy on me God of mercy.

[Moses saved Israel by stretching hands,
Over the sea and prepared a path for them,
To walk safely to land of promise,
Christ saved mankind by showing path by Cross.]

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Is 26:7-12)

The path of the upright one is honesty;
you smooth the honest way of the upright.

Following the path of your judgements, Lord,
we set our hopes in you, your name,
your memory are all our soul desires.

At night my soul longs for you and my spirit within me seeks you out;

For when your judgements appear on earth the inhabitants of the world learn what saving justice is.

If pity is shown to the wicked without his learning what saving justice is.

He will act wrongly in the land of right conduct and not see the majesty of the Lord.

Lord, your hand is raised but they do not see!
The antagonists of your people will look and grow pale;

With your fiery wrath you will devour your enemies.

(Tune 7 We render homage)

He knows the designs of all hearts

When angels of fire blow trumpets,
 Lord Jesus appears in the sky to judge,
 When God weighs your words and deeds.
 My soul where will you hide?

At the judgement seat of Christ

When I am called to be judged on that day,
 Never will I have place to escape,
 I have violated your precepts Lord,
 Be merciful to me meritless though.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Even the covert thoughts on judgment,
Weighed down by guilt mind sinks,
Even my frightened soul in darkness,
I cry to you Lord have mercy on me.

[Just as the ark of Noah floating,
Your cross gives refuge to man's life journey,
Just as the ark preserved life on earth,
Lord let your holy cross save sinful world.]

Who will survive then in your presence,
Born of women who is free from the sin?

Onitha d'Mawtwa

(Tune 3 The image of the unseen Lord God)

Have mercy on me O God in Your faithful love

As a great sinner heart burns within,
I remember the day of judgment,
Those who've done good will get reward,
As you forgave sinful woman,
Tax collector bestowed salvation,
Pardon sins and grant me salvation.

He knows the secrets of the heart

All will stand trial before the Lord,
The frightening moment on judgment day,
My soul how you defend yourself,
Haven't you taken lamp with light,
Without wedding clothes riches useless,
Repentance won the sin in this world.

There is no favouritism with God

Lord will reward all each one deserves,
After duly weighing each deeds,
The defaulters will be punished,
On judgment day by the Lord God,
If they found without good works in life,
Lord grant strength to renounce illusions.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

I've wasted life by chasing world's ways,
Condemned sufferings for rest of life,
I've not worked in your vineyard,
I don't deserve reward for work,
Afflicted by the wounds of my sins,
Grant me healing word of compassion.

[Your servants await eternal joy,
Lord remember the promise you made,
One who believes in me will live,
Protect and guide us worshippers,
We take refuge in shade of your cross,
We take refuge in shade of your cross.]

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, p. 26)

Subaha (Joel 3,1-5)

I shall gather all the nations together and take them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;

There I shall put them on trial
because of Israel, my people.

And my heritage, for having scattered them among the nations and having divided my land among themselves.

They drew lots for my people,
Bartering a boy for a whore and selling a girl for wine to drink.

‘And what are you to me, Tyre and Sidon and all you regions of Philistia?
Can you take revenge in me?

If you take revenge in me,
I shall quickly, instantly, make your revenge
recoil on your own heads

Tune 3 (The image of the unseen Lord God)

Our home land is in heaven

We live our life of faith in this world,
 We are challenged by mundane values,
 In this world, we away from you,
 We seek Lord with whole heart and soul,
 Be merciful let us dwell with you,
 Grant peace in heaven after our death.

You may enjoy a much greater gladness when his glory is revealed

On judgment day Lord says to righteous,
 I was hungry and you gave me the food,
 I was thirsty you gave me drink,

I was stranger you welcomed me,
I was lacking cloths you clothed me well,
Visited me in prison and sick bed.

Faith with good deeds if do not go with,
it is quite dead

In response righteous say to the Lord,
We never seen you as you said now,
When did you come as destitute,
He replies when you did to least,
Brethren of mine you did to me,
Mercy on us and help unbelief.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit

Come let us put on Spirit's armour,
To confront spirit of world below,
World's illusion fleets like shadows,
Walk in Lord's presence with his sight,
Towards heaven the lasting abode,
Towards heaven the lasting abode.

[Your cross hide your glory and power,
Splendour and might in full to behold,

And you have given us over to be plundered,
To captivity and death, to be the talk.

The laughing-stock and scorn of all the nations

And now all your decrees are true

Yahweh, I love the beauty of Your house.

Grant shelter to contrite sinners,
In this house, Lord hear our prayer,
Look with mercy on our tears.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit.

Once Jesus said to his disciples
“All that you ask my Father will grant”
Trusting in you, we knock, have mercy.

(Slotha, Psalms, etc, follow Common Order, p. 8).

Onitha d’Wasar

(Tune 7, We render homage)

One this I ask of the Lord.

As you were refuge to forefathers,
Remain with us as help and guide,
Help us to faithfully commandments
And proceed in good works in your presence.

You are my people.

God chose and owned us to reveal glory
Redeemed from darkness of our sins,
We who have obtained salvific life
Should ever bless the mercy of Lord.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to Holy Spirit.

The heavenly choirs of angels sing,
“Holy are you, the Lord of armies”
Woe to me, for a sinner am I,
And I live amidst the sinful people.

*(Slotha, etc. from the Common Order, p. 12).
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!*

(Tune 6, The Lord assumed)

God hear my prayer.

Lord, nurture your holy church on earth,
Redeemed with your holy blood,
Guide her always imparting your peace.

I waited, I waited for the Lord.

Lord, our shepherd, watch over church,
Nurture her always in your grace,
She approaches you as her hope.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Heaven and earth are filled with glory.
Angels and church revere you
They come to your house and they sing.

Slotha

C : Lord our God, make your dwelling with us as you did with our ancestors in the past.
Let us never be left abandoned. Turn our hearts to you¹ that we may obey your commandments and precepts and tread your path always. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Lord of all, forever!

R : Amen.

Suraya (Ps 27:4-6)

There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
for this I long.

To live in the house of the Lord,
all the days of my life.

To savour the sweetness of the Lord,
to behold his temple.

For there he keeps me safe in the tent in the day of evil.

He hides me in the shelter of his tent,
on a rock he sets me safe.

And now my head shall be raised above all my foes who surround me.

¹1 Kings 8:58.

And I shall offer within his tent a sacrifice of joy.
I will sing and make music for the Lord.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Let us pray. Peace be with us.

I will make you a dynasty (2 Sam 7:11)

Lord save the Church sign of eternal life,
Where in reign peace and Father's glory,
Perfect place where Trinity dwells
With angels' choir bless church with joy.
Mankind takes shelter as their mother,
With message of cross church is all rich.

Who can recount all the Lord's triumphs(Ps 106:2)

Adam ate fruit of tree of knowledge,
That bears fruit of sin paved way for cross,
At cenacle path was opened
Church beckons us pointing to cross
As way to heaven travel that path
Will certain reach the heavenly Father.

You find shelter under his wings (Ps 91:4)

O church of immaculate beauty
Man comes to you for sins' forgiveness.
Jesus washed you clean in his blood,
Raised you up source of all blessing
He feeds you offering his body
He invites you for eternal banquet.

Glory be to the father and to the son
and to the Holy Spirit

The church worships holding your name continually seek out his presence!

Remember what wonders he has done,
what miracles, what rulings he has given.

You offspring of Israel his servant,
you children of Jacob his chosen one!

(Tune 2, In order that)

I will bless the Lord at all times (Ps 34:1)

Lord, you bestowed your mighty power,
On virgin raised her to holiness.
Showing blessing on world in plenty
Let that power guide us on right way.

Grant your grace by her prayers
To relish your mercy in fullness
When Mary rises our minds
Lord your image is born in us.

You bless the highest honor of our race
(Jdt 15:19)

Mother you brought up the Most High
You became the dwelling place of Lord,
First parents found in you refuge,
Isaiah's prophecy was done in you
In the world he is Emmanuel
God in you, as you in the church
O Mother image of Church
Protect your children who venerate you.

God accords His favour to the humble
(Jas 4:6)

As Lord rose from dead in glory
(And) appeared to Mary Magdalene
God gave this blessing to a woman
As in scriptures he was born of woman,
When Jesus rose from the tomb,
Appeared to a woman in grace,
Lord, in your loving providence,
Every woman images Mother Church.

Glory to the Father and to the Holy Spirit.

Mary received the annunciation,
 In her humility from the angel
 Mary Magdalene knew from angel
 That the Lord rose from the dead in glory.
 Mary who sacrificed the Son
 Images church on the earth
 Magdalene represents the church
 That received the news of Resurrection.

You blessed the thief in remorse on cross
Have mercy on us who come to you.

Save with your right hand (Ps 60:5)

Lord of mercy your right hand bless,
Part not your hands from whom you did form,
And give into enemies' hands
Lord always console us in Him,
"I am with you till end of world",
These words of yours give us great solace.

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit.

We bow thankfully as we are saved,
In Lord through the bright redeeming grace,
Till Messiah's second coming
Rejected by law and lost hope,

Through his blood we are closer to Him,
Who brought us to eternal Father.

Night Hymn, Slotha (Common Order, P. 26)

Subaha (Tit 3:4-7)

When the kindness and love of God our Saviour for humanity were revealed, it was not because of any upright actions we had done ourselves.

It was for no reason except his own faithful love that he saved us.

By means of the cleansing water of rebirth and renewal in the Holy Spirit which he has so generously poured over us through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

So that, justified by his grace,
we should become heirs in hope of eternal life.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
from eternity and forever, Amen.

D : Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Tesbohta*(Tune 14, when we walked)*

We bless you Messiah, Son of God,
Lord, the source of life, show us mercy.

In fullness of time you became man
And redeemed human race in love.

Removing pain and our suffering
You have given new life to us.

You formed Church on earth after heaven
Protect and perfect church by your cross.

Sow seeds of eternal peace in her,
Remove all differences from her.

Glory to Father and to the Son,
And to the Spirit now and ever.

Sapra (Morning Prayer)

Onitha d'Sapra

(Tune 14, When we walked)

Increase our Faith, Lord.

As sons of day with shield of deep faith,
We shed ray of love and live watchfully.

We are living for the Lord.

God appointed us to live with Him
Who did die for the whole humankind.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to Holy Spirit.

Love of the Father, Spirit's union,
And peace of Lord dwell within us all.

Psalms

Marmitha 1

Psalm 1

Happy indeed is the man
Who follows not the counsel of the wicked;
Nor lingers in the way of sinners
Nor sits in the company of scorners.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who bore your yoke and meditated on your precepts day and night.

But whose delight is the law of the Lord
And who ponders his law day and night.

He is like a tree that is planted

Beside the flowing waters.

That yields its fruit in due season

And whose leaves shall never fade;

And all that he does shall prosper.

Not so are the wicked, not so!

For they like winnowed chaff

Shall be driven away by the wind.

When the wicked are judged

They shall not stand,

Nor find room among those who are just.

Nor the Lord guards the way of the just

But the way of the wicked leads to doom.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who bore your yoke and meditated on your precepts day and night.

Psalm 2

Why this tumult among nations,
Among peoples this useless murmuring?

*(Ant.) The deceitful gained horse-like strength;
with little prudence they crucified the Christ.*

They arise, the kings of the earth,
Princes plot against the Lord
And his Anointed.

Come, let us break their fetters,
Come, let us cast off their yoke.

He who sits in the heavens laughs;
The Lord is laughing them to scorn.

Then he will speak in his anger,
His rage will strike them with terror.

It is I who have set up my king
On Zion, my holy mountain.

The Lord said to me: You are my Son.

It is I who have begotten you this day.
Ask and I shall bequeath you in the nations,
Put the ends of the earth in your possession.

With a rod of iron you will break them,
Shatter them like a potter's jar.

Now, O kings, understand,
Take warning, rulers of the earth.

Serve the Lord with awe and trembling,
Pay him your homage.

Lest he be angry and you perish;

For suddenly his anger will blaze;

Blessed are they who put their trust in God.

*(Ant.) The deceitful gained horse-like strength;
with little prudence they crucified the Christ.*

Psalm 3

How many are my foes, O Lord!

How many are rising up against me!

(Ant.) They hate me, Lord, for I spoke your truth save me from their onslaught

How many are saying about me:

‘There is no help for him in God.’

But you, Lord, are a shield about me,

My glory, who lift up my head.

I cry aloud to the Lord.

He answers from his holy mountain.

I lie down to rest and I sleep.

I wake, for the Lord upholds me.

I will not fear even thousands of people

Who are ranged on every side against me.

Arise, Lord; save me, my God,

You who strike all my foes on the mouth.

You who break the teeth of the wicked!

O Lord of salvation, bless your people!

(Ant.) My foes hate me, Lord, for I spoke your truth save me from their onslaught.

Psalm 4

When I call, answer me, O God of justice,
From anguish you released me,
Have mercy and hear me!

(Ant.) I place my trust in the Lord, there is none like him for he will deliver me from the scheming and snares of my foes.

O men, how long will your hearts be closed,
Will you love what is futile
And seek what is false?

It is the Lord who grants favours
To those whom he loves;
The Lord hears me whenever I call him.

Fear him; do not sin:

Ponder on your bed and be still.

Make justice your sacrifice and trust in the Lord!

‘What can bring us happiness?’ many say.

Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.
You have put into my heart a greater joy
Than they have from abundance
Of corn and new wine.

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once
For you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

(Ant.) I place my trust in the Lord, there is none like him for he will deliver me from the scheming and snares of my foes.

Marmitha 2

Psalm 5

To my words give ear, O Lord,
Give heed to my groaning.

(Ant.) You chastised me, Lord, to make me discreet discard not my plea!

Attend to the sound of my cries,
My King and my God.

It is you whom I invoke, O Lord.

In the morning you hear me.

In the morning I offer you my prayer,
Watching and waiting.

You are no God who loves evil;

No sinner is your guest.

The boastful shall not stand their ground
Before your face.

You hate all who do evil:

You destroy all who lie.

The deceitful and blood thirsty man
The Lord detests.

But I through the greatness of your love
Have access to your house.

I bow down before your holy temple,
Filled with awe.

Lead me, Lord, in your justice,
Because of those who lie in wait;
Make clear your way before me.

No truth can be found in their mouths,
Their heart is all mischief.

Their throat a wide open grave,
All honey their speech.

Declare them guilty, O God.

Let them fail in their designs.

Drive them out for their many offences;
For they have defied you.

All those you protect shall be glad
And ring out their joy.

You shelter them; in you they rejoice,
Those who love your name.

It is you who bless the just man,

Lord: You surround him

With favour as with a shield.

(Ant.) You chastised me, Lord, to make me discreet discard not my plea!

Psalm 6

Lord, do not reprove me in your anger;
Punish me not in your rage.

(Ant.) You who shaped me, have mercy on me frail and weak, train me in your love!

Have mercy on me, Lord,
I have no strength.

Lord, heal me, my body is racked;
My soul is racked with pain.

But you, O Lord, how long?
Return, Lord, rescue my soul.

Save me in your merciful love;
For in death no one remembers you.

From the grave, who can give you praise?
I am exhausted with my groaning.

Every night I drench my pillow with tears;
I bedew my bed with weeping
My eyes waste away with grief.

I have grown old surrounded by my foes
Leave me, all you who do evil.

For the Lord has heard my weeping;
The Lord has heard my plea.

The Lord will accept my prayer
All my foes will retire in confusion,
Foiled and suddenly confounded.

(Ant.) You who shaped me, have mercy on me frail and weak, train me in your love!

Psalm 7

Lord God, I take refuge in you.

From my pursuer save me and rescue me.

(Ant.) Blessed are you God, who corrects and consoles his servants.

Lest he tear me to pieces like a lion

And drag me off with no one to rescue me.

Lord God, if my hands have done wrong,

If I have paid back evil for good,

I who saved my unjust oppressor:

Then let my foe pursue me and seize me,

Let him trample my life to the ground

And lay my soul in the dust.

Lord, rise up in your anger,

Rise against the fury of my foes;

My God, awake! You will give judgement.

Let the company of nations gather round you,

Taking your seat above them on high.

Give judgement for me, Lord;

I am just And innocent of heart.

Put an end to the evil of the wicked!

Make the just stand firm,

You who test mind and heart, O just God!

God is the shield that protects me,

Who saves the upright of heart.

God is a just judge
Slow to anger.
But he threatens the wicked every day,
Men who will not repent.
God will sharpen his sword;
He has braced his bow and taken aim.
For them he has prepared deadly weapons;
He bars his arrows with fire.
Here is one who is pregnant with malice,
Conceives evil and brings forth lies.
He digs a pitfall, digs it deep;
And in the trap he has made he will fall.
His malice will recoil on himself,
On his own head his violence will fall.
I will thank the Lord for his justice:
I will sing to the Lord, the Most High.
(Ant.) Blessed are you God, who corrects and consoles his servants.

Marmitha 3

Psalm 8

How great is your name, O Lord our God,
Through all the earth!
(Ant.) Children sang to you hosanna, O Son, save your clients in your mercy!
Your majesty is praised above the heavens;
On the lips of children and of babes.

You have found praise to foil your enemy,
To silence the foe and the rebel.
When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
The moon and the stars which you arranged.
What is man that you should keep him in mind,
Mortal man that you care for him?
Yet you have made him little less than a god;
With glory and honour you crowned him.
Gave him power over the works of your hand,
Put all things under his feet.
All of them, sheep and cattle,
Yes, even the savage beasts.
Birds of the air, and fish
That make their way through the waters.
How great is your name, O Lord our God,
Through all the earth!

*(Ant.) Children sang to you hosanna,
O Son, save your clients in your mercy!*

Psalm 9

I will praise you, O Lord, with all my heart;
I will recount all your wonders.
*(Ant.) I praise you, Lord, for in your mercy
you guided me to your wisdom;
Let my foes be put to shame!*
I will rejoice in you and be glad,
And sing psalms to your name, O Most High.

See how my enemies turn back,
How they stumble and perish before you.
You upheld the justice of my cause;
You sat enthroned, judging with justice.

You have checked the nations,
Destroyed the wicked;
You have wiped out their name for ever and ever.
The foe is destroyed, eternally ruined.
You uprooted their cities;
Their memory has perished.

But the Lord sits enthroned for ever.
He has set up his throne for judgement;
He will judge the world with justice,
He will judge the peoples with his truth.
For the oppressed let the Lord
Be a stronghold,
A stronghold in times of distress.

Those who know your name will trust you:
You will never forsake those who seek you.

Sing psalms to the Lord who dwells in Zion.
Proclaim his mighty works among the peoples.
For the Avenger of blood has remembered them,
And has not forgotten the cry of the poor.

Have pity on me, Lord see my sufferings,
You who save me from the gates of death.
That I may recount all your praise
At the gates of the city of Zion
And rejoice in your saving help.

The nations have fallen in the pit which they made,
Their feet caught in the snare they laid.

The Lord has revealed himself,
And given judgement.

The wicked are snared in the work
Of their own hands.

Let the wicked go down among the dead,
All the nations forgetful of God.

For the needy shall not always be forgotten
Nor the hopes of the poor be in vain.

Arise, Lord, let men not prevail!

Let the nations be judged before you.

Lord, strike them with terror,

Let the nations know they are but men.

*(Ant.) I praise you, Lord, for in your mercy
you guided me to your wisdom;*

Let my foes be put to shame!

Psalm 10

Lord, why do you stand afar off
And hide yourself in times of distress?

(Ant.) The evildoers will be judged without mercy, for by their snares,

They have incurred your wrath.

The poor man is devoured
By the pride of the wicked.

He is caught in the schemes
That others have made.

For the wicked man boasts of his heart's desires;
The covetous blasphemes and spurns the Lord.
In his pride the wicked says:
He will not punish. There is no God. Such are his thoughts.

His path is ever untroubled;
Your judgement is far from his mind.
His enemies he regards with contempt.
He thinks: Never shall I falter:
Misfortune shall never be my lot.

His mouth is full of cursing, guile, oppression,
Mischief and deceit under his tongue.
He lies in wait among the reeds;
The innocent he murders in secret.
His eyes are on the watch for the helpless man.
He lurks in hiding like a lion in his lair.

He lurks in hiding to seize the poor;
He seizes the poor man and drags him away.

He crouches, preparing to spring,
And the helpless fall beneath his strength.
He thinks in his heart: God forgets,
He hides his face, he does not see.

Arise then, Lord, lift up your hand!
O God, do not forget the poor!

Why should the wicked spurn the Lord
And think in his heart: He will not punish?
But you have seen the trouble and sorrow,
You note it, you take it in hand.

The helpless trusts himself to you;
For you are the helper of the orphan.
Break the power of the wicked and the sinner!
Punish his wickedness till nothing remains!

The Lord is king for ever and ever.
The heathen shall perish from the land
You strengthen their hearts.

You turn you ear to protect the rights
Of the orphan and oppressed: so that Mortal man may strike terror no more.

(Ant.) The evildoers will be judged without mercy, for by their snares, they have incurred your wrath.

Marmitha 4

Psalm 11

In the Lord I have taken my refuge.
How can you say to my soul:
Fly like a bird to its mountain.

*(Ant.) The sinners have deceived me,
Lord, in you I put my trust!*

See the wicked bracing their bow
They are fixing their arrows on the string
To shoot upright men in the dark.

Foundations once destroyed, what can the just do?

The Lord is in his holy temple,

The Lord, whose throne is in heaven.

His eyes look down on the world;

His gaze tests mortal men.

The Lord tests the just and the wicked:

The lover of violence he hates.

He sends fire and brimstone on the wicked;

He sends a scorching wind as their lot.

The Lord is just and loves justice:

The upright shall see his face.

(Ant.) The sinners have deceived me,

Lord, in you I put my trust!

Psalm 12

Help, O Lord, for good men have vanished:

Truth has gone from the sons of men.

(Ant.) Deceit has increased and love vanished; reject us not, O Christ!

Falsehood they speak one to another,

With lying lips, with a false heart.

May the Lord destroy all lying lips,

The tongue speaking high sounding words.

Those who say: 'Our tongue is our strength;

Our lips are our own, who is our master?'

‘For the poor who are oppressed and the needy who groan
I myself will arise,’ says the Lord.
‘I will grant them the salvation for which they thirst.’
The words of the Lord are words without alloy,
Silver from the furnace seven times refined.
It is you, O Lord, who will take us in Your care and protect us
For ever from third generation.
See how the wicked prowl on every side,
While the worthless are prized highly by the sons of men.
(Ant.) Deceit has increased and love vanished; reject us not, O Christ!

Psalm 13

How long, O Lord, will you forget me?
How long will you hide your face?
(Ant.) Lord, save me by reconciling me to yourself that I may sing your praises!
How long must I bear grief in my soul,
This sorrow in my heart day and night?
How long shall my enemy prevail?
Look at me, answer me, Lord my God!

Give light to my eyes lest I fall asleep in death.
Lest my enemy say: I have overcome him;
Lest my foes rejoice to see my fall.

As for me, I trust in your merciful love.

Let my heart rejoice in your saving help.
Let me sing to the Lord
For his goodness to me.

Singing psalms to the name of the Lord, the Most High.

(Ant.) Lord, save me by reconciling me to yourself that I may sing your praises!

Psalm 14

The fool has said in his heart:
There is no God above
Their deeds are corrupt, depraved
Not a good man is left.

*(Ant.) Lord of creation, preserve your Church
from the evildoers!*

God looks down from heaven
On the sons of men, to see
If any are wise, if any seek God.
All have left the right path;
Depraved, every one.

There is not a good man left,

No, not even one.

Will the evil doers not understand?

They eat up my people

As though they were eating bread;

They never pray to the Lord.

See how they tremble with fear

Without cause for fear:

For God is with the just.

You may mock the poor man's hope,

But his refuge is the Lord.

O that Israel's salvation might come from Zion!

When the Lord delivers his people from bondage,

Then Jacob will be glad and Israel rejoice.

*(Ant.) Lord of creation, preserve your Church
from the evildoers!*

Marmitha 5

Psalm 15

Lord, who shall be admitted to your tent

And dwell on your holy mountain?

(Ant) Lord our God, make me stand at your altar with pure thoughts.

He who walks without fault;
He who acts with justice
And speaks the truth from his heart.

He who does not slander with his tongue;

He who does no wrong to his brother.

Who casts no slur on his neighbour,
Who holds the godless in disdain.

But honour those who fear the Lord;

He who keeps his pledge, come what may.

Who takes no interest on a loan
And accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm for ever.

(Ant) Lord our God, make me stand at your altar with pure thoughts.

Psalms 16

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

*(Ant.) Lord our Creator, our trust is worthy of praise, although frail and weak,
I take delight in it.*

I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.

My happiness lies in you alone.'

He has put into my heart a marvellous love

For the faithful ones who dwell in his land.

Those who choose other gods increase their sorrows.

Never will I offer their offerings of blood.

Never will I take their name upon my lips.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;

It is you yourself who are my prize.

The lot marked out for me is my delight:

Welcome indeed the heritage that falls to me!

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel,

Who even at night directs my heart.

I keep the Lord ever in my sight:

Since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;

Even my body shall rest in safety.

For you will not leave my soul

Among the dead,

Nor let your beloved know decay.

You will show me the path of life,

The fullness of joy in your presence,

At your right hand happiness for ever.

(Ant.) Lord our Creator, our trust is worthy of praise, although frail and weak,

I take delight in it.

Psalms 17

Lord, hear a cause that is just,

Pay heed to my cry.

Turn your ear to my prayer:

No deceit is on my lips.

*(Ant.) Lord my God, have mercy on me,
for I am unjustly persecuted!*

From you may my judgement come forth.

Your eyes discern the truth.

From you may my judgement come forth.

Your eyes discern the truth.

You search my heart, you visit me by night.

You test me and you find in me no wrong.

My words are not sinful as are men's words.

I kept from violence because of your word.

I kept my feet firmly in your paths;

There was no faltering in my steps.

I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God

Turn your ear to me; hear my words.

Display your great love,

You whose right hand saves

Your friends from those who rebel against them.

Guard me as the apple of your eye

Hide me in the shadow of your wings.

From the violent attack of the wicked.

My foes encircle me with deadly intent.

Their hearts tight shut, their mouths speak proudly.

They advance against me,

And now they surround me.

Their eyes are watching to strike me

To the ground as though

They were lions ready to claw.

Or like some young lion crouched in hiding.

Lord, arise, confront them, strike them down.

Let your sword rescue my soul from the wicked;
Let your hand, O Lord, rescue me from men.

From men whose reward is in this present life

You give them their fill of your treasures.

They rejoice in abundance of offspring

And leave their wealth to their children.

As for me, in my justice I shall see your face

And be filled, when I awake,

With the sight of your glory.

*(Ant.) Lord my God, have mercy on me,
for I am unjustly persecuted!*

Marmitha 6

Psalm 18

I love you, Lord, my strength,

My rock, my fortress, my saviour.

(Ant.) Heaven and earth with everything in them, adores God the creator;

My God is the rock where I take refuge;

My shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.

The Lord is worthy of all praise:

When I call I am saved from my foes.

The waves of death rose about me;

The torrents of destruction assailed me.

The snares of the grave entangled me;
The traps of death confronted me.
In my anguish I called to the Lord;
I cried to my God for help.

From his temple he heard my voice;
My cry came to his ears.
Then the earth reeled and rocked;
The mountains were shaken to their base.

They reeled at his terrible anger.
Smoke came forth from his nostrils.
And scorching fire from his mouth:
Coals were set ablaze by its heat.

He lowered the heavens and came down,
A black cloud under his feet.
He came enthroned on his cherubim,
He flew on the wings of the wind.

He made the darkness his covering,
The dark waters of the clouds, his tent.
A brightness shone out before him
With hailstones and flashes of fire.

The Lord thundered in the heavens;
The Most High let his voice be heard.
He shot his arrows, scattered the foe,
Flashed his lightning, put them to flight.
The bed of the ocean was revealed;
The foundations of the world were laid bare.

At the thunder of your threat, O Lord,
At the blast of the breath of your anger.

From on high he reached down
And seized me;

He drew me forth from the mighty waters.
He snatched me from my powerful foe,
From my enemies whose strength
I could not match.

They assailed me in the day of my fortune,
But the Lord was my support.
He brought me forth into freedom,
He saved me because he loved me.

He rewarded me because I was just,
repaid me, for my hands were clean.
For I have kept the way of the Lord
And have not fallen away from my God.

For his judgements are all before me:
I have never neglected his commands.
I have always been upright before him;
I have kept myself from guilt.

He repaid me because I was just
And my hands were clean in his eyes.
You are loving with those who love you:
You show yourself perfect with the perfect.

With the sincere you show yourself sincere,
But the cunning you outdo in cunning.

For you save a humble people
But humble the eyes that are proud.
 You, O Lord, are my lamp,
 My God who lightens my darkness.
With you I can break through any barrier,
With my God I can scale any wall.
 As for God, his ways are perfect;
 The word of the Lord, purest gold.
He indeed is the shield
Of all who make him their refuge.
 For who is God but the Lord?
 Who is a rock but our God?
The God who girds me with strength
And makes the path safe before me.
 My feet you made swift as the deer's;
 You have made me stand firm on the heights.
You have trained my hands for battle
And my arms to bend the heavy bow.
 You gave me your saving shield;
 You upheld me, trained me with care.
You gave me freedom for my steps;
My feet have never slipped.
 I pursued and overtook my foes,
 Never turning back till they were slain.
I smote them so they could not rise;
They fell beneath my feet.
 You girded me with strength for battle;
 You made my enemies fall beneath me.

You made my foes take flight;
Those who hated me I destroyed.
They cried, but there was no one to save them;
They cried to the Lord but in vain.

I crushed them fine as dust before the wind;
Trod them down like dirt in the streets.
You saved me from the feuds of the people
And put me at the head of the nations.

People unknown to me served me:
When they heard of me they obeyed me.
Foreign nations came to me cringing:
Foreign nations faded away.

They came trembling out of their strongholds.
Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me,
The God who gives me redress
And subdues people under me.

You saved me from my furious foes.
You set me above my assailants.
You saved me from violent men,
So I will praise you, Lord, among the nations:
I will sing a psalm to your name.

He has given great victories to his king
And shown his love for his anointed,
For David and his sons for ever.
(Ant.) Heaven and earth with everything in them, adores God the creator;

Marmitha 7Psalm 19

The heavens proclaim the glory of God
And the firmament shows forth
The work of his hands.

*(Ant.) Worthy of adoration is the eternal God;
he created sensible ones to understand his creatures.*

Day unto day takes up the story
And night unto night makes known the message.

No speech, no word, no voice is heard
Yet their span extends through all the earth.

Their words to the utmost bounds
Of the world

There he has placed a tent for the sun.

It comes forth like a bridegroom

Coming from his tent,

Rejoices like a champion to run its course.

At the end of the sky is the rising of the sun;
To the furthest end of the sky is its course.

There is nothing concealed

From its burning heat.

The law of the Lord is perfect,
It revives the soul.

The rule of the Lord is to be trusted,
It gives wisdom to the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right,
They gladden the heart.

The command of the Lord is clear,
It gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is holy,
Abiding for ever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth
And all of them just.

They are more to be desired than gold,
Than the purest of gold.

And sweeter are they than honey,
Than honey from the comb.

So in them your servant finds instruction;
Great reward is in their keeping.

But who can detect all his errors?
From hidden faults acquit me.

From presumption restrain your servant
And let it not rule me.

Then shall I be blameless,
Clean from grave sin.

May the spoken words of the mouth,
The thoughts of my heart.

Win favour in your sight, O Lord,
My rescuer, my rock!

*(Ant.) Worthy of adoration is the eternal God;
he created sensible ones to understand his creatures.*

Psalm 20

May the Lord answer in time of trial;
May the name of Jacob's God protect you.

(Ant.) Let us trust in God who alone will save the lowly!

May he send you help from his shrine
And give you support from Zion.

May he remember all your offerings
And receive your sacrifice with favour.

May he give you your heart's desire
And fulfil every one of your plans.

May he ring out our joy at your victory
And rejoice in the name of our God.

I am sure now that the Lord
Will give victory to his anointed.

Will reply from his holy heaven
With the mighty victory of his hand.

Some trust in chariots or horses,
But we in the name of the Lord.

They will collapse and fall,
But we shall hold and stand firm.

Give victory to the king, O Lord,
Give answer on the day we call.

(Ant.) Let us trust in God who alone will save the lowly!

Psalm 21

O Lord, your strength gives joy to the king;
How your saving help makes him glad!

(Ant.) The Lord takes away hardships from his servants and delights them with his might.

You have granted him his heart's desire;
You have not refused the prayer of his lips.

You came to meet him
With the blessings of success.

You have set on his head a crown of pure gold.
He asked you for life and this you have given,
Days that will last from age to age.

Your saving help has given him glory
You have laid upon him
Majesty and splendour.

You have granted your blessings to him for ever
You have made him rejoice
With the joy of your presence.

The king has put his trust in the Lord:
Through the mercy of the Most High
He shall stand firm.

His hand will seek and find all his foes,
His right hand find out those that hate him.

You will burn them like a blazing furnace
On the day when you appear.
And the Lord shall destroy them in his anger;
Fire will swallow them up.

You will wipe out their race from the earth
And their children from the sons of men.
Though they plan evil against you,
Though they plot, they shall not prevail.
For you will force them to retreat;
At them you will aim with your bow.
O Lord, arise in your strength;
We shall sing and praise your power.

(Ant.) The Lord takes away the hardships from his servants and delights them with his might.

Marmitha 8

Psalm 22

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
You are far from my plea and the cry of my Distress.

*(Ant.) Do not leave me at the mercy of the godless! O my God, I call by day
And you give no reply.*

I call by night and I find no peace.
Yet you, O God, are holy.
Enthroned on the praises of Israel
In you our fathers put their trust.

They trusted and you set them free.

When cried to you, they escaped.

In you they trusted and never in vain.

But I am a worm and no man,

The butt of men, laughing stock of the people.

All who see me deride me.

They curl their lips, they toss their heads

He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;

Let him release him if this is his friend.

Yes, it was you who took me from the womb,

Entrusted me to my mother's breast.

To you I was committed from my birth,

From my mother's womb you have been my God.

Do not leave me alone in my distress;

Come close, there is none else to help.

Many bulls have surrounded me,

Fierce bulls of Bashan close me in.

Against me they open wide their jaws,

Like lions, rending and roaring.

Like water I am poured out,

Disjointed are all my bones.

My heart has become like wax,

It is melted within my breast.

Parched as burnt clay is my throat,

My tongue cleaves to my jaws.

Many dogs have surrounded me,

A band of the wicked beset me.

They tear holes in my hands and my feet
And lay me in the dust of death.
I can count every one of my bones.
These people stare at me and gloat.
They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
My strength, make haste to help me!
Rescue my soul from the sword,
My life from the grip of these dogs.
Save my life from the jaws of these lions,
My poor soul from the horns of these oxen.
I will tell of your name to my brethren
And praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give him praise;
All sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons
For he has never despised
Nor scorned the poverty of the poor.
From him he has not hidden his face,
But he heard the poor man when he cried.'
You are my praise in the great assembly.
My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.
May their hearts live for ever and ever!
All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord.

All families of the nations worship before him
For the kingdom is the Lord's;
He is ruler of the nations.

They shall worship him,
All the mighty of the earth;
Before him shall bow all
Who go down to the dust.

And my soul shall live for him,
My children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord
The generations yet to come.

Declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
'These things the Lord has done.'

(Ant.) Do not leave me at the mercy of the godless! O my God, I call by day and you give no reply;

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want.

*(Ant.) Let us put our hope in the Lord,
who protects those who dwell in his house.*
Fresh and green are the pastures
Where he gives me repose.

Near restful waters he leads me,
To revive my drooping spirit.
He guides me along the right path;
He is true to his name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness
No evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
With these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me
In the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
All the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
For ever and ever.

*(Ant.) Let us put our hope in the Lord,
who protects those who dwell in his house.*

Psalm 24

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
The world and all its peoples.

*(Ant.) Let us be careful in our responsibilities
That the Almighty may save us.*
It is he who set it on the seas;
On the waters he made it firm.

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
Who desires not worthless things, who has not sworn so as to deceive his neighbour.

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
Seek the face of the God of Jacob.

O gates, lift high your heads;
Grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory!
Who is the king of glory?

The Lord, the mighty, the valiant,
The Lord, the valiant in war.

O gates, lift high your heads;
Grow higher, ancient doors.

Let him enter, the king of glory!
Who is he, the king of glory?

He, the Lord of armies,
He is the king of glory.

(Ant.) Let us be careful in our responsibilities that the Almighty may save us.

Marmitha 9Psalm 25

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

*(Ant.) I raise my eyes up to you, my Lord,
for you are my only hope.*

I trust you, let me not be disappointed;

Do not let my enemies triumph.

Those who hope in you

Shall not be disappointed,

But only those who want only break faith.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:

For you are my God my saviour.

In you I hope all the day long

Because of your goodness, O Lord.

Remember your mercy, Lord,

And the love you have shown from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth.

In your love remember me.

The Lord is good and upright.

He shows the path to those who stray.

He guides the humble in the right path;

He teaches his way to the poor.

His ways are faithfulness and love

For those who keep his covenant and will.

Lord, for the sake of your name
Forgive my guilt; for it is great.
If anyone fears the Lord
He will show him the path he should choose.
His soul shall live in happiness
And his children shall possess the land.
The Lord's friendship is for those Who revere him; to them
He reveals his covenant.
My eyes are always on the Lord;
For he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy
For I am lonely and poor.
Relieve the anguish of my heart
And set me free from my distress.
See my affliction and my toil
And take all my sins away.
See how many are my foes;
How violent their hatred for me.
Preserve my life and rescue me
Do not disappoint me, you are my refuge.
May innocence and uprightness protect me:
For my hope is in you, O Lord.
Redeem Israel, O God, from all its distress!
*(Ant.) I raise my eyes up to you, my Lord,
for you are my only hope.*

Psalm 26

Do justice for me, O Lord:

For I walk the path of perfection

I trust in the Lord; I have not wavered.

(Ant.) Put me not to shame at your judgement seat, O Supreme Judge!

Examine me, Lord, and try me;

O test my heart and my mind.

For your love is before my eyes

And I walk according to your truth.

I never take my place with liars

And with hypocrites I shall not go.

I hate the evil doer's company:

I will not take my place with the wicked.

To prove my innocence I wash my hands

And take my place around your altar.

Singing a song of thanksgiving, proclaiming all your wonders.

O Lord, I love the house where you dwell,

The place where your glory abides.

Do not sweep me away with sinners,

Nor my life with bloodthirsty men.

In whose hands are evil plots,

Whose right hands are filled with gold.

As for me, I walk the path of perfection.

Redeem me and show me your mercy.

My foot stands on level ground:
I will bless the Lord in the assembly.
(Ant.) Put me not to shame at your judgement seat, O Supreme Judge!

Psalm 27

The Lord is my light and my help;
Whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
Before whom shall I shrink?
*(Ant.) Do not cast me off
from your presence,
you who probe the secrets!*
When evil doers draw near
To devour my flesh.
It is they, my enemies and foes,
Who stumble and fall.
Though an army encamp against me
My heart would not fear.
Though war break out against me
Even then would I trust.
There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
For this I long.
To live in the house of the Lord,
All the days of my life.
To savour the sweetness of the Lord,
To behold his temple.

For there he keeps me safe in the tent
In the day of evil.

He hides me in the shelter of his tent,
On a rock he sets me safe.

And now my head shall be raised
Above all my foes who surround me.
And I shall offer within his tent
A sacrifice of joy.

I will sing and make music for the Lord.
O Lord, hear my voice when I call;
Have mercy and answer.
Of you my heart has spoken:
'Seek his face.'

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
Hide not your face.

Dismiss not your servant in anger;
You have been my help.

Do not abandon or forsake me,
O God my help!
Though father and mother forsake me,
The Lord will receive me.

Instruct me, Lord, in your way;
On an even path lead me.
When they lie in ambush protect me
From my enemy's greed.

False witnesses rise against me,
Breathing out fury.
I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness
In the land of the living.
Hope on him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord!

*(Ant.) Do not cast me off from your presence,
you who probe the secrets!*

Marmitha 10

Psalm 28

To you, O Lord, I call,
My rock, hear me.
If you do not heed I shall become Like those in the grave.

(Ant.) Our souls cry out to you, Lord, come to our aid and save us!

Hear the voice of my pleading as I call for help, as I lift up my hands in prayer to your holy place.

Do not drag me away with the wicked, with the evil doers who speak word of peace to their neighbours but with evil in their hearts.
Repay them as their action deserve
And the malice of the deeds.

Repay them for the work of their hands;
Give them their deserts.
For they ignore the deeds of the Lord
And the work of his hands.
Blessed be the Lord for he has heard
My cry, my appeal.
The Lord is my strength and my shield;
In him my heart trusts.
I was helped, my heart rejoices
And I praise him with my song.
The Lord is the strength of his people,
The fortress where his anointed find help.
Save your people; bless Israel your heritage.
Be their shepherd and carry them for ever.
(Ant.) *Our souls cry out to you, Lord,
come to our aid and save us!*

Psalm 29

O give the Lord you sons of God,
Give the Lord glory and power.
(Ant.) *Praise is fitting for the one,
whose mercy is immeasurable!*
Give the Lord the glory of his name.
Adore the Lord in his holy court.
The Lord's voice resounding on the waters,
The Lord on the immensity of waters.

The voice of the Lord, full of power,

The voice of the Lord, full of splendour.

The Lord's voice shattering the cedars,

The Lord shatters the cedars of Lebanon.

He makes Lebanon leap like a calf

And Sirion like a young wild ox.

The Lord's voice shaking the wilderness,

The Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

The Lord's voice rending the oak tree and stripping the forest bare.

The God of glory thunders.

In his temple they all cry: Glory!

The Lord sat enthroned over the flood;

The Lord sits as king for ever.

The Lord will give strength to his people,

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

(Ant.) Praise is fitting for the one,

whose mercy is immeasurable!

Psalm 30

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me

And have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

(Ant.) We sanctify your name for you save us and destroy our foes

in your anger!

O Lord, I cried to you for help
And you, my God, have healed me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead Restored me to life from those Who sink into the grave.
Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
Give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment;
His favour all through life.
At night there are tears,
But joy comes with dawn.
I said to myself in my good fortune:
‘Nothing will ever disturb me.’
Your favour had set me
On a mountain fastness.
Then you hid your face
And I was put to confusion.
To you, Lord, I cried,
To my God I made appeal.
What profit would my death be,
My going to the grave?
Can dust give you praise or proclaim your truth?
The Lord listened and had pity
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed
My mourning into dancing.

You removed my sackcloth
And girdled me with joy.
So my soul sings psalms to you unceasingly.
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.
*(Ant.) We sanctify your name for you save us and destroy our foes
in your anger!*

Marmitha 11

Psalm 31

In you, O Lord, I take refuge,
Let me never be put to shame
In your justice, set me free.
(Ant.) In my anguish I am ignored as if dead, console me, Lord!

Hear me and speedily rescue me.
Be a rock of refuge for me.
A mighty stronghold to save me,
For you are my rock, my stronghold.
For your name's sake, lead me and guide me,
Release me from the snares they have hidden
For you are my refuge, Lord.
Into your hands I commend my spirit.
It is you who will redeem me, Lord.

O God of truth, you detest
Those who worship false and empty gods.

As for me, I trust in the Lord:

Let me be glad and rejoice in your love.
You who have seen my affliction
And taken heed of soul's distress.

Have not handed me over to the enemy,
But set my feet at large.
Have mercy on me, O Lord,
For I am in distress.

Tears have wasted my eyes,
My throat and my heart.
For my life is spent with sorrow
And my ears with sighs.

Affliction has broken down my strength
And my bones waste away.
In the face of all my foes
I am a reproach.

And abject of scorn to my neighbours
And of fear to my friends.
Those who see me in the street
Run far away from me.

I am like a dead man, forgotten
Like a thing thrown away.
I have heard the slander of the crowd,
Fear is all around me.

As they plot together against me,
As they plan to take my life.
But as for me, I trust in you, Lord,
I say: You are my God.

My life is in your hands, deliver me
From the hands of those who hate me.
Let your face shine on your servant.
Save me in your love.

Let me not be put to shame for I call you,
Let the wicked be shamed!
Let them be silenced in the grace,
Let lying lips be dumb.

That speak haughtily against the just
With pride and contempt.
How great is the goodness, Lord
That you keep for those who fear you.

That you show to those who trust you
In the sight of men.
You hide them in the shelter of your presence
From the plotting of men.

You keep them safe within your tent
From disputing tongues.
Blessed be the Lord who has shown me
The wonders of his love in a fortified city.
I am far removed from your sight
I said in my alarm.

Yet you heard the voice of my plea
When I cried for help.

Love the Lord all you saints,
He guards his faithful.

But the Lord will repay to the full
Those who act with pride.

Be strong, let your heart take courage,
All who hope in the Lord.

(Ant.) In my anguish I am ignored as if dead, console me, Lord!

Psalm 32

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven,
Whose sin is remitted.

*(Ant.) Let us reconcile with one another in mutual love, that he may shower
His mercy upon us!*

O happy the man to whom the Lord
Imputes no guilt,
In whose spirit is no guile.

I kept it secret and my frame was wasted.

I groaned all the day long.

For night and day your hand
Was heavy upon me.

Indeed, my strength was dried up
As by the summer's heat.

But now I have acknowledged my sins;
My guilt I did not hide.

I said: 'I will confess
My offence to the Lord.
And you, Lord, have forgiven
The guilt of my sin.
So let every good man pray to you
In the time of need.
The floods of water may reach high
But him they shall not reach.
You are my hiding place, O Lord;
You save me from distress.
I will instruct you and teach you
The way you should go.
I will give you counsel
With my eye upon you.
Be not like horse and mule, unintelligent,
Needing bridle and bit,
Else they will not approach you.
Many sorrows has the wicked
But he who trusts in the Lord,
Loving mercy surrounds him.
Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord,
Exult, you just!
O come, ring out your joy,
All you upright of heart.
*(Ant.) Let us reconcile with one another in mutual love, that he may shower
His mercy upon us!*

Marmitha 12Psalm 33

Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;
For praise is fitting for loyal hearts.

(Ant.) Praise is fitting for the upright, while thanksgiving is their due.

Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp,
With a ten stringed lute sing him songs.

O sing him a song that is new,
Play loudly, with all your skill.

For the word of the Lord is faithful
And all his works to be trusted.

The Lord loves justice and right
And fills the earth with his love.

By his word the heavens were made,
By the breath of his mouth all the stars.

He collects the waves of the ocean;
He stores up the depths of the sea.

Let all the earth fear the Lord,
All who live in the world revere him.

He spoke; and it came to be

He commanded; it sprang into being.
He frustrates the designs of the nations,
He defeats the plans of the peoples.

His own designs shall stand for ever,
The plans of his heart from age to age.

They are happy, whose God is the Lord,
The people he has chosen as his own.

From the heavens the Lord looks forth,
He sees all the children of men.

From the place where he dwells he gazes
On all the dwellers on the earth.

He who shapes the hearts of them all
And considers all their deeds.

A king is not saved by his army,
Nor a warrior preserved by his strength.

A vain hope for safety is the horse;
Despite its power it cannot save.

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
On those who hope in his love.

To rescue their souls from death,
To keep them alive in famine.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.

In him do our hearts find joy.
We trust in his holy name.

May your love be upon us, O Lord,
As we place all our hope in you.

(Ant.) Praise is fitting for the upright, while thanksgiving is their due.

Psalm 34

I will bless the Lord at all times,
His praise always on my lips.

*(Ant.) Blessed is God, who gives victory
to his soldiers in their battles.*

In the Lord my soul shall make its boast Glorify the Lord with me together let us praise his name.

I sought the Lord and he answered me;
From all my terrors he set me free.
Look towards him and be radiant;
Let your faces not be abashed.

This poor man called; the Lord heard him
And rescued him from all his distress.
The angel of the Lord is encamped
Around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him.
Revere the Lord, you his saints.
They lack nothing, those who revere him.
Strong lions suffer want and go hungry
But those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.
Come, children, and hear me
That I may teach you the fear of the Lord.
Who is he who longs for life
And many days, to enjoy his prosperity?

Then keep your tongue from evil
And your lips from speaking deceit.

Turn aside from evil and do good;
Seek and strive after peace.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked
To destroy their remembrance from the earth.

The Lord turns his eyes to the just
And his ears to their appeal.

They call and the Lord hears
And rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord is close to the broken hearted;
Those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

Many are the trials of the just man
But from them all the Lord will rescue him.

He will keep guard over all his bones,
Not one of his bones shall be broken.

Evil brings death to the wicked;
Those who hate the good are doomed.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

*(Ant.) Blessed is God, who gives victory
to his soldiers in their battles.*

Marmitha 13Psalm 35

O Lord, plead my cause against my foes;
Fight those who fight me.

(Ant.) Turn not your face away from the persecuted for their zeal for you, O Christ!

Take up your buckler and shield;
Arise to help me.

Take up the javelin and the spear against those who pursue me.

O Lord, say to my soul:
I am your salvation.

Let those who seek my life
Be shamed and disgraced.

Let those who plan evil against me
Be routed in confusion.

Let them be like chaff before the wind;
Let God's angel scatter them.

Let their path be slippery and dark;
Let God's angel pursue them.

They have hidden a net for me wantonly;
They have dug a pit.

Let ruin fall upon them
And take them by surprise.

Let them be caught in the net they have hidden;
Let them fall into the pit.

But my soul shall be joyful in the Lord
And rejoice in his salvation.

My whole being will say:

Lord, who is like you.

Who rescue the weak from the strong
And the poor from the oppressor?

Lying witnesses arise

And accuse me unjustly.

They repay me evil for good:

My soul is forlorn.

When they were sick I went into mourning,

Afflicted with fasting.

My prayer was ever on my lips,

As though for a brother, a friend.

I went as though mourning a mother,

Bowed down with grief.

Now that I am in trouble they gather,

They gather and mock me.

They take me by surprise and strike me

And tear me to pieces.

They provoke me with mockery on mockery

And gnash their teeth.

O Lord, how long will you look on?

Come to my rescue!

Save my life from these raging beasts,

My soul from these lions.

I will thank you in the great assembly,
And praise you amid the throng.
Do not let my lying foes
Rejoice over me.

Do not let those who hate me unjustly
Wink eyes at each other.
They wish no peace to the peaceful
Who live in the land.

They make deceitful plots
And with mouths wide open.
Their cry against me is: Yes!
We saw you do it!

O Lord, you have seen, do not be silent,
Do not stand afar off!
Awake, stir to my defence,
To my cause, O God!

Vindicate me, Lord in your justice,
Do not let them rejoice.
Do not let them think: Yes! we have won,
We have brought him to an end.

Let them be shamed and brought to disgrace
Who rejoice at my misfortune.
Let them be covered with shame and confusion
Who raise themselves against me.

Let there be joy for those who love my cause.
Let them say without end.

Great is the Lord who delights
In the peace of his servant.

Then my tongue shall speak of your justice,
All the day long of your praise.

(Ant.) Turn not your face away from the persecuted for their zeal for you, O Christ!

Psalm 36

Sin speaks to the sinner
In the depths of his heart.
There is no fear of God
Before his eyes.

(Ant.) The mighty Lord is good, just and wise!

He so flatters himself in his mind
That he knows not his guilt.

In his mouth are mischief and deceit.

All wisdom is gone.

He plots the defeat of goodness
As he lies on his bed.

He has set his foot on evil ways,

He clings to what is evil.

Your love, Lord, reaches to heaven;
Your truth to the skies.

Your justice is like God's mountain,
Your judgements like the deep.

To both man and beast you give protection.

O Lord, how precious is your love.

My God, the sons of men

Find refuge in the shelter of your wings.

They feast on the riches of your house;

They drink from the stream of your delight.

In you is the source of life

And in your light we see light.

Keep on loving those who know you,

Doing justice for upright hearts.

Let the foot of the proud not crush me

Nor the hand of the wicked cast me out.

See how the evil doers fall!

Flung down, they shall never arise.

(Ant.) The mighty Lord is good, just and wise!

Marmitha 14

Psalm 37

Do not fret because of the wicked;

Do not envy those who do evil.

(Ant.) The justice will spring up all of a sudden, and will destroy the wicked!

For they wither quickly like grass

And fade like the green of the fields.

If you trust in the Lord and do good,

Then you will live in the land and be secure.

If you find your delight in the Lord,
He will grant your heart's desire.

Commit your life to the Lord,
Trust him and he will act.

So that your justice breaks forth like the light,
Your cause like the noon day sun.

Be still before the Lord and wait in patience;
Do not fret at the man who prospers.

A man who makes evil plots
To down the needy and the poor.

Calm your anger and forget your rage;
Do not fret, it only leads to evil.

For those who do evil shall perish;
The patient shall inherit the land.

A little longer and the wicked shall have gone.
Look at his place, he is not there.

But the humble shall own the land
And enjoy the fullness of peace.

The wicked man plots against the just
And gnashes his teeth against him.

But the Lord laughs at the wicked
For he sees that his day is at hand.

The sword of the wicked is drawn,

His bow is bent to slaughter the upright.
Their swords shall pierce their own hearts
And their bows shall be broken to pieces.

The just man's few possessions;
Are better than the wicked man's wealth.
For the power of the wicked shall be broken
And the Lord will support the just.

He protects the lives of the upright,
Their heritage will last for ever.
They shall not be put to shame in evil days,
In time of famine their food shall not fail.

But all the wicked shall perish
And all the enemies of the Lord.
They are like the beauty of the meadows,
They shall vanish, they shall vanish like smoke.

The wicked man borrows without repaying,
But the just man is generous and gives.
Those blessed by the Lord shall own the land,
But those he has cursed shall be destroyed.

The Lord guides the steps of a man
And makes safe the path of one he loves.
Though he stumble he shall never fall
For the Lord holds him by the hand.

I was young and now I am old
But I have never seen the just man forsaken
Nor his children begging for bread.
All the day he is generous and lends
And his children become a blessing.
Then turn away from evil and do good
And you shall have a home for ever.

For the Lord loves justice
And will never forsake his friends.
The unjust shall be wiped out for ever
And the children of the wicked destroyed.
The just shall inherit the land;
There they shall live for ever.
The just man's mouth utters wisdom
And his lips speak what is right.
The law of his God is in his heart,
His steps shall be saved from stumbling.
The wicked man watches for the just
And seeks occasion to kill him.
The Lord will not leave him in his power
Nor let him be condemned when he is judged.
Then wait for the Lord, keep to his way.
It is he who will free you from the wicked.
Raise you up to possess the land
And see the wicked destroyed.
I have seen the wicked triumphant,
Towering like a cedar of Lebanon.
I passed by again; he was gone.
I searched; he was nowhere to be found.
See the just man, mark the upright,
For the peaceful man a future lies in store,
But sinners shall all be destroyed.

No future lies in store for the wicked,
The salvation of the just comes from the Lord,
Their stronghold in time of distress.

The Lord helps them and delivers them
And saves them: for their refuge is in him.

(Ant.) The justice will spring up all of a sudden, and will destroy the wicked!

Marmitha 15

Psalm 38

O Lord, do not rebuke me in your anger;
Do not punish me, Lord, in your rage.

(Ant.) In your mercy, let our punishment be made light! O merciful One!

Your arrows have sunk deep in me;
Your hand has come down upon me.

Through your anger all my body is sick:
Through my sin, there is no health
In my limbs.

My guilt towers higher than my head;
It is a weight too heavy to bear.

My wounds are foul and festering,
The result of my own folly.

I am bowed and brought to my knees.
I go mourning all the day long.

All my frame burns with fever;
All my body is sick.
Spent and utterly crushed,
I cry aloud in anguish of heart.
O Lord, you know all my longing:
My groans are not hidden from you.
My heart throbs, my strength is spent;
The very light has gone from my eyes.
My friends avoid me like a leper;
Those closest to me stand afar off.
Those who plot against my life lay snares;
Those who seek my ruin speak of harm,
planning treachery all the day long.
But I am like the deaf who cannot hear,
Like the dumb unable to speak.
I am like a man who hears nothing
In whose mouth is no defence.
I count on you, O Lord:
It is you, Lord God, who will answer.
I pray: Do not let them mock me,
Those who triumph if my foot should slip.
For I am on the point of falling
And my pain is always before me.
I confess that I am guilty
And my sin fills me with dismay.
My wanton enemies are numberless
And my lying foes are many.

They repay me evil for good
And attack me for seeking what is right.

O Lord, do not forsake me!

My God, do not stay afar off!

Make haste and come to my help,

O Lord, my God, my saviour!

(Ant.) In your mercy, let our punishment be made light! O merciful One!

Psalm 39

I said 'I will be watchful of my ways

For fear I should sin with my tongue.

*(Ant.) The wicked have persecuted me,
you alone, Lord, are my real hope!*

I will put a curb on my lips

When the wicked man stands before me.'

I was dumb, silent and still.

His prosperity stirred my grief.

My heart was burning within me.

At the thought of it, the fire blazed up

And my tongue burst into speech.

O Lord, you have shown me my end,

How short is the length of my days.

Now I know how fleeting is my life.

You have given me a short span of days;

My life is as nothing in your sight.

A mere breath, the man who stood so firm,
A mere shadow, the man passing by.
A mere breath the riches he hoards,
Not knowing who will have them.

And now, Lord, what is there to wait for?
In you rests all my hope.
Set me free from all my sins,
Do not make me the taunt of the fool.

I was silent, not opening my lips,
because this was all your doing.
Take away your scourge from me.
I am crushed by the blows of your hand.
You punish man's sins and correct him;
Like the moth you devour all he treasures.
Mortal man is no more than a breath;
O Lord, hear my prayer.

O Lord, turn your ear to my cry.
Do not be deaf to my tears.
In your house I am a passing guest,
A pilgrim, like all your fathers.
Look away that I may breathe again
Before I depart to be no more.

*(Ant.) The wicked have persecuted me,
you alone, Lord, are my real hope!*

Psalm 40

I waited, I waited for the Lord
And he stooped down to me;
He heard my cry.

(Ant.) Lord of mercy, your goodness is beyond any measure!

He drew me for the deadly pit,
From the miry clay.

He set my feet upon a rock
And made my footsteps firm.

He put a new song into my mouth,
Praise of our God.

Many shall see and fear
And shall trust in the Lord.

Happy the man who has placed
His trust in the Lord
Follow false gods.

How many, O Lord my God,
Are the wonders and designs.
That you have worked for us;
You have no equal.

Should I proclaim and speak of them,
They are more than I can tell.
You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings,
But an open ear.

You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
Instead, here am I.

In the scroll of the book it stands written
That I should do your will.

My God, I delight in your law
In the depth of my heart.

Your justice I have proclaimed
In the great assembly.

My lips I have not sealed;
You know it, O Lord.

I have not hidden your justice in my heart
But declared your faithful help.

I have not hidden your love and your truth
From the great assembly.

O Lord, you will not withhold
Your compassion from me.

Your merciful love and your truth
Will always guard me.

For I am beset with evils
Too many to be counted.

My sins have fallen upon me
And my sight fails me.

They are more than the hairs of my head
And my heart sinks.

O Lord, come to my rescue,
Lord, come to my aid.

O let there be shame and confusion
On those who seek my life.

O let them turn back in confusion,
who delight in my harm.

Let them be appalled, covered with shame,
Who jeer at my lot.

O let there be rejoicing and gladness
For all who seek you.

Let them ever say: 'The Lord is great'
Who love your saving help.

As for me, wretched and poor,
The Lord thinks of me.

You are my rescuer, my help,

O God, do not delay.

(Ant.) Lord of mercy, your goodness is beyond any measure!

Marmitha 16

Psalm 41

Happy the man who considers
The poor and the weak.

(Ant.) Blessed is the one who gets mercy at your judgement seat!

The Lord will save him in the day of evil,
Will guard him, give him life.

Make him happy in the land

And will not give him up to the will of his foes.

The Lord will help him on his bed of pain,

He will bring him back from sickness to health.

As for me, I said: 'Lord, have mercy on me,

Heal my soul for I have sinned against you.'

My foes are speaking evil against me.

'How long before he dies

And his name be forgotten?'

They come to visit me and speak empty words,

Their hearts full of malice, they spread it abroad.

My enemies whisper together against me.

They all weigh up the evil which is on me.

Some deadly thing has fastened upon him,

He will not rise again from where he lies.

Thus even my friend, in whom I trusted,

Who ate my bread, has turned against me.

But you, O Lord, have mercy on me

Let me rise once more and I will repay them.

By this I shall know that you are my friend,

If my foes do not shout in triumph over me.

If you uphold me I shall be unharmed

And set in your presence for evermore.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel

From age to age. Amen. Amen.

(Ant.) Blessed is the one who gets mercy at your judgement seat!

Psalm 42

Like the deer that yearns
For running streams,
So my soul is yearning for you, my God.

(Ant.) I beseech you, O my God, answer me in your kindness,

My soul is thirsting for God,
The God of my life.

When can I enter and see
The face of God?

My tears have become my bread,
By night, and by day.

As I hear it said all the day long:
Where is your God?

These things will I remember
As I pour out my soul.

How I would lead the rejoicing crowd
Into the house of God.

Amid cries of gladness and thanksgiving,
The throng wild with joy.

Why are you cast down, my soul,
Why groan within me?

Hope in God; I will praise him still,
My saviour and my God.

My soul is cast down within me as I think of you.

From the country of Jordan and Mount Hermon, from the Hill of Mizar.

Deep is calling on deep,
Is the roar of waters.

Your torrents and all your waves swept over me.

By day the Lord will send
His loving kindness.

By night I will sing to him,
Praise the God of my life.

I will say to God, my rock:

Why have you forgotten me?

Why do I go mourning

Oppressed by the foe?

With cries that pierce me to the heart,

My enemies revile me.

Saying to me all the day long:

Where is your God?

Why are you cast down, my soul,

Why groan within me?

Hope in God; I will praise him still,

My saviour and my God.

(Ant.) I beseech you, O my God, answer me in your kindness.

Psalm 43

Defend me, O God, and plead my cause
Against a godless nation.
From deceitful and cunning men
Rescue me, O God.

(Ant.) My foes are arrayed against me, my God, give me justice and let your help accompany me!

Since you, O God, are my stronghold,
Why have you rejected me?

Why do I go mourning
Oppressed by the foe?

O send forth your light and your truth;
Let these be my guide.

Let them bring me to your holy mountain
To the place where you dwell.

And I will come to the altar of God,
The God of my joy.

My redeemer, I will thank you on the harp,
O God, my God.

Why are you cast down, my soul,
Why groan within me?

Hope in God; I will praise him still,
My saviour and my God.

*(Ant.) My foes are arrayed against me, my God, give me justice and let your help accompany
me!*

Marmitha 17Psalm 44

We heard with our own ears, O God,
Our fathers have told us the story
Of the things you did in their days,
You yourself, in days long ago.

*(Ant.) God, Creator and Saviour of our ancestors redeem in your mercy,
with your power, those who worship you.*

To plant them you uprooted the nations:
To let them spread you laid peoples low.
No sword of their own won the land;
No arm of their own brought them victory.
It was your right hand, your arm
And the light of your face: for you loved them.
It is you, my king, my God,
Who granted victories to Jacob.

Through you we beat down our foes;
In your name we trampled our aggressors.
For it was not in my bow that I trusted
Nor yet was I saved by my sword.
It was you who saved us from our foes,
It was you who put our foes to shame.
All the day long our boast was in God
And we praised your name without ceasing.

Yet now you have rejected us, disgraced us:

You no longer go forth with our armies.

You make us retreat from the foe

And our enemies plunder us at will.

You make us like sheep for the slaughter

And scatter us among the nations.

You sell your own people for nothing

And make no profit by the sale.

You make us the taunt of our neighbours,

The laughing stock of all who are near.

Among the nations, you make us a byword,

Among the peoples a thing of derision.

All day long my disgrace is before me:

My face is covered with shame.

At the voice of the taunter, the scoffer,

At the sight of the foe and avenger.

This befell us though we had not forgotten you;

Though we had not been false to your covenant.

Though we had not withdrawn our hearts;

Though our feet had not strayed from your path.

Yet you have crushed us in a place of sorrows

And covered us with the shadow of death.

Had we forgotten the name of our God

Or stretched out our hands to another god.

Would not God have found this out,

He who knows the secrets of the heart?

It is for you we face death all the day long
And are counted as sheep for the slaughter.
Awake, O Lord, why do you sleep?
Arise, do not reject us for ever!
Why do you hide your face
And forget our oppression and misery?
For we are brought down low to the dust;
Our body lies prostrate on the earth.
Stand up and come to our help!
Redeem us because of your love.

*(Ant.) God, Creator and Saviour of our ancestors redeem in your mercy,
with your power, those who worship you.*

Psalm 45

My heart overflows with noble words
To the king I must speak the song I have made;
My tongue as nimble as the pen of a scribe.
(Ant.) Praise to you our Redeemer, who glorified your Church by choosing and decorating her with every beauty.
You are the fairest of the children of men
And graciousness is poured upon your lips:
Because God has blessed you for evermore.
O mighty one, gird your sword upon your thigh.

In splendour and state, ride on in triumph
For the cause of truth and goodness and right.

Take aim with your bow
in your dread right hand.

Your arrows are sharp: peoples fall beneath you.
The foes of the king fall down and lose heart.
Your throne, O God, shall endure forever.

A sceptre of justice is the sceptre of your kingdom.

Your love is for justice; your hatred for evil.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you
With the oil of gladness above other kings:

Your robes are fragrant with aloes and myrrh.
From the ivory palace you are greeted with music.

The daughters of kings are among your loved ones. On your right stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

Listen, O daughter, give ear to my words:
Forget your own people and your father's house.

So will the king desire your beauty:
He is the lord, pay homage to him.

And the people of Tyre shall come with gifts,
The richest of the people shall seek your favour.

The daughter of the king is clothed with splendour, her robes embroidered with pearls set in gold.

She is led to the king with her maiden companions.

They are escorted amid gladness and joy;
They pass within the palace of the king.

Sons shall be yours in place of your fathers:

You will make them princes over all the earth.

May this song make your name for ever remembered

May the peoples praise you from age to age.

(Ant.) Praise to you our Redeemer, who glorified your Church by choosing and decorating her with every beauty.

Psalm 46

God is for us a refuge and strength,
A helper close at hand, in time of distress.

*(Ant.) Knock down the proud, our Invincible
Helper, and delight us with your salvation!*

So we shall not fear though the earth should rock,
Though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea.

Even though its waters rage and foam,
Even though the mountains be shaken by its waves.

The Lord of hosts is with us:

The God of Jacob is our stronghold.

The waters of a river give joy to God's city,

The holy place where the Most High dwells.

God is within, it cannot be shaken;

God will help it at the dawning of the day.

Nations are in tumult, kingdoms are shaken:

He lifts his voice, the earth shrinks away.

The Lord of hosts is with us:

The God of Jacob our stronghold.

Come, consider the works of the Lord

The redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth.

He puts an end to wars over all the earth;

The bow he breaks, the spear he snaps.

Be still and know that I am God,

Supreme among the nations,

supreme on the earth!

The Lord of hosts is with us:

The God of Jacob is our stronghold.

*(Ant.) Knock down the proud, our Invincible
Helper, and delight us with your salvation!*

Marmitha 18

Psalm 47

All peoples, clap your hands,

Cry to God with shouts of joy!

(Ant.) Blessed is he who, in his mercy, gave us his body as food and erased the stain of sin with his blood

For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear,
Great king over all the earth.

He subdues peoples under us
And nations under our feet.

Our inheritance, our glory, is from him,
Given to Jacob out of love.

God goes up with shouts of joy;
The Lord goes up with trumpet blast.

Sing praise for God, sing praise,
Sing praise to our king, sing praise.

God is king of all the earth,
Sing praise with all your skill.

God is king over the nations;
God reigns on his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples are assembled
With the people of Abraham's God.

The rulers of the earth belong to God,
To God who reigns forever.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who, in his mercy, gave us his body as food and erased the stain of sin with his blood.

Psalm 48

The Lord is great and worthy to be praised in the city of our God.

(Ant.) The stalk of Adam, rejoice and be glad in Jesus, who conquered death in his own death.

His holy mountain rises in beauty,
The joy of all the earth.

Mount Zion, true pole of the earth,
The Great King's city!

God, in the midst of its citadels,
Has shown himself its stronghold.

For the kings assembled together,
Together they advanced.

They saw; at once they were astounded;
Dismayed, they fled in fear.

A trembling seized them there,
Like the pangs of birth.

By the east wind you have destroyed
The ships of Tarshish.

As we have heard, so we have seen
In the city of our God.

In the city of the Lord of hosts
Which God upholds for ever.

O God, we ponder your love
Within your temple.

Your praise, O God, like your name
Reaches to the ends of the earth.

With justice your right hand is filled.

Mount Zion rejoices.

The people of Judah rejoice

At the sight of your judgements.

Walk through Zion, walk around it;

Count the number of its towers.

Review all its ramparts,

Examine its castles.

That you may tell the next generation

That such is our God.

Our God for ever and always.

It is he who leads us.

(Ant.) The stalk of Adam, rejoice and be glad in Jesus, who conquered death in his own death.

Psalm 49

Hear this, all you peoples,

Give heed, all you dwell in the world.

(Ant.) Therefore, listen you who lead the people, serve the Lord of all in fear and trembling!

Men both low and high,

Rich and poor alike!

My lips will speak words of wisdom.
My heart is full of insight.
I will turn my mind to a parable,
With the harp I will solve my problem.
Why should I fear in evil days
The malice of the foes who surround me.
Men who trust in their wealth,
And boast of the vastness of their riches?
For no man can buy his own ransom,
Or pay a price to God for his life.
The ransom of his soul is beyond him.
He cannot buy life without end,
Nor avoid coming to the grave.
He knows that wise men and fools must both perish
And leave their wealth to others.
Their graves are their homes for ever.
Their dwelling place from age to age,
Though their names spread wide through the land.
In his riches, man lacks wisdom:
He is like the beasts that are destroyed.
This is the lot of the self confident,
Who have others at their beck and call.
Like sheep they are driven to the grave,
Where death shall be their shepherd
And the just shall become their rulers.
With the morning their outward show vanishes
And the grave becomes their home.

But God will ransom me from death
And take my soul to himself.
Then do not fear when a man grows rich,
When the glory of his house increases.
He takes nothing with him when he dies,
His glory does not follow him below.
Though he flattered himself while he lived:
Men will praise me for all my success.
Yet he will go to join his fathers,
Who will never see the light any more.
In his riches, man lacks wisdom:
He is like the beasts that are destroyed.

(Ant.) Therefore, listen you who lead the people, serve the Lord of all in fear and trembling!

Marmitha 19

Psalms 50

The God of gods, the Lord,
Has spoken and summoned the earth,
From the rising of the sun to its setting.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who replaced every other sacrifice with his own sacrifice

Out of Zion's perfect beauty he shines
Before him fire devours,
Around him tempest rages.

He calls on the heavens and the earth
To witness his judgement of his people.
Summon before me my people
Who made covenant with me by sacrifice.

The heavens proclaim his justice,
For he, God, is the judge.
Listen, my people, I will speak;
Israel, I will testify against you.

For I am God your God.

I accuse you, lay the charge before you.
I find no fault with your sacrifices,
Your offerings are always before me.

I do not ask more bullocks from your farms,
Nor goats from among your herds.
For I own all the beasts of the forest,
Beasts in their thousands on my hills.

I know all the birds in the sky,
All that moves in the field belong to me.
Were I hungry, I would not tell you,
For I own the world and all it holds.

Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
Pay your sacrifice of thanksgiving to God
And render him your votive offerings.

Call on me in the day of distress

I will free you and you shall honour me.

But how can you recite my commandments
And take my covenant on your lips.

You who despise my law

And throw my words to the winds.

You who see a thief and go with him;

Who throw in your lot with adulterers.

who unbridle your mouth for evil

And whose tongue is plotting crime.

You who sit and malign your brother

And slander your own mother's son.

You do this, and should I keep silence?

Do you think that I am like you?

Mark this, you who never think of God,

Lest I seize you and you cannot escape.

A sacrifice of thanksgiving honours me

And I will show God's salvation to the upright.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who replaced every other sacrifice with his own sacrifice

Psalm 51

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.

In your compassion blot out my offence.

(Ant.) O merciful One,

cleanse us with the hyssop of your mercy.

O wash me more and more from my guilt

And cleanse me from my sin.

My offences truly I know them;
My sin is always before me.
Against you, you alone, have I sinned;
What is evil in your sight I have done.
That you may be justified when you give sentence and be without reproach when you judge.
O see, in guilt I was born,
A sinner was I conceived.
Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.
O Purify me, then I shall be clean;
O Wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.
Make me hear rejoicing and gladness,
That the bones you have crushed may thrill.
From my sins turn away your face
And blot out all my guilt.
A pure heart create for me, O God,
Put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
Nor deprive me of your holy spirit.
Give me again the joy of your help;
With a spirit of fervour sustain me.
That I may teach transgressors your way
And sinners may return to you.
O rescue me, God, my helper,
And my tongue shall ring out your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips
And my mouth shall declare your praise.
For in sacrifice you take no delight,
Burnt offerings from me you would refuse.
My sacrifice, a contrite spirit.
A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.
In your goodness, show favour to Zion:
Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
Then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

(Ant.) O merciful One, cleanse us with the hyssop of your mercy.

Psalm 52

Why do you boast of your wickedness,
You champion of evil
Planning ruin all the day long,
You master of deceit?

(Ant.) Blessed is he who raises the lowly and humbles the proud!

You love evil more than good;
Lies more than truth.

You love the destructive word,
You tongue of deceit.

For this God will destroy you
And remove you for ever.

He will snatch you from your tent and Uproot you from the land of the living.
The just shall see and fear.
They shall laugh and say.

So this is the man who refused
To take God as his stronghold.
But trusted in the greatness of his wealth
And grew powerful by his crimes.

But I am like a growing olive tree
In the house of God.

I trust in the goodness of God
For ever and ever.

I will thank you for evermore;
For this is your doing.
I will proclaim that your name is good,
In the presence of your friends.

*(Ant.) Blessed is he who raises the lowly
and humbles the proud!*

Marmitha 20

Psalm 53

The fool has said in his heart:
There is no God above.
Their deeds are corrupt, depraved;
Not a good man is left.

(Ant.) Save your Church, O Omniscient One!

God looks down from heaven
On the sons of men,
To see if any are wise,
If any seek God.

All have left the right path;
Depraved, every one.

There is not a good man left,
No, not even one.

Will the evil doers not understand?

They eat up my people.
As though they were eating bread;
They never pray to God.

See how they tremble with fear
Without cause for fear.

For God scatters the bones of the wicked.
They are shamed, God rejects them.

O that Israel's salvation might come from Zion!
When God delivers his people from bondage,
Then Jacob will be glad and Israel rejoice.

(Ant.) Save your Church, O Omniscient One!

Psalm 54

O God, save me by your name;
By your power, uphold my cause.

(Ant.) You alone are my real hope!

O God, hear my prayer;
Listen to the words of my mouth.
For proud men have risen against me,
Ruthless men seek my life.
They have no regard for God.
But I have God for my help.
The Lord upholds my life.
Let the evil recoil upon my foes:
You who are faithful, destroy them.
I will sacrifice to you with willing heart
And praise your name for it is good:
For you have rescued me from all my distress
And my eyes have seen the downfall of my foes.
(Ant.) You alone are my real hope!

Psalm 55

O God, listen to my prayer,
Do not hide from my pleading,
(Ant.) I entrust my judgement to you!
Attend to me and reply;
With my cares, I cannot rest.
I tremble at the shouts of the foe,
At the cries of the wicked;
For they bring down evil upon me
They assail me with fury.

My heart is stricken within me,
Death's terror is on me.
Trembling and fear fall upon me
And horror overwhelms me.

O that I had wings like a dove
To fly away and be at rest.
So I would escape far away
And take refuge in the desert.

I would hasten to find a shelter
From the raging wind.
From the destructive storm, O Lord,
And from their plotting tongues.

For I can see nothing but violence
And strife in the city.
Night and day they patrol
High on the city walls.

It is full of wickedness and evil;
It is full of sin.

Its street are never free
From tyranny and deceit.

If this had been done by an enemy
I could bear his taunts.
If a rival had risen against me,
I could hide from him.

But it is you, my own companion,
My intimate friend!

We walked together in harmony

In the house of God.

May death fall suddenly upon them!

Let them go to the grave.

For wickedness dwells in their homes

And deep in their hearts.

As for me, I will cry to God

And the Lord will save me.

Evening, morning and at noon

I will cry and lament.

He will deliver my soul in peace

In the attack against me.

For those who fight me are many,

But he hears my voice.

God will hear and will humble them,

The eternal judge.

For they will not amend their ways.

They have no fear of God.

The traitor has turned against his friends;

He has broken his word.

His speech is softer than butter,

But war is in his heart.

His words are smoother than oil,

But they are naked swords.

Entrust your cares to the Lord

And he will support you.

He will never allow the just man to stumble.
But you, O God, will bring them down to the pit of death.

Deceitful and bloodthirsty men
Shall not live half their days
O Lord, I will trust in you.

(Ant.) I entrust my judgement to you!

Marmitha 21

Psalm 56

Have mercy on me, God, men crush me;
They fight me all day long and oppress me.

(Ant.) Do not forsake me, Lord, for I am beset by the snares of the deceitful!

My foes crush me all the day long,
For many fight proudly against me.

When I fear, I will trust in you,
In God whose word I praise.
In God I trust, I shall not fear:
What can mortal man do to me?

All day long they distort my words,
All their thought is to harm me.
They band together in ambush,
Track me down and seek my life.

Repay them, God, for their crimes;
In your anger, cast down the peoples.
You have kept an account of my wanderings;
You have kept a record of my tears.
Then my foes will be put to flight
On the day that I call to you.
This I know, that God is on my side.
In God, whose word I praise,
In God I trust; I shall not fear.
What can mortal man do to me?
I am bound by the vows I have made you.
O God, I will offer you praise
For you rescued my soul from death.
You kept my feet from stumbling
That I may walk in the presence of God
And enjoy the light of the living.
(Ant.) Do not forsake me, Lord,
for I am beset by the snares of the deceitful!

Psalm 57

Have mercy on me, God, have mercy
For in you my soul has taken refuge.
In the shadow of your wings I take refuge
Till the storms of destruction pass by.
(Ant.) Protect me from the annoyance of men,
O Lord my God!

I call to God the Most High,
To God who has always been my help.
May he send from heaven and save me
And shame those who assail me.

May God send his truth and his love.
My soul lies down among the lions,
Who would devour the sons of men.
Their teeth are spears and arrows,
Their tongue a sharpened sword.

O God, arise above the heavens;
May your glory shine on earth!
They laid a snare for my steps,
My soul was bowed down.

They dug a pit in my path
But fell in it themselves.

My heart is ready, O God,
My heart is ready.

I will sing, I will sing your praise.
Awake my soul.

Awake lyre and harp,
I will awake the dawn.

I will thank you Lord among the peoples,
Among the nations I will praise you.
For your love reaches to the heavens
And your truth to the skies.

O God, arise above the heavens;
May your glory shine on earth.

*(Ant.) Protect me from the annoyance of men,
O Lord my God!*

Psalm 58

Do you truly speak justice, you who hold divine power?

Do you mete out fair judgement to the sons of men?

*(Ant.) The Lord will protect the just,
and will scatter the evildoers!*

No, in your hearts you devise injustice;

Your hands deal out violence to the land.

In their wickedness they have gone astray
from their birth:

They wandered among lies as soon as they were born.

Their venom is like the venom of the snake;

They are heedless as the adder that turns a deaf ear.

Lest it should catch the snake charmer's voice,

The voice of the skilful dealer in spells.

O God, break the teeth in their mouths,

Tear out the fangs of these wild beasts, O Lord!

Let them vanish like water that runs away:

Let them wither like grass that is trodden underfoot.

Let them be like the snail that dissolves into slime:
Like a woman's miscarriage that neversees the sun.

Before they put forth thorns, like a bramble,
Let them be swept away, green wood or dry!
The just shall rejoice at the sight of vengeance;
They shall bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.

Truly, men shall say, the just are rewarded.

Truly, there is a God who does justice on earth.

*(Ant.) The Lord will protect the just,
and will scatter the evildoers!*

Marmitha 22

Psalm 59

Rescue me, God, from my foes;
Protect me from those who attack me.

*(Ant.) Lord my God, come to my aid,
for; the wicked persecute and insult me.*

O rescue me from those who do evil
And save me from blood thirsty men.

See, they lie in wait for my life;

Powerful men band together against me.

For no offence, no sin of mine, Lord,

For no guilt of mine they rush to take their stand.

Awake, come to my aid and see!

Lord of hosts, you are Israel's God.

Rouse yourself and punish the nations;
Show no mercy to evil traitors.

Each evening they come back like dogs.

They howl and roam about the city.

They prowl in search of food,

They snarl till they have their fill.

See how they gabble open mouthed;

Their lips are filled with insults.

For who, they say, will hear us?

But you, Lord, will laugh them to scorn.

You make light of all the nations.

O my Strength, it is you to whom I turn,

For you, O God, are my stronghold,

the God Who shows me love.

O God, come to my aid

And let me look in triumph on my foes.

God, kill them lest my people be seduced;

Rout them by your power, lay them low.

It is you, O Lord, who are our shield.

For the sins of their mouths and their lips.

For the curses and lies that they speak

Let them be caught in their pride.

Destroy them, Lord, in your anger.

Destroy them till they are no more.

Let men know that God is the ruler

Over Jacob and the ends of the earth.

Each evening they come back like dogs.

They howl and roam about the city.

They prowl in search of food,

They snarl till they have their fill.

As for me, I will sing of your strength

And each morning acclaim your love.

For you have been my stronghold,

A refuge in the day of my distress.

O my Strength, it is you to whom I turn,

For you, O God, are my stronghold,

The God who shows me love.

*(Ant.) Lord my God, come to my aid,
for, the wicked persecute and insult me.*

Psalm 60

O God, you have rejected us and broken us

You have been angry; come back to us.

*(Ant.) O Christ, save your worshippers
according to your promise!*

You have made the earth quake, torn it open

Repair what is shattered for it sways.

You have inflicted hardships on your people

And made us drink a wine that dazed us.

You have given those who fear you a signal

To flee from the enemy's bow.

O come and deliver your friends,
Help with your right hand and reply.
From his holy place God has made this promise:
I will triumph and divide the land of Shechem,
I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine and Manasseh,
Ephraim I take for my helmet.
Judah for my commander's staff.
Moab I will use for my washbowl;
On Edom I will plant my shoe.

Over the Philistines ;
I will shout in triumph.
But who will lead me to conquer the fortress?
Who will bring me face to face with Edom?

Will you utterly reject us, O God,
And no longer march with our armies?
Give us help against the foe:
For the help of man is vain.

With God we shall do bravely
And he will trample down our foes.

*(Ant.) O Christ, save your worshippers
according to your promise!*

Psalms 61

O God, hear my cry!

Listen to my prayer!

*(Ant.) O Lord, you are present everywhere,
listen to our prayer!*

From the end of the earth I call:

My heart is faint.

On the rock too high for me to reach

Set me on high.

O you who have been my refuge,

My tower against the foe.

Let me dwell in your tent for ever

And hide in the shelter of your wings.

For you, O God, hear my prayer

Grant me the heritage of those who fear you.

May you lengthen the life of the king:

May his years cover many generations.

May he ever sit enthroned before God:

Bid love and truth be his protection.

So I will always praise your name

And day after day fulfil my vows.

*(Ant.) O Lord, you are present everywhere
listen to our prayer!*

Marmitha 23Psalms 62

In God alone is my soul at rest;
My help comes from him.

*(Ant.) I submit myself to God,
for my hope lies in him alone!*

He alone is my rock, my stronghold,
My fortress: I stand firm.

How long will you all attack one man
To break him down.

As though he were a tottering wall,
Or a tumbling fence?

Their plan is only to destroy:

They take pleasure in lies.

With their mouth they utter blessing
But in their heart they curse.

In God alone be at rest, my soul;

For my hope comes from him.

He alone is my rock, my stronghold,
My fortress: I stand firm.

In God is my safety and glory,

The rock of my strength.

Take refuge in God all you people.
Trust him at all times.

Pour out your hearts before him

For God is our refuge.

Common folk are only a breath,
Great men an illusion.

Placed in the scales, they rise;
They weigh less than a breath.

Do not put your trust in oppression
Nor vain hopes on plunder.

Do not set your heart on riches
Even when they increase.

For God has said only one thing:
Only two do I know.

That to God alone belongs power
And to you, Lord, love.

And that you repay each man
According to his deeds.

*(Ant.) I submit myself to God,
for my hope lies in him alone!*

Psalm 63

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
For you my soul is thirsting.

(Ant.) O merciful one, take pity on me with mercy more sublime than life!

My body pines for you

Like a dry, weary land without water.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary

To see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life,
My lips will speak your praise.

So I will bless you all my life,

In your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,

My mouth shall praise you with joy.

On my bed I remember you.

On you I muse through the night.

For you have been my help;

In the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

My soul clings to you;

Your right hand holds me fast.

Those who seek to destroy my life

Shall go down to the depths of the earth.

They shall be put into the power of the sword

And left as the prey of the jackals.

But the king shall rejoice in God;

For the mouth of liars shall be silenced.

(Ant.) O merciful one, take pity on me with mercy more sublime than life!

Psalm 64

Hear my voice, O God, as I complain,
Guard my life from dread of the foe.

(Ant.) O Lord my God, preserve me from the wickedness of the deceitful.

Hide me from the band of the wicked,
From the throng of those who do evil.

They sharpen their tongues like swords;
They aim bitter words like arrows to shoot at
The innocent from ambush, shooting suddenly and recklessly.

They scheme their evil course;
They conspire to lay secret snares.

They say: Who will see us?

Who can search out our crimes?

He will search who searches the mind
And knows the depths of the heart.

God has shot them with his arrow
And dealt them sudden wounds.

Their own tongue has brought them to Ruin and all those who see them mock.

Then will all men fear;

They will tell what God has done.

They will understand God's deeds.

The just will rejoice in the Lord.

And fly to him for refuge.

All the upright hearts will glory.

*(Ant.) O Lord my God, preserve me
from the wickedness of the deceitful.*

Marmitha 24Psalm 65

To you our praise is due in Zion, O God.

To you we pay our vows,

You who hear our prayer.

(Ant.) Christ our Redeemer, we do not advance with our efforts, since we are guided by your power and wisdom!

To you all flesh will come

With its burden of sin.

Too heavy for us, our offences,

But you wipe them away.

Blessed is he whom you choose and call

To dwell in your courts.

We are filled with the blessings of your house,

Of your holy temple.

You keep your pledge with wonders,

O God our saviour.

The hope of all the earth

And of far distant isles.

You uphold the mountains with your strength,

You are girded with power.

You still the roaring of the seas,

And the tumult of the peoples.

The ends of the earth stand in awe

At the sight of your wonders.

The lands of sunrise and sunset
You fill with your joy.
Your care for the earth, give it water,
You fill it with riches.
Your river in heaven brims over
To provide its grain.
And thus you provide for the earth;
You drench its furrows.
You level it, soften it with showers,
You bless its growth.
You crown the year with your goodness.
Abundance flows in your steps.
In the pastures of the wilderness it flows.
The hills are guided with joy.
The meadows are covered with flocks,
The valleys are decked with wheat;
They shout for joy, yes, they sing.
(Ant.) Christ our Redeemer, we do not advance with our efforts, since we are guided by your power and wisdom!

Psalm 66

Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
(Ant.) We praise you our Creator, for you protected us with rest at night and awakened us at dawn to see your wonders in the daylight.

O sing to the glory of his name

O render him glorious praise.

Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds!

Because of the greatness of your strength.

Your enemies cringe before you

Before you all the earth shall bow.

Shall sing to you, sing to your name!'

Come and see the works of God.

Tremendous his deeds among men

He turned the sea into dry land.

They passed through the river dry shod

Let our joy then be in him.

He rules for ever by his might

His eyes keep watch over the nations.

Let rebels not rise against him.

O peoples, bless our God.

Let the voice of his praise resound,

Of the God who gave life to our souls

And kept our feet from stumbling.

For you, O God, have tested us,

You have tried us as silver is tried.

You led us, God, into the snare;

You laid a heavy burden on our backs.

You let men ride over our heads;

We went through fire and through water

But then you brought us relief.

Burnt offering I bring to your house;

To you I will pay my vows.

The vows which my lips have uttered,

Which my mouth spoke in my distress.

I will offer burnt offerings of fatlings

With the smoke of burning rams.

I will offer bullocks and goats

Come and hear, all who fear God.

I will tell what he did for my soul:

To him I cried aloud.

With high praise ready on my tongue.

If there had been evil in my heart,

The Lord would not have listened.

But truly God has listened;

He has heeded the voice of my prayer.

Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer

Nor withhold his love from me.

(Ant.) We praise you our Creator, for you protected us with rest at night and awakened us at dawn to see your wonders in the daylight.

Psalm 67

O God, be gracious and bless us

And let your face shed its light upon us.

(Ant.) Christ, the bestower of talents of spiritual wealth to your servants make us your worshippers their beneficiaries always!

So will your ways be known upon earth
And all nations learn your saving help.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and exult

For you rule the world with justice.

With fairness you rule the peoples,

You guide the nations on earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

The earth has yielded its fruit

For God, our God, has blessed us.

May God still give us his blessing

Till the ends of the earth revere him.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

(Ant.) Christ, the bestower of talents of spiritual wealth to your servants make us your worshippers their beneficiaries always!

Marmitha 25

Psalm 68

Let God arise, let his foes be scattered.

Let those who hate him flee before him.

(Ant.) Time is ripe for the destruction of the idols and to worship the One God, the Lord of all!

As smoke is blown away so will they be blown away; like wax that melts before the fire. So the wicked shall perish at the Presence of God.

But the just shall rejoice at the presence of God. They shall exult and dance for joy.
O sing to the Lord, make music to his name.
Make a highway for him who rides on the clouds.
Rejoice in the Lord, exult at his presence.

Father of the orphan, defender of the widow,
Such is God in his holy place.
God gives the lonely a home to live in;
He leads the prisoners forth into freedom:
But rebels must dwell in a parched land.

When you went forth, O God, at the head of your people. When you marched across the desert, the earth trembled:
The heavens melted at the presence of God,
At the presence of God, Israel's God.

You poured down, O God, a generous rain:
When your people were starved you gave them new life.
It was there that your people found a home,
Prepared in your goodness, O God, for the poor.

The Lord gives the word
To the bearers of good tidings.
'The Almighty has defeated a numberless army and kings and armies are in flight, in flight while you were at rest among the sheepfolds.'
At home the women already share the spoil.
They are covered with silver
As the wings of a dove.
Its feathers brilliant with shining gold
And jewels flashing like snow on Mount Zalmon.
The mountains of Bashan are mighty mountains;
High ridged mountains are
The mountains of Bashan.
Why look with envy, you high ridged mountains,
At the mountain where God has chosen to dwell?
It is there that the Lord shall dwell for ever.
The chariots of God are thousands upon thousands.
The Lord has come from Sinai to the holy place.
You have gone up on high; You have taken captives.
Receiving men in tribute, O God,
Even those who rebel, into your dwelling,
O Lord.
May the Lord be blessed day after day.

He bears our burdens, God our saviour.

This God of ours is a God who saves.

The Lord our God holds the keys of death.
And God will smite the head of his foes,
The crown of those who persist in their sins.

The Lord said: 'I will bring them back from Bashan; I will bring them back from the depth of the sea.
Then your feet will tread in their blood and the tongues of your dogs take their share of the foe.'

They see your solemn procession, O God,
the procession of my God, of my king,
to the sanctuary.
The singers in the forefront,
The musicians coming last,
Between them, maidens
Sounding their timbrels.

'In festive gatherings, bless the Lord;
Bless God, O you who are Israel's sons.'
There is Benjamin, least of the tribes,
at the head.

Judah's princes, a mighty throng,
Zebulun's princes, Napthali's princes.
Show forth, O God, show forth your might,
your might, O God, which you have shown for us.

For the sake of your temple high in Jerusalem.

May kings come to you bringing their tribute.

Threaten the wild beast that dwells in the reeds, the bands of the mighty and lords of the peoples.

Let them bow down offering silver scatter the peoples who delight in war.

Princes will make their way from Egypt:

Ethiopia will stretch out her hands to God.

Kingdoms of the earth, sing to God, praise the Lord who rides on the heavens, the ancient heavens.

He thunders his voice, his mighty voice.

Come, acknowledge the power of God.

His glory is on Israel; His might is in the skies.
God is to be feared in his holy place.

He is the Lord, Israel's God. He gives strength and power to his people.

Blessed be God!

(Ant.) Time is ripe for the destruction of the idols and to worship the One God, the Lord of all!

Marmitha 26Psalm 69

Save me, O God,

For the waters have risen to my neck.

(Ant.) Christ, have mercy on me!

I have sunk into the mud of the deep

And there is no foothold.

I have entered the waters of the deep

And the waves overwhelm me.

I am wearied with all my crying,

My throat is parched.

My eyes are wasted away

From looking for my God.

More numerous than the hairs on my head

Are those who hate me without cause.

Those who attack me with lies

Are too much for my strength.

How can I restore

What I have never stolen?

O God, you know my sinful folly;

My sins you can see.

Let those who hope in you not be put to shame

Through me, Lord of hosts.

Let not those who seek you be dismayed

Through me, God of Israel.

It is for you that I suffer taunts,
That shame covers my face.
That I have become a stranger to my brothers,
An alien to my own mother's sons.
I burn with zeal for your house
And taunts against you fall on me.
When I afflict my soul with fasting
They make it a taunt against me.
When I put a sackcloth in mourning
Then they make me a byword.
The gossip of men at the gates,
The subject of drunkards' songs.
This is my prayer to you,
My prayer for your favour.
In your great love, answer me, O God,
With your help that never fails.
Rescue me from sinking in the mud;
Save me from my foes.
Save me from the waters of the deep
Lest the waves overwhelm me.
Do not let the deep engulf me
Nor death close its mouth on me.
Lord, answer, for your love is kind;
In your compassion, turn towards me.
Do not hide your face from your servant;
Answer quickly for I am in distress.

Come close to my soul and redeem me;
Ransom me pressed by my foes.

You know how they taunt and deride me;
My oppressors are all before you
Taunts have broken my heart.

I have reached the end of my strength
I looked in vain for compassion,
For consolers; not one could I find.

For food they gave me poison;

In my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Let their table be a snare to them
And their festive banquets a trap.

Let their eyes grow dim and blind;

Let their limbs tremble and shake.

Pour out your anger upon them,
Let the heat of your fury overtake them.

Let their camp be left desolate;

Let no one dwell in their tents.

For they persecute one whom you struck;
They increase the pain of him you wounded.

Charge them with guilt upon guilt;

Let them never be found just in your sight.

Blot them out from the book of the living;
Do not enrol them among the just.

As for me in my poverty and pain

Let your help, O God, lift me up.

I will praise God's name with a song;

I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

A gift pleasing God more than oxen,

More than beasts prepared for sacrifice.

The poor when they see it will be glad

And God seeking hearts will revive.

For the Lord listens to the needy

And does not spurn his servants in their chains.

Let the heavens and the earth give him praise,

The sea and all its living creatures.

For God will bring help to Zion

And rebuild the cities of Judah

And men shall dwell there in possession.

The sons of his servants shall inherit it;

Those who love his name shall dwell there.

(Ant.) Christ, have mercy on me!

Psalm 70

O God, make haste to my rescue,

Lord, come to my aid!

(Ant.) Lord my God, come to my assistance!

Let there be shame and confusion

On those who seek my life.

Let there be shame and confusion

On those who seek my life.

O let them turn back in confusion,
Who delight in my harm.

Let them retreat, covered with shame,
Who jeer at my lot.

Let there be rejoicing and gladness
For all who seek you.

Let them say for ever: 'God is great,'
Who love your saving help.

As for me, wretched and poor,
Come to me, O God.

You are my rescuer, my help,
O Lord, do not delay.

(Ant.) Lord my God, come to my assistance!

Marmitha 27

Psalm 71

In you, O Lord, I take refuge;
Let me never be put to shame.

(Ant.) Brethren, take refuge in prayer, the powerful weapon,

to conquer Satan the archenemy of our race!

In your justice rescue me, free me:

Pay heed to me and save me.

Be a rock where I can take refuge,

A mighty stronghold to save me;

For you are my rock, my stronghold.

Free me from the hand of the wicked,
From the grip of the unjust, of the oppressor.

It is you, O Lord, who are my hope,

My trust, O Lord, since my youth.

On you I have leaned from my birth,
From my mother's womb you have been my help.

My hope has always been in you.

My fate has filled many with awe

But you are my strong refuge.

My lips are filled with your praise,

With your glory all the day long.

Do not reject me now that I am old;

When my strength fails do not forsake me.

For my enemies are speaking about me;

Those who watch me take counsel together

Saying: 'God has forsaken him; follow him,

Seize him; there is no one to save him.'

O God, do not stay far off:

My God, make haste to help me!

Let them be put to shame and destroyed,

All those who seek my life.

Let them be covered with shame and confusion,

All those who seek to harm me.

But as for me, I will always hope

And praise you more and more.

My lips will tell of your justice

And day by day of your help.

I will declare the Lord's mighty deeds
Proclaiming your justice, yours alone.
O God, you have taught me from my youth
And I proclaim your wonders still.

Now that I am old and grey-headed,
Do not forsake me, God.

Let me tell of your power to all ages,
Praise your strength and justice to the skies.

Tell of you who have worked such wonders.

O God, who is like you?

You have burdened me with bitter troubles
But you will give me back my life.

You will raise me from the depths of the earth;

You will exalt me and console me again.

So I will give you thanks on the lyre
For your faithful love, my God.

To you will I sing with the harp

To you, the holy One of Israel.

When I sing to you my lips shall rejoice
And my soul, which you have redeemed.

And all the day long my tongue

Shall tell the tale of your justice.

For they are put to shame and disgraced,
All those who seek to harm me.

(Ant.) Brethren, take refuge in prayer, the powerful weapon, to conquer Satan the archenemy of our race!

Psalm 72

O God, give your judgement to the king,
To a king's son your justice,
*(Ant.) The grace of God has been poured down from heaven on the arrival of Christ
the Redeemer of every creature.*
That he may judge your people in justice
And your poor in right judgement.
May the mountains bring forth peace for the People and the hills, justice.
May he defend the poor of the people
And save the children of the needy.
He shall endure like the sun and the moon
from age to age.
He shall descend like rain on the meadow,
Like raindrops on the earth.
In his days justice shall flourish
And peace till the moon fails.
He shall rule from sea to sea,
from the Great River to earth's bounds.
Before his enemies shall fall, his foes lick
the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and the sea coasts
Shall pay him tribute.

The kings of Sheba and Seba
Shall bring him gifts.

Before him all kings shall fall prostrate,
All nations shall serve him.

For he shall save the poor when they cry
And the needy who are helpless.

He will have pity on the weak
And save the lives of the poor.

From compassion he will rescue their lives,
To him their blood is dear.

They shall pray for him without ceasing
And bless him all the day.

May corn be abundant in the land
To the peaks of the mountains.

May its fruit rustle like Lebanon;
May men flourish in the cities
Like grass on the earth.

May his name be blessed for ever
And endure like the sun.

Every tribe shall be blessed in him,
All nations bless his name.

Blessed be the Lord, God of Israel,
Who alone works wonders.

Ever blessed his glorious name.
Let his glory fill the earth.

(Ant.) The grace of God has been poured down from heaven on the arrival of Christ the Redeemer of every creature.

Marmitha 28

Psalm 73

How good God is to Israel,
To those who are pure of heart.

*(Ant.) Lord our God, you are forgiving,
but your punishment is certain!*

Yet my feet came close to stumbling,
My steps had almost slipped.

For I was filled with envy of the proud
When I saw how the wicked prosper.

For them there are no pains;
Their bodies are sound and sleek.

They have no share in men's sorrows;
They are not stricken like others.

So they wear their pride like a necklace,
They clothe themselves with violence.

Their hearts overflow with malice,
Their minds seethe with plots.

They scoff; they speak with malice;
From on high they plan oppression.

They have set their mouths in the heavens
And their tongues dictate to the earth.

So the people turn to follow them
And drink in all their words.

They say: How can God know?

Does the Most High take any notice?

Look at them, such are the wicked,
But untroubled, they grow in wealth.

How useless to keep my heart pure

And wash my hands in innocence.

When I was stricken all day long,
Suffered punishment day after day.

Then I said: 'If I should speak like that,

I should betray the race of your sons.'

I strove to fathom this problem,

Too hard for my mind to understand.

Until I pierced the mysteries of God

And understood what becomes of the wicked.

How slippery the paths on which you set them;

You make them slide to destruction.

How suddenly they come to their ruin,

Wiped out, destroyed by terrors.

Like a dream one wakes from, O Lord,

When you wake you dismiss them as phantoms.

And so when my heart grew embittered

And when I was cut to the quick.

I was stupid and did not understand,

No better than a beast in your sight.

Yet I was always in your presence;
You were holding me by my right hand.
You will guide me by your counsel
And so you will lead me to glory.
What else have I in heaven but you?
Apart from you I want nothing on earth.
My body and my heart faint for joy;
God is my possession for ever.
All those who abandon you shall perish;
You will destroy all those who are faithless.
To be near God is my happiness.
I have made the Lord God my refuge.
I will tell of all your works
At the gates of the city of Zion.
*(Ant.) Lord our God, you are forgiving,
but your punishment is certain!*

Psalm 74

Why, O God, have you cast us off for ever?
Why blaze with anger at the sheep of you pasture?

*(Ant.) Lord of all, to whom everything stands revealed,
do not abandon your worshippers!*

Remember your people whom you chose long ago,
The tribe you redeemed to be your own procession.

The mountain of Zion
where you made your dwelling.
Turn your steps to these places that are utterly ruined!

The enemy has laid waste
the whole of the sanctuary.

Your foes have made uproar
in your house of prayer.
They have set up their emblems,
their foreign emblems,
high above the entrance to the sanctuary.

Their axes have battered the wood of its doors
They have stuck together with hatchet and pickaxe.

O God, they have set your sanctuary on fire:
They have razed and profaned
The place where you dwell

They said in their hearts:

‘Let us utterly crush them:

let us burn every shrine of God in the land.’

There is no sign from God,
nor have we a prophet,
we have no one to tell us how long it will last.

How long, O God, is the enemy to scoff?

Is the foe to insult your name for ever?

Why, O Lord, do you hold back your hand?

Why do you keep your right hand hidden?

Yet God is our king from time past,

The giver of help through all the land

It was you who divided the sea

By your might.

Who shattered the heads

Of the monsters in the sea.

It was you who crushed Leviathan's heads

And gave him as food to the untamed beast.

It was you who opened springs and torrents;

It was you who dried up ever flowing rivers.

Yours is the day and yours is the night.

It was you who appointed the light and sun.

It was you who fixed the bounds of the earth:

You who made both summer and winter.

Remember this, Lord, and see the enemy
coffing;

A senseless people insults your name.

Do not give Israel, your dove, to the hawk

Nor forget the life of your poor ones for ever.

Remember your covenant;

Every cave in the land is a place .

Where violence makes its home
Do not let the oppressed return disappointed;
Let the poor and the needy bless your name.
 Arise, O God, and defend your cause!
 Remember how the senseless revile you all the day.
Do not forget the clamour of your foes,
The daily increasing uproar of your foes.
 *(Ant.) Lord of all, to whom everything
 stands revealed,
 do not abandon your worshippers!*

Marmitha 29

Psalm 75

We give thanks to you, O God,
We give thanks and call upon your name.
We recount your wonderful deeds.
 *(Ant.) Praise is fitting to our Lord,
 for he guides everything!*
When I reach the appointed time,
Then I will judge with justice.
 Though the earth and all who dwell in it may rock,
 It is I who uphold its pillars.
I say to the boastful: 'Do not boast,'
To the wicked: 'Do not flaunt your strength.'

Do not flaunt your strength on high.
Do not speak with insolent pride.
For neither from the East nor from the West,
Nor from desert or mountains comes judgement,
But God himself is the judge.
One he humbles, another he exalts.
The Lord holds a cup in his hand,
Full of wine, foaming and spiced.
He pours it; they drink it to the dregs:
All the wicked on the earth must drain it.
As for me, I will rejoice for ever
And sing psalms to Jacob's God.
He shall break the power of the wicked,
While the strength of the just shall be exalted.
*(Ant.) Praise is fitting to our Lord,
for he guides everything!*

Psalm 76

God is made known in Judah;
In Israel his name is great.
*(Ant.) Glory to you forever,
O King of every creature!*
He set up his tent in Jerusalem
And his dwelling place in Zion.
It was there he broke the flashing arrows,
The shield, the sword, the armour.

You, Lord, are resplendent,
More majestic than the everlasting mountains.

The warriors, despoiled, slept in death;

The hands of the soldiers were powerless.

At your threat, O God of Jacob,

Horse and rider lay stunned.

You, you alone, strike terror.

Who shall stand when your anger is roused?

You uttered your sentence from the heavens;

The earth in terror was still.

When God arose to judge,

To save the humble of the earth.

Men's anger will serve to praise you;

Its survivors surround you in joy.

Make vows to your God and fulfil them.

Let all pay tribute to him who strikes terror.

Who cuts short the breath of princes,

Who strikes terror in the kings of the earth.

(Ant.) Glory to you forever,

O King of every creature!

Psalm 77

I cry aloud to God,

Cry aloud to God that he may hear me.

(Ant.) Lord of all, to whom everything has been revealed, preserve your worshippers!

In the day of my distress I sought the Lord
My hands were raised at night without ceasing;
My soul refused to be consoled.

I remembered my God and I groaned

I pondered and my spirit fainted.

You withheld sleep from my eyes.

I was troubled, I could not speak.

I thought of the days of long ago

And remembered the years long past.

At night I mused within my heart

I pondered and my spirit questioned.

Will the Lord reject us for ever?

Will he show us his favour no more?

Has his love vanished for ever?

Has his promise come to an end?

Does God forget his mercy

Or in anger withhold his compassion?

I said: 'This is what causes my grief;

That the way of the Most High has changed.'

I remember the deeds of the Lord,

I remember your wonders of old.

I muse on all your works

And ponder your mighty deeds.

Your ways, O God, are holy.

What god is great as our God?

You are the God who works wonders

You showed your power among the peoples.

Your strong arm redeemed your people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph.
The waters saw you, O God,
The waters saw you and trembled;
The depths were moved with terror.
The clouds poured down rain,
The skies sent forth their voice;
Your arrows flashed to and fro.
Your thunder rolled round the sky,
Your flashes lighted up the world.

The earth was moved and trembled
When your way led through the sea.
Your path through the mighty waters
And no one saw your footprints.

You guided your people like a flock
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.
(Ant.) Lord of all, to whom everything has been revealed, preserve your worshippers!

Marmitha 30

Psalm 78

Give heed, my people to my teaching;
Turn your ear to the words of my mouth.
(Ant.) Adorable is Christ, who suffered the cruelties from his own people to save us from our sins!

I will open my mouth in a parable

And reveal hidden lessons of the past.

The things we have heard and understood,

The things our fathers have told us.

These we will not hide from their children

But will tell them to the next generation.

The glories of the Lord and his might

And the marvellous deeds he has done.

The witness he gave to Jacob,

The law he established in Israel.

He gave a command to our fathers

To make it known to their children.

That the next generation might know it,

The children yet to be born.

They too should arise and tell their sons

That they too should set their hope in God.

And never forget God's deeds

But keep every one of his commands.

So that they might not be like their fathers,

A defiant and rebellious race.

A race whose heart was fickle,

Whose spirit was unfaithful to God.

The sons of Ephraim, armed with the bow,

Turned back in the day of battle.

They failed to keep God's covenant

And would not walk according to his law.

They forgot the things he had done,
The marvellous deeds he had shown them.
He did wonders in the sight of their fathers,
In Egypt, in the plains of Zoan.
He divided the sea and led them through
And made the waters stand up like a wall.
By day he led them with a cloud:
By night, with a light of fire.
He split the rocks in the desert
He gave them plentiful drink as from the deep.
He made streams flow out from the rock
And made waters run down like rivers.
Yet still they sinned against him;
They defied the Most High in the desert.
In their heart they put God to the test
By demanding the food they craved.
They even spoke against God.
They said: 'Is it possible for God.
To prepare a table in the desert?
It was he who struck the rock.
Water flowed and swept down in torrents.
But can he also give us bread?
Can he provide meat for his people?'
When he heard this the Lord was angry.
A fire was kindled against Jacob,
His anger rose against Israel.

For having no faith in God;

For refusing to trust in his help.

Yet he commanded the clouds above

And opened the gates of heaven.

He rained down manna for their food,

And gave them bread from heaven.

Mere men ate the bread of angels

He sent them abundance of food.

He made the east wind blow from heaven

And roused the south wind by his might.

He rained food on them like dust,

Winged fowl like the sands of the sea.

He let it fall in the midst of their camp

And all around their tents.

So they ate and had their fill;

For he gave them all they craved.

But before they had sated their craving,

While the food was still in their mouths,

God's anger rose against them.

He slew the strongest among them,

Struck down the flower of Israel.

Despite this they went on sinning;

They had no faith in his wonders.

So he ended their days like a breath

And their years in sudden ruin.

When he slew them then they would seek him,

Return and seek him in earnest.

They would remember that God was their rock,
God the most high their redeemer.
But the words they spoke were mere flattery;
They lied to him with their lips.
For their hearts were not truly with him;
They were not faithful to his covenant.
Yet he who is full of compassion
Forgave their sin and spared them.
So often he held back his anger
When he might have stirred up his rage.
He remembered they were only men,
A breath that passes never to return.
How often they defied him in the wilderness
And caused him pain in the desert!
Yet again they put God to the test
And grieved the Holy One of Israel.
They did not remember his deeds
Nor the day he saved them from the foe.
When he worked his miracles in Egypt,
His wonders in the plains of Zoan.
When he turned their rivers into blood,
And made their streams impossible to drink.
He sent dog flies against them to devour them
And swarms of frogs to molest them.
He gave their crops to the grub,
The fruit of their labour to the locust.

He destroyed their vines with hail,
Their sycamore trees with frost.

He gave up their cattle to plague,
Their flocks and herds to pestilence.
He turned on them the heat of his anger,
Fury, rage and havoc.

A troop of destroying angels.

He gave free course to his anger.
He did not spare them from death
But gave their lives to the plague.
He struck all the first born in Egypt,
The finest flower in the dwellings of Ham.

Then he brought forth his people like sheep;
He guided his flock in the desert.
He led them safely to nothing to fear,
While the sea engulfed their foes.

So he brought them to his holy land,
To the mountain which with his right hand had won.

He drove out the nations before them,
And divided the land for their heritage.

Their tents he gave as a dwelling
To each one of Israel's tribes.
Still they put God to the proof and defied him;
They refused to obey the Most High.
They strayed, as faithless as their fathers,
Like a bow on which the archer cannot count.

With their mountain shrines they angered him;
Made him jealous with the idols they served.

God saw and was filled with fury:

He utterly rejected Israel.

He forsook his dwelling place in Shiloh,
The tent where he lived among men.

He gave his ark into captivity,

His glorious ark into the hands of the foe.

He gave up his people to the sword,
In his anger against his chosen ones.

So war devoured their young men,

Their maidens had no wedding songs.

Their priests fell by the sword

And their widows made no lament.

Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep,

Like a warrior overcome with wine.

He struck his foes from behind

And put them to everlasting shame.

He rejected the tent of Joseph;

He did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

But he chose the tribe of Judah,

The hill of Zion which he loves.

He built his shrine like the heavens,

Or like the earth which he made firm forever.

And he chose David his servant

And took him away from the sheepfolds.

From the care of the ewes he called him
To be shepherd of Jacob his people,
Of Israel his own procession.

He tended them with blameless heart,
With discerning mind he led them.

(Ant.) Adorable is Christ, who suffered the cruelties from his own people to save us from our sins!

Marmitha 31

Psalm 79

O God, the nations have invaded your land,
They have profaned your holy temple.

(Ant.) Our persecutors gained control over us because we sinned; they desecrated your holy place. Have mercy on us, O merciful One!

They have made Jerusalem a heap of ruins.
They have handed over the bodies of your servants as food to feed the birds of heaven
And the flesh of your faithful to the beasts of the earth.

They have poured out blood like water in Jerusalem,

No one is left to bury the dead.

We have become the taunt of our neighbours,
The mockery and scorn of those who surround us.

How long, O Lord? Will you be angry for ever,
How long will your anger burn like fire?

Pour out your rage on the nations,
The nations that do not know you.

Pour out your rage on the kingdoms
That do not call on your name.

For they have devoured Jacob

And laid waste the land where he dwells.

Do not hold the guilt of our fathers against us.

Let your compassion hasten to meet us

We are left in the depths of distress.

O God our saviour, come to our help,

Come for the sake of the glory of your name.

O Lord our God, forgive us our sins;

Rescue us for the sake of your name.

Why should the nations say: Where is their God?

Let us see the nations around us repaid

With vengeance for the blood of your Servants that was shed!

Let the groans of the prisoners come before you; Let your strong arm relieve those condemned to die.

Pay back your neighbours seven times over the taunts with which they taunted you, O Lord.

But we, your people, the flock of your pasture,
Will give you thanks forever and ever.

We will tell your praise from age to age.

(Ant.) Our persecutors gained control over us because we sinned; they desecrated your holy place. Have mercy on us, O merciful One!

Psalm 80

O shepherd of Israel, hear us,
you who lead Joseph's flock,
Shine forth from your cherubim throne
Upon Ephraim, Benjamin, Manasseh.

(Ant.) O Omniscient One, save your Church, as you protected our fathers in their enerations!

O Lord, rouse up your might,
O Lord, come to our help.

Lord God of hosts, how long
Will you frown on your people's plea?
You have fed them with tears for their bread,
An abundance of tears for their drink.

You have made us the taunt of our neighbours,
Our enemies laugh us to scorn.
God of hosts, bring us back;
Let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
To plant it you drove out the nations.
Before it you cleared the ground;
It took root and spread through the land.

The mountains were covered with its shadow,
The cedars of God with its boughs.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
To the Great River it stretched out its shoots.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
Devoured by the beasts of the field.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore,
Look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
The vine your right hand has planted.

Men have burnt it with fire and destroyed it.
May they perish at the frown of your face.
May your hand be on the man you have chosen,
The man you have given your strength.

And we shall never forsake you again:
Give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back;
Let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

(Ant.) O Omniscient One, save your Church, as you protected our fathers in their generations!

Psalm 81

Ring out your joy to God our strength,
Shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.

(Ant.) Blessed is the Lord, who helps those who keep his commandments and destroys instantly those who hate him!

Raise a song and sound the timbrel,
The sweet sounding harp and the lute.

Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
When the moon is full, on our feast.

For this is Israel's law,

A command of the God of Jacob.

He imposed it as a rule on Joseph,

When he went out against the land of Egypt.

A voice I did not know said to me:

I freed your shoulder from the burden.

Your hands were freed from the load.'

You called in distress and I saved you.

I answered, concealed in the storm cloud,

At the waters of Meribah I tested you.

Listen, my people, to my warning,

O Israel, if only you would heed!

Let there be no foreign god among you,

No worship of an alien god.

I am the Lord your God,

Who brought you from the land of Egypt.

Open wide your mouth and I will fill it.
But my people did not heed my voice.
And Israel would not obey,
So I left them in their stubbornness of heart
To follow their own designs.
O that my people would heed me,
The Israel would walk in my ways!
At once I would subdue their foes,
Turn my hand against their enemies.
The Lord's enemies would cringe at their feet
And their subjection would last for ever.
But Israel I would feed with finest wheat
And fill them with honey from the rock.
(Ant.) Blessed is the Lord, who helps those who keep his commandments and destroys instantly those who hate him!

Marmitha 32

Psalm 82

God stands in the divine assembly.
In the midst of the gods he gives judgement.
(Ant.) Judge fairly, O judges, and stay far off evil!
How long will you judge unjustly
And favour the cause of the wicked?

Do justice for the weak and the orphan,
Defend the afflicted and the needy.
Rescue the weak and the poor;
Set them free from the hand of the wicked.
Unperceiving, they grope in the darkness
And the order of the world is shaken.
I have said to you: You are gods
And all of you, sons of the Most High.
And yet, you shall die like men,
you shall fall like any of the princes.
Arise, O God, judge the earth,
for you rule all the nations.
(Ant.) Judge fairly, O judges, and stay far off evil!

Psalm 83

O God, do not keep silent,
Do not be dumb and unmoved, O God,
*(Ant.) Lord supreme over all,
none to equal you among the creatures!*
For your enemies raise a tumult.
Those who hate you lift up their heads.
They plot against your people,
Conspire against those you love.
They say: Come, let us destroy them as a nation;
Let the name of Israel be forgotten.

They conspire with a single mind,
they make common alliance against you,
The camps of Edom and of Ishmael,
The camps of Moab and Hagar,
The land of Ammon and Amalek,
Philistia, with the people of Tyre.
Assyria too is their ally
And join hands with the sons of Lot.
Treat them like Midian, like Sisera,
Like Jabin at the River Kishon,
The men who were destroyed at Endor,
Whose bodies rotted on the ground.
Make their captains like Oreb and Zeëb,
Al the princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,
The men who said: Let us take the fields of God for ourselves.
My God, scatter them like chaff,
Drive them like straw in the wind!
As fire that burns away the forest,
As the flame that sets the mountains ablaze.
Drive them away with your tempest
And fill them with terror at your storm.
Cover their faces with shame,
Till they seek your name, O Lord.
Shame and terror be theirs for ever,
Let them be disgraced, let them perish!

Let them know that your name is the Lord,
The Most High over all the earth.
*(Ant.) Lord supreme over all,
none there is to equal you among the creatures!*

Psalm 84

How lovely is your dwelling place,
Lord, God of hosts.
(Ant.) O God who sanctifies everything, how praiseworthy and beautiful is your holy place!

My soul is longing and yearning,
Is yearning for the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my soul ring out their joy to God, the living God.

The sparrow herself finds a home
And the swallow a nest for her brood.
She lays her young by your altars,
Lord of hosts, my king and my God.
They are happy, who dwell in your house,
For ever singing your praise.
They are happy, whose strength is in you,
In whose hearts are the roads to Zion.
As they go through the Bitter Valley
They make it a place of springs,
The autumn rain covers it with blessings.

They walk with ever growing strength,
They will see the God of gods in Zion.
O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer,
Give ear, O God of Jacob.

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield,
Look on the face of your anointed.
One day within your courts
Is better than a thousand elsewhere.

The threshold of the house of God
I prefer to the dwellings of the wicked.
For the Lord God is a rampart, a shield;
He will give us his favour and glory.

The Lord will not refuse any good
To those who walk without blame.

Lord, God of hosts,

Happy the man who trusts in you!

(Ant.) O God who sanctifies everything, how praiseworthy and beautiful is your holy place!

Marmitha 33

Psalm 85

O Lord, you once favoured your land
And revived the fortunes of Jacob.

*(Ant.) Lord our God, by the great power of your cross, bestow salvation and assistance
to your worshippers*

You forgave the guilt of your people
And covered all their sins.

You averted all your rage,
You calmed the heat of your anger.
Revive us now, God, our helper!
Put an end to your grievance against us.

Will you be angry with us for ever,
Will your anger never cease?
Will you not restore again our life
That your people may rejoice in you?

Let us see, O Lord, your mercy
And give us your saving help.
I will hear what the Lord God has to say,
A voice that speaks of peace.

Peace for his people and his friends
And those who turn to him in their hearts.
His help is near for those who fear him
And his glory will dwell in our land.

Mercy and faithfulness have met;
Justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth
And justice look down from heaven.

The Lord will make us prosper
And our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before him
And peace shall follow his steps.

*(Ant.) Lord our God, by the great power of your cross, bestow salvation and assistance
to your worshippers*

Psalm 86

Turn your ear, O Lord, and give answer
For I am poor and needy.

(Ant.) Lord Jesus Christ, who loves the repentant, hear our prayers to open door to them!

Preserve my life, for I am faithful:

Save the servant who trusts in you.

You are my God, have mercy on me, Lord,

For I cry to you all the day long.

Give joy to you servant, O Lord,

For to you I lift up my soul.

O Lord, you are good and forgiving,

Full of love to all who call.

Give heed, O Lord, to my prayer

And attend to the sound of my voice.

In the day of distress I will call

And surely you will reply.

Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord;

Nor work to compare with yours.

All the nations shall come to adore you

And glorify your name, O Lord.

For you are great and do marvellous deeds,
you who alone are God.

Show me, Lord, your way

So that I may walk in your truth.

Guide my heart to fear your name.

I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart
And glorify your name for ever.

For your love to me has been great:

You have saved me from the depths of the grave.

The proud have risen against me;

Ruthless men seek my life.

To you they pay no heed.

But you, God of mercy and compassion.

Slow to anger, O Lord,

Abounding in love and truth,

Turn and take pity on me.

O give your strength to your servant

And save your handmaid's son.

Show me a sign of your favour

That my foes may see to their shame

That you console me and give me your help.

(Ant.) Lord Jesus Christ, who loves the repentant, hear our prayers to open door to them!

Marmitha 34Psalm 87

On the holy mountain is his city
Cherished by the Lord.

(Ant.) Worthy of adoration is the creator God who sustains every generation!

The Lord prefers the gates of Zion
To all Jacob's dwellings.

Of you are told glorious things,
O city of God!

'Babylon and Egypt I will count
Among those who know me.

Philistia, Tyre, Ethiopia,
These will be her children.

And Zion shall be called "Mother"
For all shall be her children.'

It is he, the Lord Most High,
Who gives each his place.

In his register of peoples he writes:
These are her children.

And while they dance they will sing:
In you all find their home.

(Ant.) Worthy of adoration is the creator God who sustains every generation!

Psalm 88

Lord my God, I call for help by day;

I cry at night before you.

(Ant.) O merciful One, you alone are our Creator,

take pity on us in your mercy!

Let my prayer come into your presence.

O turn your ear to my cry.

For my soul is filled with evils;

My life is on the brink of the grave.

I am reckoned as one in the tomb:

I have reached the end of my strength,

Like one alone among the dead.

Like the slain lying in their graves;

Like those you remember no more,

Cut off, as they are, from your hand.

You have laid me in the depths of the tomb,

In places that are dark, in the depths.

Your anger weighs down upon me:

I am drowned beneath your waves.

You have taken away my friends

And made me hateful in their sight.

Imprisoned, I cannot escape;

My eyes are sunken with grief.

I call to you, Lord, all the day long;

To you I stretch out my hands.

Will you work your wonders for the dead?
Will the shades stand and praise you?
Will your love be told in the grave
Or your faithfulness among the dead?
Will your wonders be known in the dark
Or your justice in the land of oblivion?
As for me, Lord, I call to you for help:
In the morning my prayer comes before you.
Lord, why do you reject me?
Why do you hide your face?
Wretched, close to death from my youth,
I have borne your trials; I am numb.
Your fury has swept down upon me;
Your terrors have utterly destroyed me.
They surround me all the day like a flood,
They assail me all together.
Friend and neighbour you have taken away:
My one companion is darkness.
(Ant.) O merciful One, you alone are our Creator, take pity on us in your mercy!

Marmitha 35

Psalm 89

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord;
Through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.

(Ant.) Praise be to God, who promised good things to Abraham and David and in our days actualized them in Christ!

Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever,
That your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have sworn to David my servant.
I will establish your dynasty for ever
And set up your throne through all ages.

The heavens proclaim your wonders, O Lord;
The assembly of your holy ones proclaims your truth.

For who in the skies can compare with the Lord
Or who is like the Lord among the sons of God?

A God to be feared in the council of the holy ones,

Great and dreadful to all around him.

O Lord God of hosts, who is your equal?
You are mighty, O Lord, and truth is your garment.

It is you who rule the sea in its pride;

It is you who still the surging of its waves.

It is you who trod Rahab underfoot like a corpse,
Scattering your foes with your mighty arm.

The heavens are yours, the world is yours.

It is you who founded the earth and all it holds.

It is you who created the North and the South.
Tabor and Hermon shout with joy at your name.

Yours is a mighty arm, O Lord;

Your hand is strong, your right hand ready.
Justice and right are the pillars of your throne,
Love and truth walk in your presence.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king,
Who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face,
Who find their joy every day in your name,
Who make your justice the source of their bliss.

For you, O Lord, are the glory of their strength; By your favour it is that our might is exalted.

For our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord;
Our king in the keeping of the Holy
One of Israel.

Of old you spoke in a vision

To you friends the prophets you said:

I have set the crown on a warrior,
I have exalted one chosen from the people.

I have found David my servant

And with my holy oil anointed him.

My hand shall always be with him
And my arm shall make him strong.

The enemy shall never outwit him
Nor the evil man oppress him.
I will beat down his foes before him
And smite those who hate him.

My truth and my love shall be with him;
By my name his might shall be exalted.
I will stretch out his hand to the Sea
And his right hand as far as the River.

He will say to me: 'You are my father,
My God, the rock who saves me'.
And I will make him my first born,
The highest of the kings of the earth.

I will keep my love for him always;
With him my covenant shall last.
I will establish his dynasty for ever,
Make his throne endure as the heavens.

If his sons forsake my law
And refuse to walk as I decree.
And if ever they violate my statutes,
Refusing to keep my commands.

Then I will punish their offences with the rod,
Then I will scourge them on account of their guilt.

But I will never take back my love:
My truth will never fail.

I will never violate my covenant
Nor go back on the word I have spoken.

Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness.

‘I will never lie to David.

His dynasty shall last for ever.

In my sight his throne is like the sun;

Like the moon, it shall endure for ever,

A faithful witness in the skies.’

And yet you have spurned, rejected,

You are angry with the one you have anointed.

You have broken your covenant with your servant

And dishonoured his crown in the dust.

You have broken down all his walls

And reduced his fortresses to ruins.

He is despoiled by all who pass by:

He has become the taunt of his neighbours.

You have exalted the right hand of his foes;

You have made all his enemies rejoice.

You have made his sword give way,

You have not upheld him in battle.

You have brought his glory to an end;

You have hurled his throne to the ground.

You have cut short the years of his youth;

You have heaped disgrace upon him.

How long, O Lord?

Will you hide yourself for ever?

How long will your anger burn like a fire?

Remember, Lord, the shortness of my life
And how frail you have made the sons of men.

What man can live and never see death?

Who can save himself from the grasp of the grave?

Where are your mercies of the past, O Lord,
Which you have sworn in your faithfulness to David?

Remember, Lord, how your servant is taunted,
How I have to bear all the insults of the peoples.

Thus your enemies taunt me, O Lord,
Mocking your anointed at every step.
Blessed be the Lord for ever. Amen, amen!

(Ant.) Praise be to God, who promised good things to Abraham and David and in our days actualized them in Christ!

Marmitha 36

Psalm 90

O Lord, you have been our refuge
From one generation to the next.

*(Ant.) Have mercy on us sinners,
O almighty Preserver!*

Before the mountains were born
Or the earth or the world brought forth,
You are God, without beginning or end.
You turn men back into dust
And say: 'Go back, sons of men.'
To your eyes a thousand years
Are like yesterday, come and gone,
No more than a watch in the night.
You sweep men away like a dream,
Like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers:
By evening it withers and fades.
So we are destroyed in your anger
Struck with terror in your fury.
Our guilt lies open before you;
Our secrets in the light of your face.
All our days pass away in your anger.
Our life is over like a sigh.
Our span is seventy years
Or eighty for those who are strong.
And most of these are emptiness and pain.
They pass swiftly and we are gone.
Who understands the power of your anger
And fears the strength of your fury?
Make us know the shortness of our life
That we may gain wisdom of heart.

Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants.
In the morning, fill us with your love;
We shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Give us joy to balance our affliction
For the years when we knew misfortune.
Show forth your work to your servants;
Let your glory shine on their children.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
Give success to the work of our hands.
(Ant.) Have mercy on us sinners,
O almighty Preserver!

Psalm 91

Blessed is he who abides in the shelter
Of the Most High
And abides in the shade of the Almighty.
(Ant.) O Christ, you are my refuge;
I shall never be put to shame!
Say to the Lord: 'My refuge,
My stronghold, my God in whom I trust!'
It is he who will free you from the snare
Of the fowler who seeks to destroy you.
He will conceal you with his pinions
And under his wings you will find refuge.
You will not fear the terror of the night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day.

Nor the plague that prowls in the darkness,
Nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand may fall at your side,

Ten thousand fall at your right.

You, it will never approach;

His faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look

To see how the wicked are repaid.

You who have said: 'Lord, my refuge!'

And have made the Most High your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall fall,

No plague approach where you dwell.

For you has he commanded his angels,

To keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon their hands

Lest you strike your foot against a stone.

On the lion and the viper you will tread

And trample the young lion and the dragon.

Since he clings to me in love, I will free him;

Protect him for he knows my name.

When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.'

I will save him in distress and give him glory.

With length of life I will content him;

I shall let him see my saving power.

(Ant.) O Christ, you are my refuge;

I shall never be put to shame!

Psalm 92

It is good to give thanks to the Lord
To make music to your name, O Most High,
(Ant.) Lord, to whom everything is possible, preserve your worshippers!

To proclaim your love in the morning
And your truth in the watches of the night.
On the ten stringed lyre and the lute,
With the murmuring sound of the harp.
Your deeds, O Lord, have made me glad;
For the work of your hands I shout with joy.

O Lord, how great are your works!
How deep are your designs!
The foolish man cannot know this
And the fool cannot understand.
Though the wicked spring up like grass
And all who do evil thrive.

They are doomed to be eternally destroyed
But you, Lord, are eternally on high.

See how your enemies perish;
All doers of evil are scattered.
To me you give the wild ox's strength;
You anoint me with the purest oil.
My eyes looked in triumph on my foes;
My ears heard gladly of their fall.

The just will flourish like the palm tree
And grow like a Lebanon cedar.

Planted in the house of the Lord

They will flourish in the courts of our God.

Still bearing fruit when they are old,
Still full of sap, still green.

To proclaim that the Lord is just,

In him, my rock, there is no wrong.

*(Ant.) Lord, to whom everything is possible,
preserve your worshippers!*

Marmitha 37

Psalm 93

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
the Lord has robed himself with might.

(Ant.) We adore your eternal Person worthy of praise in heaven; protect your Church!

He has girded himself with power.

The world you made firm, not to be moved.

Your throne has stood firm from of old.

From all eternity, O Lord, you are.

The waters have lifted up, O Lord,

The waters have lifted up their voice,

The waters have lifted up their thunder.

Greater than the roar of mighty waters,

More glorious than the surgings of the sea

The Lord is glorious on high.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted.

Holiness is fitting to your house,

O Lord, until the end of time.

(Ant.) We adore your eternal Person worthy of praise in heaven; protect your Church!

Psalm 94

O Lord, avenging God,

avenging God, appear!

(Ant.) Lord God, you are omnipotent, omniscient and judge everyone.

Save your servants, who call on your name!

Judge of the earth, arise,

give the proud what they deserve!

How long, O Lord, shall the wicked,

How long shall the wicked triumph?

They bluster with arrogant speech;

The evil doers boast to each other.

They crush your people, Lord,

They afflict the ones you have chosen.

They kill the widow and the stranger

And murder the fatherless child.

And they say: 'The Lord does not see;

The God of Jacob pays no heed.'

Mark this, most senseless of people;

Fools, when will you understand?

Can he who made the ear, not hear?
Can he who formed the eye, not see?
Will he who trains nations, not punish?
Will he who teaches men, not have knowledge?
Happy the man whom you teach, O Lord,
Whom you train by means of your law.
To him you give peace in evil days
while the pit is being dug for the wicked.
The Lord will not abandon his people
Nor forsake those who are his own.
For judgement shall again be just
And all true hearts shall uphold it.
Who will stand up for me against the wicked?
Who will defend me from those who do evil?
If the Lord were not to help me,
I would soon go down into the silence.
When I think: 'I have lost my foothold;'
Your mercy, Lord, holds me up.
When cares increase in my heart
Your consolation calms my soul.
Can judges who do evil be your friends?
They do injustice under cover of law.
They attack the life of the just
And condemn innocent blood.
As for me, the Lord will be a stronghold;
My God will be the rock where I take refuge.

He will repay them for their wickedness,
Destroy them for their evil deeds
The Lord, our God, will destroy them.

(Ant.) Lord God, you are omnipotent, omniscient and judge everyone. Save your servants, who call on your name!

Psalm 95

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
Hail the rock who saves us.

(Ant.) Let us adore and praise our Lord who saves us in his mercy from errors, sins and death.

Let us come before him, giving thanks,
With songs let us hail the Lord.

A mighty God is the Lord,
A great king above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth;
The heights of the mountains are his.

To him belongs the sea, for he made it
And dry land shaped by his hands

Come in; let us bow and bend low.

Let us kneel before the God who made us
For he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture,
The flock that is led by his hand.

O that to day you would listen to his voice!

Harden not your hearts as at Meribah.

As on that day at Massah in the desert

When your fathers put me to the test;

When they tried me, though they saw my work.

For forty years I was wearied of these people

And I said: 'Their hearts are astray,

These people do not know my ways.'

Then I took an oath in my anger:

'Never shall they enter my rest.'

(Ant.) Let us adore and praise our Lord who saves us in his mercy from errors, sins and death.

Marmitha 38

Psalm 96

O Sing a new song to the Lord,

Sing to the Lord all the earth.

O sing to the Lord, bless his name.

(Ant.) O blessed is the advent of Christ the Saviour of everything! for he enabled us to praise him with the angels!

Proclaim his help day by day,

Tell among the nations his glory

And his wonders among all the peoples.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
To be feared above all gods;
The gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens,
His are majesty and state and power
And splendour in his holy place.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
Give the Lord glory and power,
Give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts,
Worship the Lord in his temple.

O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
The world he made firm in its place;
He will judge the peoples in fairness.

Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad,
Let the sea and all within it thunder praise.
Let the land and all it bears rejoice,
All the trees of the wood shout for joy.

At the presence of the Lord for he comes,
He comes to rule the earth.
With justice he will rule the world,
He will judge the peoples with his truth.

(Ant.) O blessed is the advent of Christ the Saviour of everything! for he enabled us to praise him with the angels!

Psalm 97

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice,
Let all the coastlands be glad.

(Ant.) O Church, sing praised to the Lord who renewed you and exalted your lowliness!

He brought joy to everyone by his ascension!

Cloud and darkness are his raiment;
his throne, justice and right.

A fire prepares his path;

It burns up his foes on every side.

His lightning's light up the world,
The earth trembles at the sight.

The mountains melt like wax

Before the Lord of all the earth.

The skies proclaim his justice;

All peoples see his glory.

Let those who serve idols be ashamed,

Those who boast of their worthless gods.

All you spirits, worship him.

Zion hears and is glad.

The people of Judah rejoice

Because of your judgements O Lord.

For you indeed are the Lord

Most high above all the earth

Exalted far above all spirits.

The Lord loves those who hate evil:
He guards the souls of his saints;
He sets them free from the wicked.

Light shines forth for the just
And joy for the upright of heart.

Rejoice, you just, in the Lord;
Give glory to his holy name.

*(Ant.) O Church, sing praised to the Lord who renewed you and exalted your lowliness!
He brought joy to everyone by his ascension!*

Psalm 98

Sing a new song to the Lord
For he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who deigned to receive baptism at the Jordan at the hands of John!

The Lord has made known his salvation;
Has shown his justice to the nations.

He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.

Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp with the sound of music.

With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord.

Let the sea and all within it, thunder;
the world, all its peoples.

Let the rivers clap the hands and the hill ring out their joy.

At the presence of the Lord: for he comes,
He comes to rule the earth.

He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who deigned to receive baptism at the Jordan at the hands of John!

Marmitha 39

Psalm 99

The Lord is king; the peoples tremble.
He is throned on the cherubim; earth quakes.

*(Ant.) There is no might other than yours,
Our Saviour! For you filled your holy apostles with your Holy Spirit!*

The Lord is great in Zion.
He is supreme over all the peoples.

Let them praise his name, so terrible and great.
He is holy, full of power.
You are a king who loves what is right;
You have established equity, justice and right;
You have established them in Jacob.
Exalt the Lord our God;
Bow down before Zion, his footstool.
He the Lord is holy.
Among the priests were Aaron and Moses,
Among those who invoked his name was Samuel.
They invoked the Lord and he answered.
To them he spoke in the pillar of cloud.
They did his will; they kept the law,
Which he, the Lord, had given.
O Lord our God, you answered them.
For them you were a God who forgives;
Yet you punished all their offences.
Exalt the Lord our God;
Bow down before his holy mountain for the Lord our God is holy.
*(Ant.) There is no might other than yours,
Our Saviour! For you filled your holy apostles with your Holy Spirit!*

Psalm 100

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

(Ant.) The righteous in their glory will soar to the heights on the clouds to welcome our Lord at his advent

Serve the Lord with gladness

Come before him, singing for joy.

Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him,

We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Go within his gates, giving thanks.

Enter his courts with songs of praise.

Give thanks to him and bless his name.

Indeed, how good is the Lord,

Eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age.

(Ant.) The righteous in their glory will soar to the heights on the clouds to welcome our Lord at his advent

Psalm 101

My song is of mercy and justice;

I sing to you, O Lord.

(Ant.) The Lord in whom I trusted will save me from my enemies who hated me!

I will walk in the way of perfection.

O when, Lord, will you come?

I will walk with a blameless heart

Within my house; I will not set before my eyes

Whatever is base.

I will hate the ways of the crooked;

They shall not be my friends.

The false hearted must keep far away;

The wicked I disown.

The man who slanders his neighbour

In secret I will bring to silence.

The man of proud looks and haughty heart

I will never endure.

I look to the faithful in the land

That they may dwell with me.

He who walks in the way of perfection shall be my friend.

No man who practises deceit shall live within my house.

No man who utters lies shall stand

Before my eyes.

Morning by morning I will silence

All the wicked in the land,

Uprooting from the city of the Lord.

All who do evil.

(Ant.) The Lord in whom I trusted will save me from my enemies who hated me!

Marmitha 40

Psalm 102

O Lord, listen to my prayer
And let my cry for help reach you.

*(Ant.) Have mercy on us, Immutable One;
for we have been led astray from the right path!*

Do not hide your face from me
In the day of my distress.

Turn your ear towards me
And answer me quickly when I call.

For my days are vanishing like smoke,
My bones burn away like a fire.

My heart is withered like the grass
I forgot to eat my bread.

I cry with all my strength
And my skin clings to my bones.

I have become like a pelican in the wilderness,
Like an owl in desolate places.

I lie awake and I moan
Like some lonely bird on a roof.

All day long my foes revile me;
Those who hate me use my name as a curse.

The bread I eat is ashes;
My drink is mingled with tears.

In your anger, Lord, and your fury
You have lifted me up and thrown me down.

My days are like a passing shadow
And I wither away like the grass.

But you, O Lord, will endure for ever
And your name from age to age.

You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
For this is the time to have mercy,

For your servants love her very stones,
Are moved with pity even for her dust.

The nations shall fear the name of the Lord
And all the earth's kings your glory.

When the Lord shall build up Zion again
And appear in all his glory.

Then he will turn to the prayers of the helpless;
He will not despise their prayers.

Let this be written for ages to come
That a people yet unborn may praise the Lord;
For the Lord leaned down from his sanctuary on high.

He looked down from heaven to the earth
That he might hear the groans of the prisoners
And free those condemned to die.

The sons of your servants shall dwell untroubled and their race shall endure before you.

That the name of the Lord
may be proclaimed in Zion

And his praise in the heart of Jerusalem.

When peoples and kingdoms are gathered Together to pay their homage to the Lord.

He has broken my strength in mid course;

He has shortened the days of my life.

I say to God: Do not take me away

Before my days are complete,

You, whose days last from age to age.

Long ago you founded the earth

And the heavens are the work of your hands.

They will perish but you will remain.

They will all wear out like a garment.

You will change them like clothes that are changed.

But you neither change, nor have an end.

(Ant.) Have mercy on us, Immutable One;

for we have been led astray from the right path!

Psalm 103

My soul, give thanks to the Lord,

All my being, bless his holy name.

(Ant.) Blessed is the merciful Lord,

whose grace is overflowing!

My soul, give thanks to the Lord

And never forget his blessings.

It is he who forgives all your guilt,

Who heals every one of your ills.

Who redeems your life from the grave,

Who crowns you with love and compassion.

Who fills your life with good things,

Renewing your youth like an eagle's.

The Lord does deeds of justice,

Give judgement to those who are oppressed.

He made known his ways to Moses

And his deeds to Israel's sons.

The Lord is compassion and love,

Slow to anger and rich in mercy.

His wrath will come to an end;

He will not be angry for ever.

He does not treat us according to our sins

Nor repay us according to our faults.

For as the heavens are high above the earth

So strong is his love for those who fear him.

As far as the East is from the West

So far does he remove our sins.

As a father has compassion on his sons,

The Lord has pity on those who hear him.

Knows of what we are made,

He remembers that we are dust.

As for man, his days are like grass;
He flowers like the flower of the field.
The wind blows and he is gone
And his place never sees him again.
But the love of the Lord is everlasting
Upon those who hold him in fear.
His justice reaches out to his children's children
When they keep his covenant in truth,
When they keep his will in their mind.
The Lord has set his sway in heaven
And his kingdom is ruling over all.
Give thanks to the Lord, all his angels, mighty in power, fulfilling his word,
Who heed the voice of his word.
Give thanks to the Lord, all his hosts,
His servants who do his will.
Give thanks to the Lord, all his works,
In every place where he rules.
My soul, give thanks to the Lord!
*(Ant.) Blessed is the merciful Lord,
whose grace is overflowing!*

Marmitha 41

Psalm 104

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,

*(Ant.) Blessed is the Creator forever!
clothed in majesty and glory, wrapped in light as in a robe!*

You stretch out the heavens like a tent.
Above the rains you build your dwelling.

You make the clouds your chariot,
You walk on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers
And flashing fire your servants.

You founded the earth on its base,
To stand firm from age to age.

You wrapped it with the ocean like a cloak:
The waters stood higher than the mountains.

At your threat they took to flight;
At the voice of your thunder they fled.

They rose over the mountains and flowed down
To the place which you had appointed.

You set limits they might not pass
Lest they return to cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys;
They flow in between the hills.

They give drink to all the beasts of the field;
The wild asses quench their thirst.

On the banks dwell the birds of heaven;
From the branches they sing their song.

From your dwelling you water the hills;
Earth drinks its fill of your gift.

You make the grass grow for the cattle
And the plants to serve man's needs,
And wine to cheer man's heart;
 Oil, to make his face shine
 And bread to strengthen man's heart.
The trees of the Lord drink their fill,
The cedars he planted on Lebanon;
 There the birds build their nests:
 On the tree top the stork has her home.
The goats find a home on the mountains
And rabbits hide in the rocks.
 You made the moon to mark the months;
 The sun knows the time for its setting.
When you spread the darkness it is night
And all the beasts of the forest creep forth.
 The young lions roar for their prey
 And ask their food from God.
At the rising of the sun they steal away
And go to rest in their dens.
 Man goes forth to his work,
 to labour till evening falls.
How many are your works, O Lord!
In wisdom you have made them all.
 The earth is full of your riches.
 There is the sea, vast and wide.
With its moving swarms past counting, living things great and small.

The ships are moving there
And the monsters you made to play with.
All of these look to you to give them their food in due season.

You give it, they gather it up:

You open your hand, they have their fill.
You hide your face, they are dismayed;
You take back your spirit, they die,
Returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created;

And you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!

May the Lord rejoice in his works!

He looks on the earth and it trembles;

The mountains send forth smoke at his touch.

I will sing to the Lord all my life,
make music to my God while I live.

May my thoughts be pleasing to him.

I find my joy in the Lord.

Let sinners vanish from the earth

And the wicked exist no more.

Bless the Lord, my soul.

(Ant.) Blessed is the Creator forever!

Marmitha 42Psalm 105

Alleluia! Give thanks to the Lord, tell his name, make known his deeds among the peoples.

*(Ant.) Let us thank the Lord for his goodness to us!
Implore him to make reparation for our failures for so abounding is his love!*

O sing to him, sing his praise;
Tell all his wonderful works!

Be proud of his holy name,
Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice.
Consider the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

Remember the wonders he has done,
His miracles, the judgements he spoke.
O children of Abraham, his servant,
O sons of the Jacob he chose.

He, the Lord, is our God:
His judgements prevail in all the earth.
He remembers his covenant for ever,
His promise for a thousand generations.
The covenant he made with Abraham,
The oath he swore to Isaac.
He confirmed it for Jacob as a law,
For Israel as a covenant for ever.

He said: 'I am giving you a land,
Canaan, your appointed heritage.'
When they were few in number,
A handful of strangers in the land.
When they wandered from country to country,
And from one kingdom to another.
He allowed no one to oppress them;
He admonished kings on their account:
'Do not touch my anointed;
Do no harm to any of my prophets.'
But he called down a famine on the land;
He broke the staff that supported them.
He had sent a man before them,
Joseph, sold as a slave.
His feet were put in chains, his neck was bound with iron, until what he said came to pass and the word of the Lord proved him true.
Then the king sent and released him;
The ruler of the peoples set him free,
Making him master of his house.
And ruler of all he possessed, to instruct his princes as he pleased
And to teach his elders wisdom.
So Israel came into Egypt,
Jacob lived in the country of Ham.

He gave his people increase;
He made them stronger than their foes.
Whose hearts he turned to hate his people
And to deal deceitfully with his servants.
Then he sent Moses his servant
And Aaron the man he had chosen.
Through them he showed his marvels
And his wonders in the country of Ham.
He sent darkness, and dark was made
But Egypt resisted his words.
He turned the waters into blood
And caused their fish to die.
Their land was alive with frogs,
even in the halls of their kings.
He spoke; the dog fly came and gnats covered the land.
He sent hail stones in place of the rain and flashing fire in the land.
He struck their vines and fig trees;
He shattered the trees through their land.
He spoke; the locusts came,
young locusts, too many to be counted.
They ate up every blade in the land;
They ate up all the fruit of their fields.
He struck all the first born in the land,
The finest flower of their sons.

He led out Israel with silver and gold.
In his tribes were none who fell behind.
Egypt rejoiced when they left for dread had fallen upon them.

He spread a cloud as a screen and fire to give light in the darkness.
When they asked for food he sent quails;
He filled them with bread from heaven.

He pierced the rock to give them water;
it gushed forth in the desert like a river.
For he remembered his holy word,
which he gave to Abraham his servant.

So he brought out his people with joy,
his chosen ones with shouts of rejoicing.
And he gave them the land of the nations.
They took the fruit of other men's toil,
That thus they might keep his precepts, that thus they might observe his laws.

Alleluia!

(Ant.) Let us thank the Lord for his goodness to us!

Implore him to make reparation for our failures for so abounding is his love!

Marmitha 43Psalm 106

Alleluia! O give thanks to the Lord for he is good;
For his love endures forever.

*(Ant.) Lord, forgive the sins of your servants,
who incurred your wrath due to our sin!*

Have mercy on us in your grace!

Who can tell the Lord's mighty deeds?

Who can recount all his praise?

They are happy who do what is right, who at all times do what is just.

O Lord, remember me out of the love you have for your people.

Come to see, Lord, which your help that I may see the joy of your chosen ones.

And may rejoice in the gladness of your nation

And share the glory of your people.

Our sin is the sin of our fathers;

we have done wrong,

our deeds have been evil.

Our fathers when they were in Egypt paid no heed to your wonderful deeds.

They forgot the greatness of your love;

at the Red Sea defied the Most High.

Yet he saved them for the sake of his name,
in order to make known his power.

He threatened the Red Sea; it dried up and he led them through the deep as through the desert.

He saved them from the hand of the foe;
he saved them from the grip of the enemy.

The waters covered with oppressors;
not one of them was left alive.

Then they believed in his words:
then they sang his praises.

But they soon forgot his deeds and would not wait upon his will.

They yielded to their cravings in the desert and put God to the test in the wilderness.

He granted them the favour they asked and sent disease among them.

Then they rebelled, envious of Moses and of Aaron, the Lord's holy one.

The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and buried the clans of Abiram.

Fire blazed up against their clan and flames devoured the rebels.

They fashioned a calf at Horeb and worshipped an image of metal,
And exchanging the God who was their glory,
for the image of a bull that eats grass.

They forgot the God who was their saviour, who had done such great things in Egypt, such portents in the land of Ham, such marvels at the Red Sea.

For this he said would destroy them, but Moses,
the man he had chosen, stood in the breach before him, to turn back his anger from destruction.

Then they scorned the land of promise:
they had no faith in his word.

They complained inside their tents and would not listen to the voice of the Lord.

So he raised his hand to swear an oath that he would lay them low in the desert; would scatter their sons among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands.

They bowed before the Baal of Peor;
ate offerings made to lifeless gods.
They roused him to anger with their deeds and a plague broke out among them.

Then Phinehas stood up and intervened.
Thus the plague was ended.
And this counted in his favour from age to age for ever.

They provoked him at the waters of Meribah.

Through their fault it went ill with Moses;

For they made his heart grow bitter and they uttered words that were rash.

They failed to destroy the peoples
as the Lord had given command.

But instead they mingled with the nations and learned to act like them.

They worshipped the idols of the nations and these became a snare to entrap them.
They even offered their own sons and their daughters in sacrifice to demons.

They shed the blood of the innocent, the blood of their sons and daughters whom they offered to the idols of Canaan.

The land was polluted with blood. So they defiled themselves by their deeds and broke their marriage bond with the Lord till his anger blazed against his chosen people:

He was filled with horror at his chosen ones.

So he gave them into the hand of the nations and their foes became their rulers.

Their enemies became their oppressors;
they were subdued beneath their hand.

Time after time he rescued them,
but in their malice they dared to defy him and sank low through their guilt.

In spite of this he paid heed to their distress,
so often as he heard their cry.

For their sake he remembered his covenant.

In the greatness of his love he relented.

And he let them be treated with mercy by all who held them captive.

O Lord, our God, save us!

Bring us together from among the nations
That we may thank your holy name and make it our glory to praise you.

Blessed be the Lord, God of Israel,
for ever, from age to age.

Let all the people cry out:

‘Amen! Amen! Alleluia!’

*(Ant.) Lord, forgive the sins of your servants,
who incurred your wrath due to our sin!
Have mercy on us in your grace!*

Marmitha 44

Psalm 107

‘O give thanks to the Lord for he is good;
for his love endures forever.’

(Ant.) Blessed is our Redeemer!

Let them say this, the Lord’s redeemed, whom he redeemed from the hand of the foe.

And gathered from far off lands,
from east and west, north and south.

Some wandered in the desert, in the wilderness, finding no way to city they could dwell in.

Hungry they were and thirsty;
their soul was fainting within them.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need
and he rescued them from their distress.

He led them along the right way, to reach a city they could dwell in.

Let them thank the Lord for his love,
for the wonders he does for men.

For he satisfies the thirsty soul;
he fills the hungry with good things.

Some lay in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in misery and chains, having defied the words of God and spurned the counsels of the Most High.

He crushed their spirit with toil;
they stumbled; there was no one to help.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need
and he rescued them from their distress.

He led them forth from darkness and gloom and broke their chains to pieces.

Let them thank the Lord for his goodness,
for the wonders he does for men:

For he bursts the gates of bronze and shatters the iron bars.

Some were sick on account of their sins and afflicted on account of their guilt.
They had a loathing for every food;
They came close to the gates of death.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need
and he rescued them from their distress.
He sent forth his word to heal them and saved their life from the grave.

Let them thank the Lord for his love,
for their wonders he does for men.
Let them offer a sacrifice of thanks and tell of his deeds with rejoicing.

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep.

For he spoke; 'he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep;
Their soul melted away in their distress.
They staggered, reeled like drunken men,
for all their skill was gone.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need
and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.

Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men.

Let them exalt him in the gathering of the people and praise him in the meetings of the elders.

He changes streams into a desert, springs of water into thirsty ground,
A fruitful land into a salt waste,
for the wickedness of those who live there.

But he changes desert into streams,
thirsty ground into springs of water.

There he settles the hungry and they build a city to dwell in.

They sow fields and plant their vines;
these yield crops for the harvest.

He blesses them; they grow in numbers.
He does not let their herds decrease.

He pours contempt upon princes, makes them wander in trackless wastes.

They are reduced to nothing
by oppression, evil and sorrow.

But he raises the needy from distress;
makes families numerous as a flock.

The upright see it and rejoice
but all who do wrong are silenced.

Whoever is wise, let him heed these things and consider the love of the Lord.

(Ant.) Blessed is our Redeemer!

Psalm 108

My heart is ready, O God;
I will sing, sing your praise.

(Ant.) O God, I praise you!

Awake, my soul;
awake, lyre and harp.

I will awake the dawn.

I will thank you, Lord, among the peoples,
among the nations I will praise you.

For your love reaches to the heavens
and your truth to the skies.

O God, arise above the heavens;

May your glory shine on earth!

O come and deliver your friends;
help with your right hand and reply.

From his holy place God has made this promise: 'I will triumph and divide the land of Shechem;

I will measure out the valley of Succoth.
Gilead is mine and Manasseh.

Ephraim I take for my helmet,
Judah for my commander's staff.

Moab I will use for my washbowl,
on Edom I will plant my shoe.

Over the Philistines I will shout in triumph.'

But who will lead me to conquer the fortress?
Who will bring me face to face with Edom?
Will you utterly reject us, O God,
and no longer march with our armies?

Give us help against the foe:
for the help of man is vain.
With God we shall do bravely
and he will trample down his foes.

(Ant.) O God, I praise you!

Marmitha 45

Psalm 109

O God whom I praise, do not be silent:

*(Ant.) Lord, save me from my foes for they have arrayed unjustly against me
to destroy me unjustly!*

For the mouths of deceit and wickedness are opened against me.

They speak to me with lying tongues;
They beset me with words of hate and attack me without cause.

In return for my love they accuse me while I pray for them.

They repay me evil for good,
hatred for love.

Appoint a wicked man as his judge:
let an accuser stand at his right.

When he is judged
let him come out condemned;
let his prayer be considered as sin.

Let the days of his life be few;
Let another man take his office.

Let his children be fatherless orphans and his wife become a widow.

Let his children be wanderers and beggars driven from the ruins of their home.

Let the creditor seize all his goods;
Let strangers take the fruit of his work.

Let no one show him any mercy nor pity his fatherless children.

Let all his sons be destroyed and with them his name be blotted out.

Let his father's guilt be remembered,
his mother's sin be retained.

Let it always stand before the Lord, that their memory may be cut off from the earth.

For he did not think of showing mercy
but pursued the poor and the needy, hounding the wretched to death.

He loved cursing; let curses fall on him.
He scorned blessing; let blessing pass him by.
He put on cursing like his coat;
let it soak into his body like water;
Let it sink like oil into his bones;
let it be like the clothes that cover him,
like a girdle he cannot take off!
Let the Lord thus repay my accusers,
all those who speak evil against me.
For your name's sake act in my defence;
in the goodness of your love be my rescuer.
For I am poor and needy
and my heart is pierced within me.
I fade like an evening shadow;
I am shaken off like a locust.
My knees are weak from fasting;
my body is thin and gaunt.
I have become an object of scorn,
all who see me toss their heads.
Help me, Lord my God;
save me because of your love.
Let them know that this is your work,
that this is your doing, O Lord.
They may curse but you will bless.
Let my attackers be put to shame.
But let your servant rejoice.

Let my accusers be clothed with dishonour, covered with shame as with a cloak.
Loud thanks to the Lord are on my lips.
I will praise him in the midst of the throng,
For he stands at the poor man's side to save him from those who condemn him.
*(Ant.) Lord, save me from my foes,
for they have arrayed unjustly against me
to destroy me unjustly!*

Psalm 110

The Lord's revelation to my Master:
'Sit on my right:
I will put your foes beneath your feet.'
(Ant.) Lord Jesus Christ, we praise you, for in your humanity you are from David and Abraham; in your existence you are from God the Father!
The Lord will wield from Zion
your sceptre of power:
rule in the midst of all your foes.
A prince from the days of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you.
The Lord has sworn an oath
he will not change.
You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.

The Master standing at your right hand
Will shatter kings in the day of his great wrath.

He, the Judge of the nations, will heap high
the bodies;

Heads shall be shattered far and wide.
He shall drink from the stream by the wayside and therefore he shall lift up his head.

(Ant.) O Lord Jesus Christ, we praise you, for in your humanity you are from David and Abraham; in your existence you are from God the Father!

Psalm 111

Alleluia! I will thank the Lord with all my heart in the meeting of the just and their assembly.

*(Ant.) Let the righteous join us
in praising the God who created us!*

Great are the works of the Lord;
to be pondered by all who love them.

Majestic and glorious his work,

His justice stands firm for ever.

He makes us remember his wonders.

The Lord is compassion and love.

He gives food to those who fear him;
keeps his covenant ever in mind.

He has shown his might to his people by giving them the lands of the nations.

His works are justice and truth:
his precepts are all of them sure,
standing firm for ever and ever:
they are made in uprightness and truth.

He has sent deliverance to his people and established his covenant for ever.

Holy his name, to be feared.

To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
All who do so prove themselves wise.
His praise shall last for ever!

*(Ant.) Let the righteous join us
in praising the God who created us!*

Marmitha 46

Psalm 112

Alleluia! Happy the man who fears the Lord, who takes delight in his commands.

(Ant.) Blessed are those who keep Lord's commandments, fearlessly following the path of his holy precepts!

His sons will be powerful on earth;
the children of the upright are blessed.

Riches and wealth are in his house;
His justice stands firm for ever.
He is a light in the darkness for the upright:
He is generous, merciful and just.

The good man takes pity and lends,
He conducts his affairs with honour.
The just man will never waver:
He will be remembered for ever.

He has no fear of evil news;
with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord.
With a steadfast heart he will not fear;
He will see the downfall of his foes.

Open handed, he gives to the poor;
His justice stands firm for ever.

His head will be raised in glory.
The wicked man sees and is angry, gnashes his teeth and pines away;
the desire of the wicked leads to doom.

(Ant.) Blessed are those who keep Lord's commandments, fearlessly following the path of his holy precepts!

Psalm 113

Alleluia! Praise, O servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord!

(Ant.) Worthy of praise are you, God, who called the nations to proclaim your wonders through your servants; for, you clothed them in your splendour, that fills heaven and earth with your power!

May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and for evermore!

From the rising of the sun to its setting praised be the name of the Lord!

High above all nations is the Lord,
above the heavens his glory.

Who is like the Lord, our God, who has risen on high to his throne
Yet stoops from the heights to look down, to look down upon heaven and earth?

From the dust he lifts up the lowly,
from the dung heap he raises the poor.
To set him in the company of princes,
yes, with the princes of his people.

To the childless wife he gives a home and gladdens her heart with children.

(Ant.) Worthy of praise are you, God, who called the nations to proclaim your wonders through your servants; for, you clothed them in your splendour, that fills heaven and earth with your power!

Psalm 114

Alleluia! When Israel came forth from Egypt,
Jacob's sons from an alien people,

(Ant.) Lord our God, I woke up at midnight to praise you for your judgement! I wondered at your wise actions; and I praise your holy name!

Judah became the Lord's temple,
Israel became his kingdom.

The sea fled at the sight:

the Jordan turned back on its course,

The mountains leapt with rams and the hills with yearling sheep.

Why was it, sea, that you fled,

That you turned back, Jordan, on your course?

Mountains, that you leapt like rams, hills, like yearling sheep?

Tremble, O earth, before the Lord,
in the presence of the God of Jacob,

Who turns the rock into a pool and flint into a spring of water.

Not to us, Lord, not to us,

But to your name give the glory

For the sake of your love and your truth, lest the heathen say: 'Where is their God?'

But our God he is in the heavens;
he does whatever he wills.
Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

They have mouths but they cannot speak;
They have eyes but they cannot see;
They have ears but they cannot hear;
They have nostrils but they cannot smell.
With their hands they cannot feel;
with feet they cannot walk.

Their makers will become like them
so will all who trust in them.

Sons of Israel, trust in the Lord;
He is their help and their shield.
Sons of Aaron, trust in the Lord;
He is their help and their shield.

You who fear him, trust in the Lord;
he is their help and their shield.
He remembers us, will give us his blessing;
He will bless the sons of Israel.

The Lord will bless those who fear him,
The little no less than the great:
To you may the Lord grant increase,
to you and all your children.
May you be blessed by the Lord,
The maker of heaven and earth.

The heavens belong to the Lord
but the earth he has given to men.

The dead shall not praise the Lord, nor those who go down into the silence.

But we who live bless the Lord
now and for ever. Amen.

(Ant.) Lord our God, I woke up at midnight to praise you for your judgement! I wondered at your wise actions; and I praise your holy name!

Marmitha 47

Psalm 115

Alleluia! I love the Lord for he has heard the cry of my appeal;

(Ant.) God alone is the Lord of life and death!

For he turned his ear to me in the day when I called him.

They surrounded me, the snares of death,
with the anguish of the tomb; they caught me,
sorrow and distress.

I called on the Lord's name.

O Lord my God, deliver me!

How gracious is the Lord, and just;
our God has compassion.

The Lord protects the simple hearts;
I was helpless so he saved me.

Turn back, my soul, to your rest for the Lord has been good;

He has kept my soul from death,
and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of the Lord
in the land of the living.

I trusted, even when I said:

‘I am sorely afflicted,’

And when I said in my alarm:

‘No man can be trusted.’

How can I repay the Lord
for his goodness to me?

The cup of salvation I will raise;

I will call on the Lord’s name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil
before all his people.

O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:

I will call on the Lord’s name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil
before all his people.

In the courts of the house of the Lord,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.

(Ant.) God alone is the Lord of life and death!

Psalm 116

Alleluia! O praise the Lord, all your nations, acclaim him all you peoples!

(Ant.) People and nations, praise Christ in unison!

Strong is his love for us;

He is faithful for ever.

(Ant.) People and nations, praise Christ in unison!

Psalm 117

Alleluia! Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,

(Ant.) There is none more powerful and merciful than the Lord, my refuge!

For his love endures forever.

Let the sons of Israel say:

His love endures forever.

Let the sons of Aaron say:

His love endures forever.

Let those who fear the Lord say:

His love endures forever.

I called to the Lord in my distress;
he answered and freed me.

The Lord is at my side; I do not fear.

What can man do against me?

The Lord is at my side as my helper:

I shall look down on my foes.

It is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in men:

It is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in princes.

The nations all encompassed me;

in the Lord's name I crushed them.

They compassed me, compassed me about;
in the Lord's name I crushed them.

They compassed me about like bees;

They blazed like a fire among thorns.

In the Lord's name I crushed them.

I was thrust down, thrust down and falling but the Lord was my helper.

The Lord is my strength and my song;

He was my saviour.

There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

I was punished, I was punished by the Lord,
but not doomed to die.

Open to me the gates of holiness:

I will enter and give thanks.

This is the Lord's own gate where the just may enter.

I will thank you for you have answered and you are my saviour.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord;
we rejoice and are glad.

O Lord, grant us salvation;

O Lord, grant us success.

Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes.

We bless you from the house of the Lord;
the Lord God is our light.

Go forward in procession with branches
even to the altar.

You are my God, I thank you.

My God, I praise you.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good;
for his love endures for ever.

(Ant.) There is none more powerful and merciful than the Lord, my refuge!

Marmitha 48

1. Psalm 118 (1-8)

They are happy whose life is blameless, who follow God's law!

*(Ant.) Help me, O Christ, to do your will,
for I am weak and frail!*

They are happy who do his will,
seeking him with all their hearts.

Who never do anything evil

But walk in his ways.

You have laid down your precepts to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm to obey your statutes.

Then I shall not be put to shame
as I heed your commands.

I will thank you with an upright heart
as I learn your decrees.

I will obey your statutes:

Do not forsake me.

*(Ant.) Help me, O Christ, to do your will,
for I am weak and frail!*

2. (Ps 118:9-16)

How shall the young remain sinless?

By obeying your word.

(Ant.) Lord our God, console me in your love; by your gospel, grant wisdom to me, but a child!

I have sought you with all my heart:

Let me not stray from your commands.

I treasure your promise in my heart
Lest I sin against you.

Blessed are you, O Lord;

Teach me your statutes.

With my tongue I have recounted
The decrees of your lips.

I rejoiced to do your will as through all riches were mine.

I will ponder all your precepts and consider your paths.

I take delight in your statutes;

I will not forget your word.

*(Ant.) Help me, O Christ, to do your will,
for I am weak and frail!*

3. (Ps 118:17-24)

Bless your servant and I shall live and obey your word.

(Ant.) Your precepts, O Redeemer, is ideal,

blameless and noble!

Open my eyes that I may see the wonders of your law.

I am a pilgrim on the earth;
show me your commands.

My soul is ever consumed
as I long for your decrees.

You threaten the proud, the accursed, who turn from your commands.

Relieve me from scorn and contempt for I do your will.

Though princes sit plotting against me
I ponder on your statutes.

Your will is my delight;
your statutes are my counsellors.

*(Ant.) Your precepts, O Redeemer, is ideal,
blameless and noble!*

4. (Ps 118: 25-32)

My soul lies in the dust;
by your word revive me.

*(Ant.) Those who hate truth have insulted me;
Lord of all, come to my assistance!*

I declared my ways and you answered:
teach me your statutes.

Make me grasp the way of your precepts and I will muse on your wonders.

My soul pines away with grief;
by your word raise me up.

Keep me from the way of error
and teach me your law.

I have chosen the way of truth
with your decrees before me.

I bind myself to do your will;

Lord, do not disappoint me.

I will run the way of your commands;
you give freedom to my heart.

(Ant.) Those who hate truth have insulted me;

Lord of all, come to my assistance!

5. (Ps 118: 33-40)

Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end.

(Ant.) Violation of your commands is foolishness; lead me, O Christ, in your truth!

Train me to observe your law,
to keep it with my heart.

Guide me in the path of your commands;
for there is my delight.

Bend my heart to your will and not to love of gain.

Keep my eyes from what is false:
by your word, give me life.
Keep the promise you have made to the servant who fears you.

Keep me from the scorn I dread,
for your decrees are good.
See, I long for your precepts:
then in your justice, give me life.
(Ant.) Violation of your commands is foolishness; lead me, O Christ, in your truth!

6 (Ps 118:41-48)

Lord, let your love come upon me,
the saving help of your promise.

(Ant.) Lord, let uprightness stand out in each one of your servants, before every king!

And I shall answer those who taunt me
for I trust in your word.

Do not take the word of truth from my mouth for I trust in your decrees.
I shall always keep your law
for ever and ever.

I shall walk in the path of freedom for I seek your precepts.
I will speak of your will before kings,
and not be abashed.

Your commands have been my delight;
these I have loved.

I will worship your commands and love them and ponder your statutes.

(Ant.) Lord, let uprightness stand out in each one of your servants, before every king!

7. (Ps 118:49-56)

Remember your word to your servant
by which you gave me hope.

*(Ant.) The present age is fleeting like a dream!
Console me, O my lord, because of my trust
in you!*

This is my comfort in sorrow that your promise gives me life.

Though the proud may utterly deride me
I keep to your law.

I remember your decrees of old and these, Lord, console me.

When I am seized with indignation at the wicked Who forsake your law.

Your statutes have become my song,
in the land of exile.

I think of your name in the night-time and I keep your law.

This has been my blessing,
the keeping of your precepts.

*(Ant.) The present age is fleeting like a dream!
Console me, O my Lord, because of my trust in you!*

8. (Ps 118:57-64)

My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word.

(Ant.) I direct my eyes always to you who is loving; Christ, save me who is being persecuted!

With all my heart I implore your favour;
show the mercy of your promise.

I have pondered over my ways
And returned to your will.

I made haste and did not delay
To obey your commands.

Though the nets of the wicked ensnared me
I remembered your law.

At midnight I will rise and thank you for your just decrees.

I am a friend of all who revere you,
Who obey your precepts.

Lord, your love fills the earth.
Teach me your statutes.

(Ant.) I direct my eyes always to you Who is loving; Christ, save me who is being persecuted!

9. (Ps 118:65-72)

Lord, you have been good to your servant
according to your word.

(Ant.) Lord, I loved your word above other honours! Therefore, console me!

Teach me discernment and knowledge
for I trust in your commands.

Before I was afflicted I strayed
but now I keep your word.

You are good and your deeds are good;
Teach me your statutes.

Though proud men smear me with lies
yet I keep your precepts.

Their minds are closed to good
But your law is my delight.

It was good for me to be afflicted,
to learn your statutes.

The law from your mouth means more to me than silver and gold.

(Ant.) Lord, I loved your word above other honours! Therefore, console me!

10. (Ps 118:73-80)

It was your hands that made me and shaped me:
Help me to learn your commands.

(Ant.) Lord, you know more than anybody else what is useful to us

Your faithful will see me and rejoice
for I trust in your word.

Lord, I know that your decrees are right,
That you afflicted me justly.

Let your love be ready to console me
by your promise to your servant.

Let your love come and I shall live for your law is my delight.

Shame the proud who harm me with lies while I ponder your precepts.

Let your faithful turn to me,
Those who know your will.

Let my heart be blameless in your statutes lest I be ashamed.

(Ant.) Lord, you know more than anybody else what is useful to us!

11. (Ps 118:81-88)

I yearn for your saving help;
I hope in your word.

(Ant.) The Lord to whom everything has been revealed is a just One. Save us, who call up on you, for we are being persecuted!

My eyes yearn to see your promise.

When will your console me?

Though parched and exhausted with waiting
I remember your statutes.

How long must your servant suffer?

When will you judge my foes?

For me the proud have dug pitfalls against your law.

Your commands are all true; then help me when lies oppress me.

They almost made an end of me on earth
but I kept your precepts.

Because of your love give me life
and I will do your will.

(Ant.) The Lord to whom everything has been revealed is a just One. Save us, who call upon you, for we are being persecuted!

Marmitha 49

12. (Ps 118:89-96)

Your word, O Lord, forever stands firm in the heavens.

*(Ant.) He who fears the Immortal
does not fear any mortal!*

Your truth lasts from age to age, like the earth you created.

By your decree it endures to this day;
for all things serve you.

Had your law not been my delight
I would have died in my affliction.

I will never forget your precept for with them you give me life.

Save me, for I am yours
since I seek your precept.

Though the wicked lie in wait to destroy me
yet I ponder on your will.

I have seen that all perfection has an end
but your command is boundless.

*(Ant.) He who fears the Immortal
does not fear any mortal!*

13. (Ps 118:97-104)

Lord, how I love your law!

It is ever in my mind.

(Ant.) Praise to the Lord who lifts up the lowly and brings down the haughty!

Your command makes me wiser than my foes;
For it is mine forever.

I have more insight than all who teach me
For I ponder your will.

I have more understanding than the old
For I keep your precepts.

I turn my feet from evil paths to obey your word.

I have not turned from your decrees;
you yourself have taught me.

Your promise is sweeter to my taste than honey in the mouth.

I gain understanding from your precepts and so I hate false ways.

(Ant.) Praise to the Lord who lifts up the lowly and brings down the haughty!

14. (Ps 118: 105-112)

Your word is a lamp for my steps
and a light for my path.

*(Ant.) Your word is a light, life and truth,
O Redeemer!*

I have sworn and have made up my mind to obey your decrees.

Lord, I am deeply afflicted:
by your word give me life.

Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips
and teach me your decrees.

Though I carry my life in my hands,
I remember your law.

Though the wicked try to ensnare me

I do not stray from your precepts.

Your will is my heritage forever,

The joy of my heart.

I set myself to carry out your statutes
in fullness, forever.

*(Ant.) Your word is a light, life and truth,
O Redeemer!*

15. (Ps 118:113-120)

I have no love for half-hearted men;
my love is for your law.

*(Ant.) Strengthen our hope in you, Lord,
That we may remain within your precepts!*

You are my shelter, my shield;

I hope in your word.

Leave me, you who do evil;

I will keep God's command.

If you uphold me by your promise

I shall live; let my hopes not be in vain.

Sustain me and I shall be saved and ever observe your statutes.

You spurn all who swerve from your statutes;

Their cunning is in vain.

You throw away the wicked like dross:
so I love your will.

I tremble before you in terror;

I fear your decrees.

*(Ant.) Strengthen our hope in you, Lord,
that we may remain within your precepts!*

16. (Ps 118:121-128)

I have done what is right and just;

Let me not be oppressed.

*(Ant.) Our Redeemer, help your Church;
forsake her not because she loves you!*

Vouch for the welfare of your servant

Lest the proud oppress me.

My eyes are yearn for your saving help and the promise of your justice.

Treat your servant with love and teach me your statutes.

I am your servant, give me knowledge;

Then I shall know your will.

It is time for the Lord to act for your law has been broken.

That is why I love your commands more than finest gold, while I rule my life by your precepts; and hate false ways.

*(Ant.) Our Redeemer, help your Church;
forsake her not because she loves you!*

17. (Ps 118:129-136)

Your will is wonderful indeed;
therefore I obey it.

(Ant.) Lord, save those who cry out to you, who call on your name in groans of persecution!

The unfolding of your word gives light and teaches the simple.

I open my mouth and I sigh
as I yearn for your commands.

Turn and show me your mercy;
show justice to your friends.

Let my steps be guided by your promise;
Let no evil rule me.

Redeem me from man's oppression and I will keep your precepts.

Let your face shine on your servant
and teach me your decrees.

Tears stream from my eyes because your law is disobeyed.

(Ant.) Lord, save those who cry out to you, who call on your name in groans of persecution!

18. (Ps 118:137-144)

Lord, you are just indeed;
your decrees are right.

(Ant.) Lord, be pleased with me and save me, that those who have strayed away may grasp your glory!

You have imposed your will with justice and with absolute truth.

I am carried away by anger for my foes forget your word.

Your promise is tried in the fire,
the delight of your servant.

Although I am weak and despised

I remember your precepts.

Your justice is eternal justice and your law is truth.

Though anguish and distress have seized me,
I delight in your commands.

The justice of your will is eternal:
if you teach me, I shall live.

(Ant.) Lord, be pleased with me and save me, that those who have strayed away may grasp your glory!

19. (Ps 118:145-152)

I call with all my heart; Lord, hear me,
I will keep your statutes, and I will do your will.

(Ant.) O God, let not the hymns of praise vanish from the lips of your servants!

I rise before dawn and cry for help,
I hope in your word.

My eyes watch through the night
to ponder your promise.

In your love hear my voice, O Lord;
give me life by your decrees.

Those who harm me unjustly draw near:
they are far from your law.

But you, O Lord, are close:
your commands are truth.

Long have known that your will is established forever.

(Ant.) O God, let not the hymns of praise vanish from the lips of your servants!

20. (Ps 118: 153-160)

See my affliction and save me for I remember your law.

(Ant.) Lord, fearing you is more important than anything else. Do me fair justice!

Uphold my cause and defend me;

By your promise, give me life.

Salvation is far from the wicked who are heedless of your statutes.

Numberless, Lord, are your mercies;

With your decrees give me life.

Though my foes and oppressors are countless

I have not swerved from your will.

I look at the faithless with disgust;

They ignore your promise.

See how I love your precepts;

In your mercy give me life.

Your word is founded on truth:

Your decrees are eternal.

(Ant.) Lord, fearing you is more important than anything else. Do me fair justice!

21. (Ps 118: 161-168)

Though princes oppress me without cause

I stand in awe of our word.

(Ant.) Lord, to praise you always is most fitting; make me useful, despite my weakness!

I take delight in your promise like one who finds a treasure.

Lies I hate and detest

but your law is my love.

Seven times a day I praise you
For your just decrees.

The lovers of your law have great peace;
They never stumble.

I await your saving help, O Lord,
I fulfil your commands.

My soul obeys your will and loves it dearly.

I obey your precepts and your will;
All that I do is before you.

*(Ant.) Lord, to praise you always is most fitting;
make me useful, despite my weakness!*

22. (Ps 118: 169-176)

Lord, let my cry come before you:
Teach me by your word.

*(Ant.) Lord our God, listen to our prayer;
let our lips ring forth your praises profusely!*

Let my pleading come before you;
Save me by your promise.

Let my lips proclaim your praise because you teach me your statutes.

Let my tongue sing your promise for your commands are just.

Let your hand be ready to help me,
since I have chosen your precepts.

Lord, I long for your saving help
And your law is my delight.
Give life to my soul that I may praise you.
Let your decrees give me help.

I am lost like a sheep; seek your servant
For I remember your commands.
*(Ant.) Lord our God, listen to our prayer;
let our lips ring forth your praises profusely!*

Marmitha 50

Psalm 119

To the Lord in the hour of my distress
I call and he answers me.
*(Ant.) The deceitful have cast me off;
O limitless One, console me!*
‘O Lord, save my soul from lying lips, from the tongue of the deceitful.’
What shall he pay you in return,
O treacherous tongue?
The warrior’s arrows sharpened and coals, red hot, blazing.
Long enough have I been dwelling with those who hate peace.
I am for peace, but when I speak,
they are for fighting.
*(Ant.) The deceitful have cast me off;
O limitless One, console me!*

Psalm 120

I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
from where shall come my help?

(Ant.) I wait on the One most concerned about me

Have mercy on me in my weakness!

My help shall come from the Lord
who made heaven and earth.

May he never allow you to stumble!

Let him sleep not, your guard.

No, he sleeps not nor slumbers,
Israel's guard.

The Lord is your guard and your shade;
at your right side he stands.

By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night.

The Lord will guard you from evil,
he will guard your soul.

The Lord will guard your going and coming
both now and for ever.

(Ant.) I wait on the One most concerned about me

Have mercy on me in my weakness!

Psalm 121

I rejoiced when I heard them say:

'Let us go to God's house.'

(Ant.) Lord our God, delight us

with your salvation as your victory songs!

And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact.

It is there that the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord.

For Israel's law it is,
there to praise the Lord's name.

There were set to the thrones of judgement of the house of David.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray:

Peace be to your homes!

May peace reign in your walls,
in your palaces, peace!

For love of my brethren and friends

I say: Peace upon you!

For love of the house of the Lord

I will ask for your good.

(Ant.) Lord our God, delight us

with your salvation as your victory songs!

Psalm 122

To you have I lifted up my eyes, Blessed is the One who protects his you who dwell in the heavens:

(Ant.) O merciful One, when you listen to my prayers those who insult me will be put to shame!

My eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords.

Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of her mistress, So our eyes are on the Lord our God till he show us his mercy.
Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
We are filled with contempt.

Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich.

(Ant.) O merciful One, when you listen to my prayers, those who insult me will be put to shame!

Psalm 123

‘If the Lord had not been on our side,’
this is Israel’s song.

(Ant.) Blessed is our Creator, who protects His worshippers from the enemies!

‘If the Lord had not been on our side when men rose against us, then would they have swallowed us alive.

When their anger was kindled, then would the waters have engulfed us.

The torrent gone over us; over our head would have swept the raging waters.’

Blessed be the Lord who did not give us a prey to their teeth!

Our life, like a bird, has escaped from the snare of the fowler.

Indeed the snare has been broken and we have escaped.

Our help is in the name of the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

(Ant.) Blessed is our Creator, who protects his worshippers from the enemies!

Psalm 124

Those who put their trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, that cannot be shaken, that stands for ever.

(Ant.) The genuine ones will never be shaken, for their hope is in the Lord himself!

Jerusalem! The mountains surround her,
So the Lord surrounds his people
Both now and forever.

For the sceptre of the wicked shall not rest over the land of the just for fear that the hands of the just should turn to evil.

Do good, Lord, to those who are good, to the upright of heart; but the crooked and those who do evil, drive them away! On Israel, peace!

(Ant.) The genuine ones will never be shaken, for their hope is in the Lord himself!

Marmitha 51

Psalm 125

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
It seemed like a dream.

(Ant.) Lord our God, I began the journey trusting in you;

help me, for I put my trust in you!

Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said:

‘What marvels the Lord worked for them!’

What marvels the Lord worked for us!

Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears,
carrying seed for the sowing.
They come back, they come back,
full of song, carrying their sheaves.

*(Ant.) Lord our God, I began the journey trusting in you; help me, for I put my trust
in you!*

Psalm 126

If the Lord does not build the house,
in vain do its builders labour;

*(Ant.) Lord my God, preserve me
under your secure wings!*

If the Lord does not watch over the city,
in vain do the watchmen keep vigil.

In vain is your earlier rising,
your going later to rest,
You who toil for the bread you eat:
when he pours gifts on his beloved
While they slumber.

Truly sons are a gift from the Lord,
a blessing, the fruit of the womb.
Indeed the sons of youth are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

O the happiness of the man who has filled his quiver with these arrows!

He will have no cause for shame
when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.

*(Ant.) Lord my God, preserve me
under your secure wings!*

Psalm 127

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!

(Ant.) Lord our God, shower your gifts profusely on your servants by your grace!

By the labour of your hands you shall eat.

You will be happy and prosper;

Your wife like a fruitful vine

in the heart of your house;

Your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table.

Indeed thus shall be blessed

The man who fears the Lord.

May the Lord bless you from Zion

all the days of your life!

May you see your children's children in a happy Jerusalem!

On Israel, peace!

(Ant.) Lord our God, shower your gifts profusely on your servants by your grace!

Psalm 128

‘They have pressed me hard from my youth,’
this is Israel’s song.

(Ant.) Lord our God, save us from the evildoers, in response to our prayers!

‘They have pressed me hard from my youth
but could never destroy me.

They ploughed my back like ploughmen,
drawing long furrows.

But the Lord who is just, has destroyed
The yoke of the wicked.’

Let them be shamed and routed,
Those who hate Zion!

Let them be like grass on the roof
That withers before it flowers.

With that no reaper fills his arms,
no binder makes his sheaves.

And those passing by will not say:

‘On you the Lord’s blessing.

‘We bless you in the name of the Lord.’

(Ant.) Lord our God, save us from the evildoers, in response to our prayers!

Psalm 129

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!

*(Ant.) Lord of goodness, justice and mercy,
Take pity on us by your grace!*

O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?

But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord more than the watchman for the daybreak.

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem
from all its iniquity.

*(Ant.) Lord of goodness, justice and mercy,
take pity on us by your grace!*

Psalm 130

O Lord, my heart is not proud
Nor haughty my eyes.

*(Ant.) Lord, raise me from the dust,
to praise and thank your holy name!*

I have not gone after things too great
Nor marvels beyond me.

Truly I have set my soul
in silence and peace.

A weaned child on its mother's breast,
even so is my soul.

O Israel, hope in the Lord
both now and for ever.

*(Ant.) Lord, raise me from the dust,
to praise and thank your holy name!*

Marmitha 52

Psalm 131

O Lord, remember David and all the hardships he endured,

*(Ant.) Preserve your priests, O Christ,
let your peace reign in the Church!*

The oath he swore to the Lord,
His vow to the Strong One of Jacob.

‘I will not enter the house where I live
Nor go to the bed where I rest.

I will give no sleep to my eyes to my eyelids will give no slumber.

Till I find a place for the Lord,
a dwelling for the Strong One of Jacob.’

At Ephrata we heard of the ark;
We found it in the plains of Yearim.

‘Let us go to the place of his dwelling;
Let us go to kneel at his footstool.’
Go up, Lord, to the place of your rest,
You and the ark of your strength.

Your priests shall be clothed with holiness:
your faithful shall ring out their joy.
For the sake of David your servant
do not reject your anointed.

The Lord swore an oath to David;
He will not go back on his word.
‘A son, the fruit of your body, will I set upon your throne.

If they keep my covenant in truth and my laws that I have taught them,
Their sons also shall rule on your throne from age to age.’

For the Lord has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for his dwelling:
‘This is my resting place for ever,
here have I chosen to live.

I will greatly bless her produce,
I will fill her poor with bread.
I will clothe her priests with salvation and her faithful shall ring out their joy.

There the David’s stock will flower:
I will prepare a lamp for my anointed.

I will cover his enemies with shame
but on him my crown shall shine.

*(Ant.) Preserve your priests, O Christ,
Let your peace reign in the Church!*

Psalm 132

How good and how pleasant it is,
Brothers dwelling in unity!

*(Ant.) Our Lord has promised his saints nuptial chamber and eternal happiness!
It is like precious oil upon the head*

Running down upon the beard,
Running down upon Aaron's beard
Upon the collar of his robes.

It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the heights of Zion. For there the Lord gives his blessing, life for ever.

*(Ant.) Our Lord has promised his saints
Nuptial chamber and eternal happiness!*

Psalm 133

O come, bless the Lord,
all you who serve the Lord,
who stand in the house of the Lord,
in the courts of the house of our God.

(Ant.) It is most fitting, our Redeemer, that the righteous sing your praises unceasingly

Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless the Lord through the night.

May the Lord bless you from Zion,
He who made both heaven and earth.

(Ant.) It is most fitting, our Redeemer, that the righteous sing your praises unceasingly

Psalm 134

Alleluia! Praise the name of the Lord, praise him, servants of the Lord,
who stand in the house of the Lord
in the courts of the house of our God.

(Ant.) People of Israel sang your praises on their journey, because you gave them victory!

Praise the Lord for the Lord is good.
Sing a psalm to his name for he is loving.
For the Lord has chosen Jacob for himself and Israel for his own procession.
For I know the Lord is great,
that our Lord is high above all gods.
The Lord does whatever he wills,
in heaven, on earth, in the seas.

He summons clouds from the ends of the earth;
Makes lightening produce the rain.

From his treasures he sends forth the wind.
The first born of the Egyptians he smote,
of man and beast alike.

Signs and wonders he worked in the midst of your land, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all your servants.

Nations in their greatness he struck and kings in their splendour he slew.
Sihon, king of the Amorites,
Og, the king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

He let Israel inherit their land;
on his people their land he bestowed.
Lord, your name stands for ever,
unforgotten from age to age.

For the Lord does justice for his people;
the Lord takes pity on his servants.
Pagan idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

They have mouths but cannot speak;
they have eyes but they cannot see.
They have ears but they cannot hear;
there is never a breath on their lips.
Their makers will become like them
and so will all who trust in them!

Sons of Israel, bless the Lord!

Sons of Aaron, bless the Lord!

Sons of Levi, bless the Lord!

You who fear him, bless the Lord!

From Zion may the Lord be blessed,
he who dwells in Jerusalem!

(Ant.) People of Israel sang your praises on their journey, because you gave them victory!

Marmitha 53

Psalm 135

Alleluia! O give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love endures forever.

*(Ant.) Let us thank the Lord our God, who,
in his overflowing grace, delivered his servants from the hands of the wicked, the attacks of the haters and the deceitful!*

Give thanks to the God of gods,
for his love endures forever.

Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his love endures forever;

Who alone has wrought marvellous works,
for his love endures forever;

Whose wisdom it was made the skies,
for his love endures forever.

Who fixed the great earth firmly on the seas,
for his love endures forever.

It was he who made the great lights,
for his love endures forever.

The sun to rule in the day,
for his love endures forever.

The moon and stars in the night,
for his love endures forever.

The first born of the Egyptians he smote,
for his love endures forever.

He brought Israel out from their midst,
for his love endures forever.

Arms outstretched, with power in his hand,
for his love endures forever.

He divided the Red Sea in two,
for his love endures forever.

He made Israel pass through the midst,
for his love endures forever.

He flung Pharaoh and his force in the sea
for his love endures forever.

Through the desert his people he led,
for his love endures forever.

Nations in their greatness he struck,
for his love endures forever.

Kings in their splendour he slew,
for his love endures forever.

Sihon, king of the Amorites,
for his love endures forever.

And Og, the king of Bashan,
for his love endures forever.

He let Israel inherit their land,
for his love endures forever.

On his servant their land he bestowed,
for his love endures forever.

He remembered us in our distress,
for his love endures forever.

And he snatched us away from our foes,
for his love endures forever.

He gives food to all living things,
for his love endures forever.

To the God of heaven give thanks,
for his love endures forever.

*(Ant.) Let us thank the Lord our God, who,
in his overflowing grace, delivered his servants from the hands of the wicked, the attacks of the haters and the deceitful!*

Psalm 136

By the rivers of Babylon
there we sat and wept, remembering Zion.

*(Ant.) Jerusalem has become a laughing stalk among the nations, because of her sins
and rejection of the saints and apostles!*

On the poplars that grew there we hung up our harps.

For it was there that they asked us,
our captors, for songs,
our oppressors, for joy.

‘Sing to us, they said,
one of Zion’s songs.’

O how could we sing
the song of the Lord
on alien soil?

If I forget you, Jerusalem,
let my right hand wither!

O Let my tongue
cleave to my mouth
if I remember you not,
if I prize not Jerusalem,
above all my joys!

Remember, O Lord,
against the sons of Edom
the day of Jerusalem;
when they said: ‘Tear it down!
Tear it down to its foundations!’

O Babylon, destroyer, he is happy who repays you the ills you brought on us.

He shall seize and shall dash your children on the rock!

*(Ant.) Jerusalem has become a laughing
stalk among the nations, because of her sins
and rejection of the saints and apostles!*

Psalm 137

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.

(Ant.) Lord Jesus Christ, since you redeemed our race by your precious cross, we venerate it!

I will adore before your holy temple.
I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excels all we ever knew of you.

On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul.
All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth.

They shall sing of the Lord's ways:
'How great is the glory of the Lord!'
The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of affliction
you give me life and frustrate my foes.

You stretch out your hand and save me,
your hand will do all things for me.

Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

(Ant.) Lord Jesus Christ, since you redeemed our race by your precious cross, we venerate it!

Marmitha 54

Psalm 138

O Lord, you search me and you know me.

(Ant.) Deliver me, you who foreknows each one and owns everything even before hiscreation!

You know my resting and my rising,

You discern my purpose from afar.

You mark when I walk or lie down,
all my ways lie open to you.

Before ever a word is on my tongue

You know it, O Lord, through and through.

Behind and before you besiege me,

Your hand ever laid upon me.

Too wonderful for me, this knowledge,
too high, beyond my reach.

O where can I go from your spirit, or where can I flee from your face?

If I climb the heavens, you are there.

If I lie in the grave, you are there.

If I take the wings of the dawn and dwell at the sea's furthest end.
Even there your hand would lead me,
your right hand would hold me fast.

If I say: 'Let the darkness hide me and the light around me be night'.
Even darkness is not dark for you and the night is as clear as the day.

For it was you who created my being,
knit me together in my mother's womb.
I thank you for the wonder of my being,
for the wonders of all your creation.

Already you knew my soul,
my body held no secret from you.
When I was being fashioned in secret and moulded in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes saw all my actions,
they were all of them written in your book;
Every one of my days was decreed before one of them came into being.
To me, how mysterious your thoughts,
the sum of them not to be numbered.

If I count them, they are more than the sand;
to finish, I must be eternal, like you.
O God, that you would slay the wicked!
Men of blood, keep far way from me.

With deceit they rebel against you and set your designs at naught.

Do I not hate those who hate you, abhor those who rise against you?

I hate them with a perfect hate and they are foes to me.

O search me, God, and know my heart.

O test me and know my thoughts.

See that I follow not the wrong path and lead me in the path of life eternal.

(Ant.) Deliver me, you who foreknows each one and owns everything even before his creation!

Psalm 139

Rescue me, Lord, from evil men;
from the violent keep me safe.

(Ant.) Lord my God, save me from the desires and attacks of the wicked.

From those who plan evil in their hearts and stir up strife every day.

Who sharpen their tongue like an adder's,
with the poison of viper on their lips.

Lord, guard me from the hands of the wicked:
from the violent keep me safe;
they plan to make me stumble.

The proud have hidden a trap, have spread out lines in a net,
set snares across my path.

I have said to the Lord: 'You are my God.'

Lord, hear the cry of my appeal!

Lord my God, my mighty help,
you shield my head in the battle.

Do not grant the wicked their desire nor let their plots succeed.

Those surrounding me lift up their heads.

Let the malice of their speech overwhelm
them.

Let coals of fire rain upon them.

Let them be flung in the abyss, no more to rise.

Let the slanderer not endure upon the earth.

Let evil hunt the violent man to death!

I know that the Lord will avenge the poor,

That he will do justice for the needy.

Truly the just will praise your name:

the upright shall live in your presence.

(Ant.) Lord my God, save me from the desires and attacks of the wicked.

Psalm 140

I have called to you, Lord; hasten to help me!

Hear my voice when I cry to you.

(Ant.) Blessed are you, Lord, you do not reject the plea of your clients!

Let my prayer arise before you like incense,
the raising of my hands like an evening oblation.

Set, O Lord, a guard over my mouth;
keep watch, O Lord, at the door of my lips!
Do not turn my heart to things that are wrong, to evil deeds with men who are sinners. Never allow me to share on their feasting.

If a good man strikes or reproves me it is kindness; but let the oil of the wicked not anoint my head.

Let my prayer be ever against their malice. Their princes were thrown down by the side of the rock:
then they understood that my words were kind.

As a millstone is shattered to pieces on the ground, so their bones were strewn at the mouth of the grave.

To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned:
in you I take refuge; spare my soul!

From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe: keep me from the snares of these who do evil.

Let the wicked fall into the traps they have set whilst
I pursue my way unharmed.

(Ant.) Blessed are you, Lord, you do not reject the plea of your clients!

Marmitha 55Psalm 141

With all my voice I cry to the Lord,
with all my voice I entreat the Lord.

(Ant.) You, who help the lonely, are almighty,

I pour out my troubles before him;
I tell him all my distress.

While my spirit faints within me.

But you, O Lord, know my path.

On the way where I shall walk
they have hidden a snare to entrap me.

Look on my right and see:

there is not one who takes my part.

I have no means of escape,
not one cares for my soul.

I cry to you, O Lord.

I have said: 'You are my refuge,

all I have left in the land of the living.'

Listen, then, to my cry
for I am in the depths of distress.

Rescue me from those who pursue me
for they are stronger than I.

Bring my soul out of this prison
and then I shall praise your name.

Around me the just will assemble
because of your goodness to me.

(Ant.) You, who help the lonely, are almighty!

Psalm 142

Lord, listen to my prayer:

turn your ear to my appeal.

You are faithful, you are just; give answer.

(Ant.) Save your servant, O God, from being oppressed by those who hate justice!

Do not call your servant to judgement for no one is just in your sight.

The enemy pursues my soul;

He has crushed my life to the ground.

He has made me dwell in darkness like the dead, long forgotten.

Therefore my spirit fails;

my heart is dumb within me.

I remember the days that are past:

I ponder all your works.

I muse on what your hand has wrought and to you I stretch out my hands.

Like a parched land my soul thirsts for you.

Lord, make haste and answer;
for my spirit fails within me.

Do not hide your face

lest I become like those in the grave.

In the morning let me know your love for I put my trust in you.

Make me know the way I should walk:
to you I lift up my soul.

Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies;
I have fled to you for refuge.

Teach me to do your will for you, O Lord, are my God.

Let your good spirit guide me in ways that are level and smooth.

For your name's sake, Lord, save my life;
in your justice save my soul from distress.

In your love make an end of my foes;
destroy all those who oppress me for I am your servant, O Lord.

(Ant.) Save your servant, O God, from being oppressed by those who hate justice!

Psalm 143

Blessed be the Lord, my rock who trains my arms for battle, who prepares my hands for war.

(Ant.) Blessed is the Lord who takes vengeance on behalf of the poor and fosters those of the household.

He is my love, my fortress;
he is my stronghold, my saviour.

My shield, my place of refuge.
He brings peoples under my rule.
Lord, what is man that you care for him, mortal man, that you keep him in mind.
Man, who is merely a breath whose life fades like a shadow?
Lower your heavens and come down;
Touch the mountains; wreath them in smoke.
Flash your lightings; rout the foe,
Shoot your arrows and put them to flight.
Reach down from heaven and save me;
draw me out from the mighty waters.
From the hands of alien foes whose mouths are filled with lies, whose hands are raised in perjury.
To you, O God, will I sing a new song;
I will play on the ten stringed lute.
To you who give kings their victory,
who set David your servant free.
You set him free from the evil sword;
you rescued him from alien foes.
whose mouths were filled with lies,
whose hands were raised in perjury.
Let our sons then flourish like saplings grown tall and strong from their youth.
Our daughters graceful as columns, adorned as though for a palace.

Let our barns be filled to overflowing with crops of every kind.

Our sheep increasing by thousands,
myriads of sheep in our fields.

Our cattle heavy with young,
no ruined wall, no exile, no sound of weeping in our streets.

Happy the people with such blessings;
happy the people whose God is the Lord.

(Ant.) Blessed is the Lord who takes vengeance on behalf of the poor and fosters those of the household.

Marmitha 56

Psalm 144

I will give you glory, O God my King,
I will bless your name for ever.

(Ant.) We praise you our Creator, for you led us by the daylight, and reached us to evening to give us rest and protection at night.

I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever.

The Lord is great, highly to be praised,
his greatness cannot be measured.

Age to age shall proclaim your works,
shall declare your mighty deeds.

Shall speak of your splendour and glory,
tell the tale of your wonderful works.
They will speak of your terrible deeds,
recount your greatness and might.

They will recall your abundant goodness;
Age to age shall ring out your justice.
The Lord is kind and full of compassion.
slow to anger, abounding in love.

How good is the Lord to all,
Compassionate to all his creatures.
All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God.
To make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign.

Your is an everlasting kingdom;
your rule lasts from age to age.
The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds.

The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down.
The eyes of all the creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time.
You open wide your hand,
grant the desires of all who live.

The Lord is just in all his ways
and loving in all his deeds.

He is close to all who call him,
who call on him from their hearts.
He grants the desires of those who fear him,
he hears their cry and he saves them.

The Lord protects all who love him;
But the wicked he will utterly destroy.
Let me speak the praise of the Lord, let all mankind bless his holy name for ever, for ages unending.

(Ant.) We praise you our Creator, for you led us by the daylight, and reached us to evening to give us rest and protection at night.

Psalm 145

Alleluia! My soul, give praise to the Lord;

(Ant.) Beings in heaven and on earth will praise, O Eternal Truth, for, in your great mercy, you embraced our humanity by humbling yourself!

I will praise the Lord all my days,
make music to my God while I live.

Put no trust in princes,
in mortal men in whom there is no help.

Take their breath, they return to clay and their plans that day come to nothing.

He is happy who is helped by Jacob's God, whose hope is in the Lord his God.

Who alone made heaven and earth,
the seas and all they contain.

It is he who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

The Lord who gives sight to the blind,
Who raises up those who are bowed down.

The Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. Alleluia!

(Ant.) Beings in heaven and on earth will praise, O Eternal Truth, for, in your great mercy, you embraced our humanity by humbling yourself!

Psalm 146

Alleluia! Praise the Lord for he is good.

(Ant.) Lord, our God, the angels wondered at your creating the luminous bodies; with the angels we praise you at their rising at every dawn!

Sing to our God for he is loving:
to him our praise is due.

The Lord builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles.

He heals the broken hearted,
He binds up all their wounds.

He fixes the number of the stars;
He calls each one by its name.

Our Lord is great and almighty;
His wisdom can never be measured.

The Lord raises the lowly;
He humbles the wicked to the dust.

O sing to the Lord, giving thanks;
Sing psalms to our God with the harp.

He covers the heavens with clouds;
He prepares the rain for the earth.

Making mountains sprout with grass and with plants to serve man's needs.

He provides the beasts with their food and young ravens that call upon him.
His delight is not in horse
nor his pleasure in warrior's strength.

The Lord delights in those who revere him,
in those who wait for his love.

(Ant.) Lord, our God, the angels wondered at your creating the luminous bodies; with the angels we praise you at their rising at every dawn!

Marmitha 57

Psalm 147

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!
Zion, praise your God!

*(Ant.) Blessed is he who installs Jerusalem
in heaven instead of mount Zion!*

He has strengthened the bars of your gates,
He has blessed the children within you.

He established peace on your borders,
He feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command.

He showers down snow white as wool,
He scatters hoar frost like ashes.

He hurls down hailstones like crumbs.
The waters are frozen at his touch;

He sends forth his word and it melts them:
At the breath of his mouth the waters flow.
He makes his word known to Jacob,
to Israel his laws and decrees.

He has not dealt thus with other nations;
he has not taught them his decrees. Alleluia!
*(Ant.) Blessed is he who installs Jerusalem
in heaven instead of mount Zion!*

Psalm 148

Alleluia! Praise the Lord from the heavens.

(Ant.) The heaven of heavens praises you for you brought it into being!

Praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels.

Praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon.

Praise him, shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens

and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord.

He commanded: they were made.

He fixed them for ever,

gave a law which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth,
sea creatures and all oceans.
Fire and hail, snow and mist,
stormy winds that obey his word;
All mountains and hills,
all fruit trees and cedars.
Beasts, wild and tame,
reptiles and birds on the wing.
All earth's kings and peoples,
earth princes and rulers.
Young men and maidens,
old men together with children.
Let them praise the name of the Lord
for he alone is exalted.
The splendour of his name reaches beyond heaven and earth. He exalts the strength of his people.
He is the praise of all his saints, of the sons of Israel, of the people to whom he comes close.
Alleluia!
(Ant.) The heaven of heavens praises you for you brought it into being!

Psalm 149

Alleluia! Sing a new song to the Lord, his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

(Ant.) The people sang praises to God who saved them!

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker,
let Zion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people
He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory,
shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips and a two edged sword in their hand.

To deal out vengeance to the nations and punishment on all the peoples.

To bind their kings in chains and their nobles in fetters of iron; to carry out the sentence pre ordained: This honour is for all his faithful. Alleluia!

(Ant.) The people sang praises to God who saved them!

Psalm 150

Alleluia! Praise God in his holy place,
praise him in his mighty heavens.

(Ant.) The Son of God sanctified you and invited you to his kingdom!

Praise him for his powerful deeds,
praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet,
praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance,
praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals,
praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes
give praise to the Lord. Alleluia!

*(Ant.) The Son of God sanctified you
And invited you to his kingdom!*

Marmitha 58

Moses' Song of Victory (Exod 15:1-21)

I shall sing to the Lord,
for he has covered himself in glory,
Horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.

(Ant.) Blessed is the Creator Who saved his people *and saved the Church in Christ

With signs and wonders!*

The Lord is my strength and my song,
To him I owe my deliverance.

He is my God and I shall praise him,
My father's God and I shall extol him.

The Lord is a warrior;
The Lord is his name.

Pharaoh's chariots and army
He has hurled into the sea.

The pick of his officers have been Drowned in the Sea of Reeds.

The ocean has closed over them;
They have sunk to the bottom like a stone.

Your right hand, the Lord, wins glory by its strength,
Your right hand, Lord, shatters your foes.

And by your great majesty
You fell your assailants;
You unleash your fury,
It consumes them like chaff.

A blast from your nostrils and the waters piled high;
The waves stood firm as a dyke; the bed of the sea became firm ground.

The enemy said, 'I shall give chase and overtake.

I shall share out the spoil and glut myself on them,
I shall draw my sword, my hand will destroy them.'

You blew with your breath,

The sea closed over them;

They sank like lead in the terrible waters.

Lord, who is like you, majestic in sanctity,
Who like you among the holy ones,
fearsome of deed, worker of wonders?

You stretched your right hand out,

The earth swallowed them!

In your faithful love you led out
The people you had redeemed,
In your strength you have guided them to your holy dwelling.

Hearing of this, the peoples tremble;

Pangs seize on the people of Philistia.

The chieftains of Edom are dismayed,
Moab's princes—panic has seized them.

All the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away.

On them fall terror and dread.

Through the power of your arm
They are still as stone.

While your people are passing, Lord,

While the people you have purchased are passing.
You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain which is your heritage.

The place which you, Lord,
Have made your dwelling, the sanctuary,
the Lord, prepared by your own hands.

The Lord will be king for ever and ever.

For when Pharaoh's cavalry, with his chariots and horsemen, had gone into the sea, the Lord brought the waters of the sea back over them, though the Israelites went on dry ground right through the sea.

The prophetess Miriam, Aaron's sister, took up a tambourine, and all the women followed her with tambourines, dancing, while Miriam took up from them the refrain:

Sing to the Lord, for he has covered himself in glory, horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.

(Ant.) Blessed is the Creator who saved his people and saved the Church in Christ with signs and wonders!

Isaiah's Hymn of Triumph

(Is 42:10-13; 45:8)

Sing a new song to the Lord!

(Ant.) Praise to the Lord who defeated the wicked in his might and protected his servants!

Let his praise be sung from remotest parts of the earth by those who sail the sea and by everything in it, by the coasts and islands and those who inhabit them.

Let the desert and its cities raise their voices,
the encampments where Kedar lives.

Let the inhabitants of the Rock cry aloud for joy and shout from the mountain tops.

Let them give glory to the Lord and,
in the coasts and islands,
let them voice his praise.

The Lord advances like a hero,
like a warrior he rouses his fire.

He shouts, he raises the war cry,

He shows his might against his foes.

Rain down, you heavens, from above,
and let the clouds pour down saving justice.

Let the earth open up and blossom with salvation, and let justice sprout with it;
I, the Lord, have created it!

(Ant.) Praise to the Lord, who defeated the wicked in his might and protected his servants!

Marmitha 59

The Second Song of Moses

(Part 1 - Deut 32:1-21a)

Listen, heavens, while I speak;
hear, earth, the words that I shall say.

*(Ant.) Lord, listen to my prayer;
turn not your face from my plea!*

May my teaching fall like the rain, may my word drop down like the dew. Like showers on the grass, like light rain on the turf! For I shall proclaim the name of the Lord.

Oh, tell the greatness of our God!

He is the Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are equitable.

A trustworthy God who does no wrong,
He is the Honest, the Upright One.

They have acted perversely,
those he fathered without blemish,
a deceitful and underhand brood.

Is this the return you make to the Lord?
O people brainless and unwise!
Is this not your father, who gave you being,
Who made you, by whom you subsist?
Think back on the days of old,
Think over the years, down the ages.
Question your father, let him explain to you,
Your elders, and let them tell you!
When the Most High gave the nations each their heritage,
When he partitioned out the human race.
He assigned the boundaries of nations
according to the number of the children of God,
But the Lord's portion was his people,
Jacob was to be the measure of his inheritance.
In the desert he finds him, in the howling expanses of the wastelands.
He protects him, rears him,
guards him as the pupil of his eye.
Like an eagle watching its nest, hovering over its young, he spreads out his wings to hold him,
He supports him on his pinions.
The Lord alone is his guide;
no alien god for him!

He gives him the heights of the land to ride,
He feeds him on the yield of the mountains,
He gives him honey from the rock to taste, and oil from the flinty crag;
curds from the cattle, milk from the flock,
And the richness of the pasture,
Rams of Bashan's breed,
And goats, the richness of the wheat kernel;
The fermented blood of the grape for drink.

Jacob has eaten to his heart's content,
Jeshurun, grown fat, has now lashed out.
He has disowned the God who made him,
and dishonoured the Rock, his salvation.

Whose jealousy they aroused with foreigners with things detestable they angered him.
They sacrificed to demons who are not God,
To gods hitherto unknown to them,
to whom their ancestors had never respected.

The Lord saw it and, in anger,
He spurned his sons and daughters.
'I shall hide my face from them,' he said,
'and see what will become of them.

For they are a deceitful brood,
Children with no loyalty in them.
They have roused me to jealousy with a non-god, they have exasperated me with their idols.

*(Ant.) Lord, listen to my prayer;
turn not your face from my plea!*

Marmitha 60

The Third Song of Moses

(Part 2 - Deut 32: 21b-43)

In my turn I shall rouse them to jealousy with a non-people,

I shall exasperate them with a stupid nation.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who raised the foolish and revealed the things yet to come to them!

Yes, a fire has blazed from my anger,

It will burn right down to the depths of Sheol.

It will devour the earth and all its produce,

It will set fire to the footings of the mountains.

I shall hurl disasters on them,

On them I shall use up all my arrows.

They will be weakened by hunger,

Eaten away by plague and the bitter scourge.

Against them I shall send the fang of wild animals and the poison of snakes that glide in the dust.

Outside, the sword bereaves, while inside terror will reign.

Young man and girl alike will perish, suckling and greybeard both together.

I should crush them to dust,
I said, I should wipe out all memory of them.
Did I not fear the boasting of the enemy.'
But do not let their foes be mistaken.
Do not let them say, 'We have got Upper hand and the Lord plays no part in this.'
What a short-sighted nation this is,
How thoroughly imperceptive!
Were they wise, they would succeed,
They would be able to read their destiny.
How else could one man rout a thousand,
How could two put ten thousand to flight.
Were it not that their Rock has sold them,
That The Lord has delivered them up?
But their rock is not like our Rock;
Our enemies cannot pray for us!
For their vine springs
From the stock of Sodom
And from the groves of Gomorrah.
Their grapes are poisonous grapes,
Their clusters are bitter.
Their wine is snakes' poison,
The vipers' cruel venom.
But he, is he not safe with me,
sealed inside my treasury?
Vengeance is mine, I will pay them back,
For the time when they make a false step.

For the day of their ruin is close,
doom is rushing towards them.

For he will see to it that their power fails,
That neither serf nor free man remains.
For the Lord will see his people righted,
He will take pity on his servants.

‘Where are their gods then?’ he will ask,
‘The rock where they sought refuge.
Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their libations?’

Let these arise and help you,
Let these be the shelter above you!
See now that I, I am he,
and beside me there is no other god.

It is I who deal death and life;
when I have struck, it is I who heal
no one can rescue anyone from me.

Yes, I raise my hand to heaven,
and I say, ‘As surely as I live for ever.

When I have whetted my flashing sword,
I shall enforce justice.

I shall return vengeance to my foes,
I shall take vengeance on my foes.

I shall make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will feed on flesh.
The blood of the wounded and the prisoners,
The dishevelled heads of the enemy.’

Heavens, rejoice with him,
Let all the children of God pay him homage.
Nations, rejoice with his people,
Let God's envoys tell of his power.

For he will avenge the blood of his servants,
He will return vengeance to my foes.
He will repay those who hate him
And purify his people's country.

(Ant.) Blessed is he who raised the foolish and revealed the things yet to come to them.
